15 Orders by consent

On an application for the exercise of a court's jurisdiction under this Part, the court may make any order under section 10 or section 11 or section 12 or section 14 with the consent of each party to the proceedings, if the court is satisfied that the person in respect of whom the application is made understands the nature and foresees the consequences of the order and consents to it.

16 Persons subject to property order

- (1) Where an application for the exercise of a court's jurisdiction under this Part is made in respect of any person subject to a property order, any order made by the court under section 10 or section 12 or section 14 shall be binding on the manager of that person's property; and, in the event of any conflict arising between the powers and duties of the manager under Part 4 and the terms of the personal order, the personal order shall prevail.
- (2) In any case to which subsection (1) applies, the manager may apply to a court for the variation, suspension, or discharge of the personal order, or for directions relating to its implementation.

17 Expiry of orders

- (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), a personal order shall expire—
- (a) on the date, or at the close of the period, specified in that behalf by the court in the order; or
- (b) if no such provision is made in the order,—
- (i) on the expiry of a period of 12 months beginning with the date of the order; or
- (ii) when the effect of the order is spent,—
- whichever is the earlier.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), every personal order in which provision is made for the review of the order before a specified date shall expire on that date unless, on a review of the order, the court decides that it should continue beyond that date.
- (3) Where, in any case to which subsection (2) applies, an application for a review of the order is made but not determined before the specified date, the order shall remain in force pending the determination of the application.

Part 2

Welfare guardians

18 Powers and duties of welfare guardian

- (1) No court shall empower a welfare guardian, and no welfare guardian shall have power,—
 - (a) to make any decision relating to the entering into marriage or civil union by the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting, or to the dissolution of that person's marriage or civil union; or
 - (b) to make any decision relating to the adoption of any child of that person; or
 - (c) to refuse consent to the administering to that person of any standard medical treatment or procedure intended to save that person's life or to prevent serious damage to that person's health; or
 - (d) to consent to the administering to that person of electro-convulsive treatment; or
 - (e) to consent to the performance on that person of any surgery or other treatment designed to destroy any part of the brain or any brain function for the purpose of changing that person's behaviour; or
 - (f) to consent to that person's taking part in any medical experiment other than one to be conducted for the purpose of saving that person's life or of preventing serious damage to that person's health.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), a welfare guardian shall have all such powers as may be reasonably required to enable the welfare guardian to make and implement decisions for the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting in respect of each aspect specified by the court in the order by which the appointment of the welfare guardian is made.
- (3) In exercising those powers, the first and paramount consideration of a welfare guardian shall be the promotion and protection of the welfare and best interests of the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting, while seeking at all times to encourage that person to develop and exercise such capacity as that person has to understand the nature and foresee the consequences of decisions relating to the personal care and welfare of that person, and to communicate such decisions.
- (4) Without limiting the generality of subsection (3), a welfare guardian shall—
 - (a) encourage the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting to act on his or her own behalf to the greatest extent possible; and
 - (b) seek to facilitate the integration of the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting into the community to the greatest extent possible; and
 - (c) consult, so far as may be practicable,—

- (i) the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting; and
 - (ii) such other persons, as are, in the opinion of the welfare guardian, interested in the welfare of the person and competent to advise the welfare guardian in relation to the personal care and welfare of that person; and
 - (iii) a representative of any group that is engaged, otherwise than for commercial gain, in the provision of services and facilities for the welfare of persons in respect of whom the court has jurisdiction in accordance with section 6, and that, in the opinion of the welfare guardian, is interested in the welfare of the person and competent to advise the welfare guardian in relation to the personal care and welfare of that person.
- (5) In addition to subsection (4)(c), where the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting is subject to a property order, the welfare guardian shall consult on a regular basis with the manager of that person's property to ensure that the interests of that person are not prejudiced through any breakdown in communication between the welfare guardian and the manager.
- (6) A welfare guardian may apply to a court for directions relating to the exercise of the powers of the welfare guardian, and the court may give such directions as it thinks fit.

Section 18(1)(a): amended, on 26 April 2005, by section 7 of the Relationships (Statutory References) Act 2005 (2005 No 3).

19 Effect of welfare guardian's decisions, etc

- (1) Every decision made by a welfare guardian in the exercise of the powers conferred by or under this Part, and everything done by a welfare guardian in implementation of any such decision, shall have the same effect as it would have had if it had been made or done by the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting and that person had had full capacity to make or do it.
- (2) No person dealing with a welfare guardian in respect of any matter within the powers of the welfare guardian shall be concerned to inquire as to the concurrence or otherwise of the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting or of any other person, or be affected by notice that any such person has not concurred.

20 Liability of welfare guardian

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), no action shall lie against a welfare guardian in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by the welfare guardian in the exercise of the powers conferred by or under this Act, unless it is shown that the welfare guardian acted in bad faith or without reasonable care.
- (2) A welfare guardian shall be personally liable in respect of any contract or arrangement entered into with, or liability incurred to, any person if the welfare guardian does not, before entering into the contract or arrangement or incurring the liability, disclose to that person that the welfare guardian is acting in that capacity.

21 Welfare guardian's expenses

- (1) Subject to any order of a court made under subsection (2), all expenses reasonably incurred by a welfare guardian in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred by or under this Act shall be charged against, and payable out of, the property of the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting.
- (2) A court may order that any expenses incurred or to be incurred by a welfare guardian in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred by or under this Act shall be met, in whole or in part, out of a Crown Bank Account from money appropriated for the purpose by Parliament; and every such order shall have effect according to its tenor.

Section 21(2): amended, on 25 January 2005, pursuant to section 83(7) of the Public Finance Act 1989 (1989 No 44).

22 When welfare guardian ceases to hold office

A welfare guardian shall cease to hold office—

- (a) if the person for whom the welfare guardian is acting dies; or
- (b) if the welfare guardian dies or is adjudged bankrupt or becomes a special patient or a committed patient under the Mental Health Act 1969 or becomes subject to a property order or becomes otherwise incapable of acting; or
- (c) if the personal order by which the welfare guardian was appointed expires in accordance with section 17 or is discharged by the court under section 86.

23 Appointment of welfare guardian in event of non-compliance

- (1) Where any person is required by a personal order to do anything and that person fails to comply with any of the requirements of the order, any party to the proceedings in which the order was made, or the person in respect of whom the order was made, may apply to a court for the appointment of a welfare guardian.
- (2) The function of a welfare guardian appointed under this section shall be to take all reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the order of the court by the person who has so far failed to comply with it.
- (3) A court, on appointing a welfare guardian under this section, shall specify in the order by which the appointment is made the date on which the welfare guardian is to cease to act; and on that date the order shall expire.
- (4) Subject to the preceding provisions of this section, the provisions of sections 19 to 22, so far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, shall apply to a welfare guardian appointed under this section as if the welfare guardian had been appointed under section 12.

Part 3

Property rights

24 Presumption of competence

For the purposes of this Part, every person shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be competent to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property.

25 Jurisdiction of court under this Part

- (1) A court shall have jurisdiction under this Part in respect of any property owned by any person—
 - (a) who is domiciled or is ordinarily resident in New Zealand; and
 - (b) who, in the opinion of the court, lacks wholly or partly the competence to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property.
- (2) A court shall also have jurisdiction under this Part in respect of any property situated in New Zealand and owned by any person—
 - (a) who is not domiciled nor is ordinarily resident in New Zealand; and
 - (b) who, in the opinion of the court, lacks wholly or partly the competence to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property so situated.
- (3) The fact that the person in respect of whom an application is made for the exercise of the court's jurisdiction is managing or is intending to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property in a manner that a person of ordinary prudence would not adopt given the same circumstances is not in itself sufficient ground for the exercise of that jurisdiction by the court.
- (4) In determining whether or not it should exercise its jurisdiction under this Part in relation to any person, a court may have regard to the degree to which the person is subject, or is liable to be subjected, to undue influence in the management of his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property.

26 Persons who may apply for exercise of court's jurisdiction

Any 1 or more of the following persons may apply to a court for the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Part:

- (e) a trustee corporation;

- (f) a representative of any group that is engaged, otherwise than for commercial gain, in the provision of services and facilities for the welfare of persons in relation to whom the court has jurisdiction under this Act in accordance with section 25:
- (g) where the exercise of the court's jurisdiction is sought in respect of any person who is a patient or a resident in any place that provides hospital care, rest home care, or residential disability care within the meaning of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001, the principal manager of that place:
- (h) where a welfare guardian has been appointed for the person in respect of whom the application is made, that welfare guardian:
- (i) any other person, with leave of the court.

Section 26(g): substituted, on 25 September 2008, by section 5 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Amendment Act 2007 (2007 No 90).

27 Need for application in respect of hospital patient, etc, may be investigated

- (1) Where—
 - (a) any person is or has been admitted to any hospital, home, or other institution as a patient or resident; and
 - (b) the superintendent, licensee, supervisor, or other person in charge of the hospital, home, or other institution considers—
 - (i) that the patient or resident may be a person in relation to whom a court has jurisdiction under this Part; and
 - (ii) that it may be desirable in the interests of the patient or resident that a manager be appointed under this Part in respect of any property owned by the patient or resident,— the superintendent, licensee, supervisor, or other person in charge may give notice of the case to the Registrar of the court.

- (2) On receiving any notice under subsection (1), the Registrar may refer the matter to a trustee corporation with a request that the corporation investigate the case and report to the Registrar on—
 - (a) whether any person described in section 26 is intending to make an application to the court for the exercise of its jurisdiction under section 25, or to a trustee corporation under section 32 or section 33, in respect of any property owned by the patient or resident; and
 - (b) if no such person is intending to make such an application, whether the trustee corporation considers that such an application would be desirable in the interests of the patient.
- (3) If the trustee corporation—
 - (a) finds that no person described in section 26 intends to make such an application; and

- (b) considers that the making of such an application would be desirable in the interest of the patient; and
 - (c) does not intend to make such an application itself,— the trustee corporation may report accordingly to the Registrar.
- (4) On receiving a report under subsection (3), the Registrar shall refer the matter to a Judge who may give to the Registrar all such directions as the Judge considers appropriate to have the matter drawn to the attention of such person or persons described in section 26 as the Judge thinks fit.

28 Primary objectives of court in exercise of jurisdiction under this Part

The primary objectives of a court on an application for the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Part shall be as follows:

- (a) to make the least restrictive intervention possible in the management of the affairs of the person in respect of whom the application is made in relation to his or her property, having regard to the degree of that person's lack of competence:
- (b) to enable or encourage that person to exercise and develop such competence as he or she has to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property to the greatest extent possible.

29 Course to be followed by court

- (1) In considering an application for the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Part, a court shall determine whether or not the person in respect of whom the application is made is a person in relation to whom it has jurisdiction under this Part in accordance with section 25.
- (2) If the court is satisfied that the person in respect of whom the application is made is a person in relation to whom it has jurisdiction under this Part in accordance with section 25, the court shall determine whether or not to make an order under section 31, and (if so) in relation to what property, having regard to the primary objectives specified in section 28.
- (3) If the court decides to make an order under section 31 in relation to any property, it shall determine which of the rights and powers specified in clause 1 of Schedule 1 the manager is to have in respect of that property, what other rights and powers (if any) the manager is to have in respect of that property, and what restrictions (if any) are to be imposed on the exercise of any such rights and powers.

30 Temporary orders

- (1) Where a court is satisfied—
 - (a) that an application for the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Part has been made or is to be made in relation to any person; and

- (b) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that that person may be a person in relation to whom a court has jurisdiction under this Part in accordance with section 25; and
- (c) that it is in the best interests of that person that urgent provision be made for the protection of his or her property or any part of it pending the final determination of the application for the exercise of the court's jurisdiction,— the court may make a temporary order under this section.

- (2) A temporary order may be made on the application of any person specified in section 26.
- (3) It shall not be necessary to serve a copy of an application for a temporary order on the person in respect of whom the order is sought, nor shall that person be entitled to attend, or be heard, or call or cross-examine witnesses in respect of the application, unless the court otherwise orders.
- (4) Nothing in sections 66 to 73 shall apply in respect of an application for a temporary order under this section.
- (5) If a court makes a temporary order, it shall appoint as temporary manager such fit and proper person (being a person who would be eligible for appointment as manager under section 31) to take possession and control of the property of the person in respect of whom the order is made, or such of that person's property as may be specified in the order.
- (6) Where a court decides to make a temporary order, sections 16, 31, 35 to 53, and 57 shall apply with any necessary modifications.
- (7) No temporary order made pursuant to this section shall continue in force for more than 3 months after the date on which it is made.
- (8) A temporary order made pursuant to this section may be varied, discharged, or enforced in the same manner as if it were a final order of the Family Court.

- (2) Where the court appoints 2 or more managers, their responsibility shall be jointly held, unless the court orders otherwise.
- (3) No person under the age of 20 years, and no body corporate other than a trustee corporation, shall be appointed a manager under this section.

- (4) Where the person in respect of whom the application for the exercise of the court's jurisdiction is made is a patient or resident of a hospital, home, or other institution, the superintendent, licensee, supervisor, or other person in charge of the hospital, home, or other institution shall not be appointed a manager under this section.
- (5) The court shall not appoint any person a manager under this section unless it is satisfied—
 - (a) that the proposed appointee is capable of carrying out the duties of a manager in a satisfactory manner, having regard to the needs of the person in respect of whom the application is made, and the relationship between that person and the proposed appointee; and
 - (b) that the proposed appointee will act in the best interests of the person in respect of whom the application is made; and
 - (c) the proposed appointee consents to the appointment.
- (6) In determining whom to appoint as manager under this section, a court shall take into account any likely conflict between the interests of the proposed appointee and those of the person in respect of whom the application is made.
- (7) So far as is practicable in the circumstances, a court shall ascertain the wishes of the person in respect of whom the application is made when determining whom to appoint as manager under this section.
- (8) In any order made under this section, the court shall specify a date, being not later than 3 years after the date of the order, by which the manager is required to apply to the court for a review of the order.

Managers

35 Property not to vest in manager

The property of a person subject to a property order shall not vest in the manager, but the manager shall be entitled to the possession and management of so much of the property as the order applies to in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this Part.

36 Functions and duties of manager

- (1) In managing any property under this Act, the first and paramount consideration of a manager shall be to use the property in the promotion and protection of the best interests of the person for whom the manager is acting, while seeking at all times to encourage that person to develop and exercise such competence as that person has to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), so far as is practicable in the circumstances and to encourage the person for whom the manager is acting to develop and exercise such competence as that person has to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property, the manager may allow that person to have control of and deal with any part of the property.

37 Security for performance of manager's duties

Part 5

Powers and property of persons subject to property orders

53 Powers of persons subject to property orders

- (1) Subject to section 36(2), a person subject to a property order shall be incapable of exercising personally any of the powers vested in the manager in respect of any property to which the manager's powers extend.
- (2) Every transfer, lease, mortgage, or other disposition of property, and every contract (except for necessities), made or entered into by a person subject to a property order who, by virtue of subsection (1) does not have the capacity to make or enter into it shall, unless it is made or entered into with the leave of a court, be avoidable by that person or by the manager acting for that person.
- (3) A court may give leave to any person subject to a property order to make any such transfer, lease, mortgage, or other disposition, or to enter into any such contract, if the court is satisfied that the transaction is for the person's benefit and that the person consents to it with adequate understanding of its nature.

- (4) A manager shall not be entitled to avoid any transaction under subsection (2) in any case where an application in writing has been made to the manager by any party to the transaction requiring the manager to decide whether or not to avoid the transaction, and the manager has, for a period of 28 days after the receipt of the application or such extended period as may be allowed by a court, failed to give to that party notice whether the manager is avoiding the transaction or not.
- (5) If the manager, after any such application, does not, within the period or extended period referred to in subsection (4), avoid the transaction, the manager shall be deemed to have continued it.
- (6) Subject to subsection (8), if any transaction is avoided under subsection (2), a court, on the application of any party to the transaction or of the manager, may make such orders as it thinks just for the purpose of adjusting the rights of the parties and of any other person who has received any property or money comprised in the transaction (not being a person who has received the property or money from a party in good faith and for valuable consideration or who claims through such a person).
- (7) Without limiting the generality of subsection (6), on an application under that subsection, a court may make an order for the restitution or transfer or payment by or to the person subject to a property order or the manager or any other person of any property or money, in whole or in part, or of any sum representing the value, in whole or in part, of any such property.
- (8) Relief under subsections (6) and (7) may be denied wholly or in part if the person from whom relief is sought received the property or money in good faith and has so altered his or her position in reliance on having received an indefeasible interest in it that, in the court's opinion, it would be inequitable to grant relief, or to grant relief in full, as the case may be.
- (9) For the purposes of subsection (2), the question whether goods or services are necessities is a question of fact.

54 Testamentary powers of person subject to property order

- (1) Without limiting the generality of section 4, a person subject to a property order shall not, by reason only of being subject to that order, be incapable of making testamentary dispositions.
- (2) A court may direct that a person subject to a property order may make a testamentary disposition only by leave of the court; and, in such a case, a testamentary disposition made without the leave of the court shall be ineffective for all purposes.
- (3) The court may grant leave to make a testamentary disposition under subsection (2) in respect of a testamentary disposition already made or to be made.

- (4) The court may cause inquiries to be made as to the existence of any testamentary disposition made by a person subject to a property order before the making of the property order (whether such testamentary disposition was made before or after the passing of this Act), and may direct that any such testamentary disposition shall be deposited in the court.
- (5) If it appears to the court that a testamentary disposition was made when the person was unable to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property, the court may cause inquiries to be made, in such manner as the court thinks fit, whether that testamentary disposition expresses the present desire and intention of the person.
- (6) If the court is satisfied that the testamentary disposition does not express the present desire and intention of the person, a court may, in any case where such a course is possible, cause the present desire and intention of the person to be ascertained to the court's satisfaction, and may authorise the execution by the manager under section 55 of a new testamentary disposition of that person's estate in accordance with that present desire and intention.

55 Court may authorise manager to make testamentary disposition for person subject to property order

- (1) Where the court has given a direction under section 54(2) that a person subject to a property order may make a testamentary disposition only by leave of the court, or the court is satisfied that such a person lacks testamentary capacity, the court may authorise the manager acting for that person to execute a will for and on behalf of that person in such terms as the court directs.
- (2) Before a court authorises a manager to execute a testamentary disposition under subsection (1), it shall settle the proposed terms of the testamentary disposition provisionally, and hear such persons who wish to be heard and whom the court is satisfied have a proper interest in the matter.
- (3) A testamentary disposition executed by a manager under this section may, while the person continues to lack testamentary capacity, be varied, or revoked and substituted, by another testamentary disposition authorised by the court and executed by the manager in the same manner as the original testamentary disposition.
- (4) Any testamentary disposition executed by a manager under this section shall be—
 - (a) signed in the manager's name for and on behalf of the person for whom it is made, in the presence of 2 or more witnesses present at the same time; and
 - (b) attested and subscribed by those witnesses in the presence of the manager; and
 - (c) sealed with the seal of the court.

- (5) The following provisions apply to a testamentary disposition authorised and executed under this section:
- (a) it is valid despite—
 - (i) section 11 of the Wills Act 2007; and
 - (ii) sections 9 and 10 of the Wills Act 1837 of the United Kingdom Parliament; and
 - (b) it has the same effect for all purposes as it would have had if the person subject to the property order—
 - (i) had had testamentary capacity; and
 - (ii) had executed the testamentary disposition in the manner required by the applicable section.
- (6) The Law Reform (Testamentary Promises) Act 1949, the Family Protection Act 1955, and all other enactments and rules of law relating to the estates of deceased persons shall apply in respect of any testamentary disposition executed under this section as if the person to whom it relates had had testamentary capacity and had executed the testamentary disposition in accordance with law.
- (7) Notwithstanding paragraph (c) of subsection (4), a testamentary disposition that is signed in accordance with paragraph (a) of that subsection, and attested and subscribed in accordance with paragraph (b) of that subsection, shall be valid notwithstanding that the person to whom the testamentary disposition relates dies before it is sealed with the seal of the court so long as the terms of the testamentary disposition accord with the directions of the court.
- (8) A testamentary disposition authorised and executed in accordance with this section shall continue to have effect, until it is revoked, notwithstanding that the person to whom it relates has ceased to be subject to a property order.

Section 55(5): substituted, on 1 November 2007, by section 41 of the Wills Act 2007 (2007 No 36).

56 Testamentary law otherwise unaffected

Except as provided in sections 54 and 55, nothing in this Act shall affect the law relating to testamentary dispositions.

57 Proceedings, execution, etc, not to proceed without leave of court

- (1) From the date on which an application is made for a property order in respect of any person, no person shall, without the leave of a court,—
- (a) bring or continue any proceedings (not being proceedings under this Act or proceedings in the High Court) against the person in respect of whom the application is made; or
 - (b) issue any execution, attach any debt, or otherwise enforce or seek to enforce any judgment or order (not being a judgment or order given

- under this Act) against the person in respect of whom the application is made; or
- (c) enter into possession, sell, appoint a receiver, or take or continue any power or right under or in pursuance of any mortgage, charge, instrument, or other security over the property of the person in respect of whom the application is made; or
- (d) determine or forfeit any tenancy, retake or re-enter any premises, or take or continue any power or right under or in pursuance of any lease, tenancy, or agreement to let or lease against the property of the person in respect of whom the application is made.
- (2) This section shall also apply to a company and its property, and to any subsidiary of a company and the subsidiary's property, where the person in respect of whom the application is made is a member of the company and holds more than 50% of its issued shares.

- (1) Where any property (including money) is derived from any sale, mortgage, charge, or other disposition of any other property belonging to a person subject to a property order pursuant to any powers conferred by or under this Act or any former corresponding Act, the person whose property is so disposed of, and anyone claiming through that person, shall have the same interest in the property so derived, so far as it has not been applied or spent or disposed of in accordance with any powers so conferred, as he or she would have had in the property disposed of if no disposition had been made, and the surplus property so derived shall be deemed to be of the same nature as the property disposed of.
- (2) In any such case, the manager may, for the purpose of giving better effect to the provisions of subsection (1), carry to a separate account an amount representing the property so derived, or any balance for the time being remaining.

- (3) While an amount stands to the credit of that separate account, any payments from the property of the person subject to a property order shall be made out of any other property properly available for the purpose, except so far as the manager decides that the payment should be made wholly or partly from the separate account.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), this section shall apply in all cases, whether the property was so derived before or after the commencement of this Act, but shall not apply to any property so derived by the disposition of any property belonging to a mentally defective person who died before 18 October 1957 (being the date of the commencement of the Mental Health Amendment Act 1957), unless the court had, in the lifetime of that person, made an order that would have been authorised by section 60 if it had then been in force.
- (5) No distribution that has been made before the commencement of this Act of property affected by any such order shall be disturbed by reason of this section or of section 59 or section 60.
- (6) This section shall not apply to income arising from any such property so derived during the lifetime of the person subject to a property order.

59 Notional preservation of character of money expended for certain purposes

- (1) A court shall have power to order that the whole or any part of any money expended or to be expended for—
 - (a) the improvement, security, or advantage of any property of a person subject to a property order; or
 - (b) repaying money secured by a mortgage or other charge over such property,—shall be a charge upon the property, but so that no right of sale during the lifetime of the person shall be conferred by the charge.
- (2) The charge may include interest on the money if the court thinks fit, and the court may give directions regarding payment of interest.
- (3) The charge may take effect in favour of a person as trustee for the person subject to a property order as part of that latter person's personal estate or of a specified part thereof.
- (4) At any time before the death of a person in respect of whom the court has made an order under this section, and whether or not that person is still subject to a property order, the court may vary or discharge the charge and give any consequential directions.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall apply to any mortgage or charge in favour of any other person who advances the money, nor shall it restrict the operation of section 56 of the Public Trust Act 2001 or affect any charge created by subsection (4) of that section.

Section 59(5): amended, on 1 March 2002, by section 170(1) of the Public Trust Act 2001 (2001 No 100).

60 Court may make orders for preserving nature and devolution of property

- (1) A court shall have power, in the management of the property of a person subject to a property order, to make such orders as it thinks fit for the purpose of preserving the nature, quality, tenure, and devolution of the property or of any part of it.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a court may direct that any money shall be carried to a separate account, and may declare the notional character that the money in that account bears, and may order such assurances and things to be executed and done as it thinks expedient.
- (3) At any time before the death of the person subject to a property order, and whether or not he or she is still subject to such an order, the court may vary or discharge the order, and give any consequential directions.

61 Termination of notional preservation of character of assets

- (1) Section 58 shall cease to apply to any capital money, and any charge on property created under an order of the court made under section 59 shall be extinguished, and any order of the court made under section 60 shall cease to have effect, if, at any time after section 58 became applicable to the capital money, or the charge came into existence, or the order was made, as the case may be (in this section referred to as a subsequent time), the person subject to a property order has been entitled for any continuous period of 12 months to manage the capital money, or the property charged, or the money or other property affected by the order, as the case may be.
- (2) If the person subject to a property order has not been so entitled, section 58 shall continue to apply to any of his or her capital money to which it has become applicable, and any such charge or order shall continue to exist and have effect, except so far as the person has, at any subsequent time, while having the necessary capacity to do so,—
 - (a) made a valid testamentary disposition of, or paid or transferred to any other person beneficially, the capital money or the property charged or the money or other property affected by the order, as the case may be; or
 - (b) in the case of property charged, released the charge.
- (3) This section shall not limit or affect any power of the court under section 59 or section 60 to vary or discharge any such charge or order.
- (4) Subsection (2) shall have effect whether or not the person continues to be subject to a property order or to be entitled to manage all or any of his or her money and other property.

62 Court may settle the beneficial interests of person subject to property order

- (1) A court may direct a settlement to be made of all or any of the property of a person subject to a property order on such trusts and subject to such powers and provisions as the court may think fit; and, in particular, the court may give such directions—
 - (a) where the property has been acquired under a settlement or will, or on intestacy, or represents property so acquired; or
 - (b) where,—
 - (i) by reason of any change in the law or of any change in circumstances since the execution by the person of a testamentary disposition; or
 - (ii) by reason of any absence of information at the time of that execution; or
 - (iii) on account of the former management of the property or the expenditure of money in improving or maintaining it; or
 - (iv) for any other special reason,—

the court is satisfied that the devolution or distribution of the property of the person, either under any testamentary disposition or on intestacy, would be such as might cause injustice or hardship to any person.
- (2) A court may direct the transfer by way of gift of any of the property of a person subject to a property order for the maintenance and benefit of members of the person's family or for the provision of other persons or purposes for whom or which the person might be expected to provide if he or she were able to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property.
- (3) A court may direct the manager, to execute any transfer or other instrument, and to do any other act or thing, that may be required for giving effect to the transfer or settlement, in the name and on behalf of the person, and for that purpose may make a vesting order or appoint a person to convey; and any settlement or transfer approved by the court shall be as effectual and binding on all persons interested as if it had been made by the person while of full competence.
- (4) This section applies whether or not the person has executed a testamentary disposition and notwithstanding that it is not known whether the person has executed such a disposition or not, but does not apply when the person is a minor who is not married or in a civil union.
- (5) An application to a court for an order under this section may be made by any of the following persons:
 - (a) any person who has or would have had any interest in the property of the person subject to a property order or any expectation of succession to any such property, whether that interest or expectation arises or could

- have arisen under a testamentary disposition that is known to exist or in the event of the intestacy of the person:
- (b) the manager:
 - (c) any other person who adduces proof of circumstances that, in the opinion of the court, make it proper that that person should make the application.
- (6) Subject to making due provision for the maintenance of the person subject to a property order in accordance with his or her means and way of life, whether out of the capital or income of the property settled or other property or partly in one way and partly in another, and to providing, by means of a power of appointment or revocation, or otherwise, for the possibility of the person recovering full competence to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property, the court may, in making any order under this section, have regard to all or any of the following matters:
- (a) the manner in which the property has been settled or dealt with on former occasions:
 - (b) in the case of any land or business, the welfare of the persons employed in connection with the land or business, and the expediency of settling other assets to devolve with the land or business:
 - (c) the provisions of any testamentary disposition of the person subject to a property order:
 - (d) the expediency of providing for—
 - (i) payments or annuities for the wife, husband, civil union partner, de facto partner, or children of the person subject to a property order or for other persons dependent on that person, and for other annual or capital charges and the power to create them:
 - (ii) the continuation or provision of any superannuation or pension, and the application of any part of the income for charitable purposes:
 - (iii) discretionary trusts, trusts for effecting or maintaining policies of insurance, powers of appointment, sinking funds for making good any losses (instead of or in addition to insurance), or any other purposes:
 - (iv) the extension of any statutory powers of investment, management, or otherwise:
 - (v) the manner in which any costs are to be raised and paid, whether out of the settled property or otherwise:
 - (vi) any other matter or thing that the court may consider material, having regard to the nature of the settlement, development, and enjoyment, and to the persons who are to take, either successively or otherwise.

- (7) At any time before the death of a person in respect of whom it has made an order under this section, and whether or not he or she is still subject to a property order, the court may, in respect of any property remaining subject to the trusts of a settlement made under this section, on being satisfied that any material fact was not disclosed to the court when the settlement was made, or on account of any substantial change in circumstances, by order vary the settlement in such manner as it thinks fit, and give any consequential directions.
- (8) Without limiting the provisions of section 111, rules of court may be made for all or any of the following purposes:
- (a) giving effect to the provisions of this section:
 - (b) compelling information to be furnished respecting, and production of, testamentary dispositions, and their lodgement in court:

If it appears to the manager of a person subject to a property order in New Zealand that the person is possessed of or entitled to or interested in property in any country in respect of which an Order in Council under section 91(1) is for the time being in force, the manager may deliver to an authorised officer in that country a certificate to the effect that the person is subject to a property order, and may by instrument in writing under his or her hand (or seal, if a trustee corporation) authorise that officer to collect, manage, sell, or otherwise dispose of and manage such property, or to make inquiry respecting it.

93 Resealing in New Zealand

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, apply the provisions of this section, subject to any exceptions and modifications specified in the order, to any country specified in the order.
- (2) When any Order in Council under subsection (1) is for the time being in force in respect of any country, a copy of any order or declaration made by a court of competent jurisdiction under the law of that country in the exercise of its jurisdiction in respect of incapacitated persons or their estates may be deposited with a Registrar of a court in New Zealand and shall thereupon, subject to the payment of any prescribed fees, be sealed with the seal of that court.
- (3) On the sealing of the order or declaration under subsection (2), it shall, subject to subsection (4) and to any exceptions or modifications specified in the Order in Council, have the like force and effect and have the same operation, and every master, curator, administrator, guardian, committee, manager, or receiver acting under it shall perform the same duties and be subject to the same liabilities in New Zealand, as if it had been originally made by the court in New Zealand.
- (4) No such master, curator, administrator, guardian, committee, manager, or receiver appointed under any such order shall have or exercise any power or authority under it in New Zealand after it has been so sealed until his or her appointment has been confirmed by a court in New Zealand, which confirmation may be granted on such terms as the court thinks fit or may be refused.
- (5) This section shall apply to such orders and declarations, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act.

Part 9

Enduring powers of attorney

93A Purpose of this Part

- (1) The purpose of this Part is to enable a person (the donor) to—
 - (a) grant to another person an enduring power of attorney to act in relation to the donor's personal care and welfare if the donor becomes mentally incapable:
 - (b) grant to another person or persons enduring powers of attorney to act in relation to the donor's property affairs—
 - (i) if the donor becomes mentally incapable; or

- (ii) while the donor is mentally capable and if the donor becomes mentally incapable:
 - (c) grant to another person an enduring power of attorney to act in both capacities.
- (2) Accordingly, this Part—
- (a) states the requirements for creating an enduring power of attorney:
 - (b) defines when a donor is mentally incapable for the purposes of this Part:
 - (c) states the duties of an attorney (in addition to those set out in the enduring power of attorney):
 - (d) sets out the court's jurisdiction in respect of an enduring power of attorney:
 - (e) provides for the review by the court of any decision of an attorney:
 - (f) establishes the circumstances in which an enduring power of attorney may be suspended or revoked.

Section 93A: inserted, on 25 September 2008, by section 6 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Amendment Act 2007 (2007 No 90).

93B Presumption of competence

 - (b) to have the capacity—
 - (i) to understand the nature of decisions about matters relating to his or her personal care and welfare; and
 - (ii) to foresee the consequences of decisions about matters relating to his or her personal care and welfare or of any failure to make such decisions; and
 - (iii) to communicate decisions about those matters.
- (2) A person must not be presumed to lack the competence described in subsection (1)(a) just because the person manages or intends to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property in a manner that a person exercising ordinary prudence would not adopt in the same circumstances.
- (3) A person must not be presumed to lack the capacity described in subsection (1)(b) just because the person makes or intends to make a decision in relation to his or her personal care and welfare that a person exercising ordinary prudence would not make in the same circumstances.
- (4) A person must not be presumed to lack the competence described in subsection (1)(a) or, as the case may be, the capacity described in subsection (1)(b), just because the person is subject to compulsory treatment or has special patient status under the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992.

Section 93B: inserted, on 25 September 2008, by section 6 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Amendment Act 2007 (2007 No 90).

94 Interpretation

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, the donor of an enduring power of attorney is mentally incapable in relation to property if the donor is not wholly competent to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her property.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, the donor of an enduring power of attorney is mentally incapable in relation to personal care and welfare if the donor—

 - (ii) to understand the nature of decisions about matters relating to his or her personal care and welfare; or
 - (iii) to foresee the consequences of decisions about matters relating to his or her personal care and welfare or of any failure to make such decisions; or

- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) affects any rule of law relating to capacity to give or to revoke a power of attorney.
- (4) In this Part—

Section 94: substituted, on 25 September 2008, by section 7 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Amendment Act 2007 (2007 No 90).

94A Creation of enduring power of attorney

- (1) This section applies only to a power of attorney executed after the commencement of section 7 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Amendment Act 2007.
- (2) The instrument creating an enduring power of attorney—
 - (a) must be in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) must have attached to it the certificate referred to in subsection (7).
- (3) The instrument must be signed—
 - (a) by the donor, or by some other person in the presence of the donor and by the direction of the donor; and
 - (b) by the attorney (or if more than 1, by each attorney).
- (4) The signature of the donor must be witnessed by a person who, subject to subsection (8), is independent of the attorney (or of each attorney) and who is—
 - (a) a lawyer; or
 - (b) an officer or employee of a trustee corporation authorised by the corporation for the purposes of this subsection; or
 - (c) a legal executive who meets the requirements of subsection (9).
- (4A) If 2 people appoint each other as attorney, the witness to the signature of one person as donor (witness A) does not fail to be independent for the purposes of subsection (4) by reason only that the witness to the signature of the other person as donor—
 - (a) is a lawyer or legal executive in the same firm, or an officer or employee of the same trustee corporation, as witness A; or
 - (b) is the same person as witness A, if, having regard to the matters listed in subsection (7)(a) to (b), the witness is satisfied that witnessing both signatures does not constitute more than a negligible risk of a conflict of interest.
- (5) The signature of an attorney must be witnessed by a person other than the donor or the donor's witness.
- (6) Before the donor signs the instrument, the witness to the donor's signature must explain the effects and implications of the enduring power of attorney to the donor, and advise the donor of—
 - (a) the matters referred to in the notes to the prescribed form of power of attorney;
 - (b) the donor's right to suspend or revoke the power of attorney;

- (c) in the case of a power of attorney in relation to property,—
 - (i) the donor's right to appoint more than 1 attorney, or a trustee corporation, as attorney; and
 - (ii) the donor's right to stipulate whether and, if so, how the attorney's dealings with the donor's property are to be monitored.
- (6A) If regulations made under section 112(bab) prescribe a form of standard explanation for any of the matters required to be explained to a donor under subsection (6), the witness to the donor's signature may give the explanation by—
 - (a) giving a copy of the form to the donor; and
 - (b) following any instructions in the form for giving a verbal explanation to the donor; and
 - (c) if the form and the instructions do not cover all of the matters in subsection (6), using other appropriate means to fulfil all of the requirements of that subsection.
- (7) The witness to the donor's signature must certify on the prescribed form for the certificate referred to in subsection (2)(b) that—
 - (a) the requirements of subsection (6) have been met; and
 - (ab) in the case of an enduring power of attorney signed by the donor after the commencement of this paragraph, the witness believes on reasonable grounds that the donor—
 - (i) understands the nature of the instrument; and
 - (ii) understands the potential risks and consequences of the instrument; and
 - (iii) is not acting under undue pressure or duress; and
 - (b) the witness has no reason to suspect that the donor was or may have been mentally incapable at the time the donor signed the instrument; and
 - (c) the witness is independent of the attorney (or of each attorney) or that subsection (8)(a) or (b) applies or, if subsection (4A)(b) applies, the witness is satisfied that no more than a negligible risk of a conflict of interest arises.
- (8) Despite subsection (4),—
 - (a) if the attorney is a trustee corporation, an officer or employee of that corporation authorised by the corporation for the purposes of this subsection may witness the donor's signature:
 - (b) if the attorney is appointed in his or her capacity as a lawyer, another lawyer in the attorney's firm or a legal executive in that firm who meets the requirements of subsection (9) may witness the donor's signature.
- (9) A legal executive who witnesses the donor's signature—

- (a) must be a member of the body that, immediately before the commencement of section 7 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Amendment Act 2007, was known as the New Zealand Institute of Legal Executives Inc; and
- (b) must hold a current annual registration certificate issued by that body; and
- (c) must have at least 12 months' experience as a legal executive; and
- (d) must be employed by, and under the direct supervision of, a lawyer.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a power of attorney that meets the requirements of section 94A is an enduring power of attorney.
- (2) A power of attorney purporting to be an enduring power of attorney has effect even though it is not in the prescribed form, but only if—
 - (a) no prescribed provision is substantially omitted; and
 - (b) the differences are immaterial.
- (3) A power of attorney shall not have effect as an enduring power of attorney unless the attorney, when signing the instrument creating it, is—
 - (a) an individual who is not less than 20 years of age, is not bankrupt, and is not subject to a personal order or a property order; or

95A Notice revoking earlier enduring power of attorney

- (1) If an enduring power of attorney states that it revokes an earlier enduring power of attorney and both powers of attorney are of the same kind, they both continue to have effect until the earlier power of attorney is revoked by notice given in the manner set out in subsection (2) or ceases to have effect by any of the other ways listed in section 106(1).
- (2) Notice revoking an earlier power of attorney is given when a copy of the later power of attorney is given to the attorney or attorneys appointed under the earlier power of attorney and, to avoid doubt, the notice may be given by a person other than the donor, for example, the donor's lawyer or one of the attorneys appointed under the later power of attorney, including in the event that the donor becomes mentally incapable.
- (3) This section applies to any enduring power of attorney, whether executed before or after this section comes into force.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, of the same kind, in relation to 2 enduring powers of attorney, means—
 - (a) that both powers of attorney relate to—
 - (i) the donor's property; or
 - (ii) the donor's personal care and welfare; or
 - (b) if the earlier power of attorney relates to the donor's property or the donor's personal care and welfare, or both, the later power of attorney relates to both the donor's property and the donor's personal care and welfare.

Section 95A: inserted, on 16 March 2017, by section 78 of the Statutes Amendment Act 2016 (2016 No 104).

96 Enduring power of attorney not revoked by donor's subsequent mental incapacity

An enduring power of attorney shall not be revoked by the donor's subsequent mental incapacity, but shall continue to have effect according to its tenor.

97 Enduring power of attorney in relation to property

- (1) A donor of an enduring power of attorney may authorise the attorney to act generally in relation to the whole or a specified part of the donor's affairs in relation to his or her property, or to act in relation to specified things on the donor's behalf, and in either case such authorisation may be given subject to conditions and restrictions.

- (2) Where a donor of an enduring power of attorney authorises the attorney to act generally in relation to the whole or a specified part of the donor's affairs in relation to the donor's property, the attorney shall have authority to do anything on behalf of the donor that the donor can lawfully do by an attorney, but subject to sections 100 and 107 and to any conditions or restrictions contained in the enduring power of attorney.
- (3) Where a donor of an enduring power of attorney has become mentally incapable, the attorney shall be authorised to make an application under section 87 of the Land Transfer Act 2017 to have a transmission registered where the attorney believes that the donor is entitled to any estate or interest in land by virtue of that transmission, and the Registrar-General of Land is authorised to accept such an application notwithstanding the fact that the attorney is not the person claiming to be entitled to the estate or interest in land.
- (4) A donor of an enduring power of attorney may—
 - (a) authorise the enduring power of attorney to have effect while the donor is mentally capable and to continue to have effect if the donor becomes mentally incapable; or

- (3) This section applies regardless of whether the enduring power of attorney is of the type referred to in section 97(4)(a) or (b).

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a donor of an enduring power of attorney may authorise the attorney to act in relation to the donor's personal care and welfare, either generally or in relation to specific matters, and in either case such authorisation may be given subject to conditions and restrictions.
- (2) Notwithstanding section 95(3), an enduring power of attorney may not appoint a trustee corporation to be an attorney, nor may it appoint more than 1 individual to be attorneys, to act in relation to the donor's personal care and welfare.
- (3) The attorney—
 - (a) must not act in respect of a significant matter relating to the donor's personal care and welfare unless a relevant health practitioner has certified, or the court has determined, that the donor is mentally incapable; and
 - (b) must not act in respect of any other matter relating to the donor's personal care and welfare unless the attorney believes on reasonable grounds that the donor is mentally incapable.
- (3A) For the purposes of subsection (3), a donor's mental capacity is determined—
 - (a) at the time a decision about the matter relating to the donor's personal care and welfare is being made or is proposed to be made; and
 - (b) in relation to the personal care and welfare matter concerned.
- (3B) Despite subsection (3A),—
 - (a) if the donor is certified as mentally incapable because of a health condition that is likely to continue indefinitely, no further certificates are required under subsection (3)(a) in relation to any further personal care and welfare matters:
 - (b) if the donor is certified as mentally incapable because of a health condition that is likely to continue for a period specified in the certificate, no further certificates are required under subsection (3)(a) in relation to any further personal care and welfare matters that arise during the specified period.
- (4) The attorney shall not act in respect of any matter relating to the donor's personal care and welfare where, if the attorney were the welfare guardian of the donor, the attorney would be denied the power to act by section 18.

 - (a) understand the nature and foresee the consequences of decisions relating to his or her personal care and welfare; and
 - (b) communicate such decisions.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the attorney must—
 - (a) encourage the donor to act on his or her own behalf to the greatest extent possible; and
 - (b) seek to facilitate the integration of the donor into the community to the greatest extent possible.
- (4) When deciding any matter relating to the donor's personal care and welfare, the attorney must give due consideration to the financial implications of that decision in respect of the donor's property.

99 Both kinds of powers may be given

 - (a) authorising the attorney, whether in the same or in a separate document, to act both—
 - (i) in relation to the whole or a specified part of the donor's affairs in relation to his or her property, or to act in relation to specified things on the donor's behalf; and

- (2) An attorney acting under an enduring power of attorney in relation to the donor's personal care and welfare may, subject to any consultation under subsection (1), have regard to any advance directive given by the donor except to the extent that the directive would require the attorney to act in a manner contrary to section 98(4).
- (3) The attorney may follow any advice given under subsection (1), or any advance directive given by the donor, and is not liable for anything done or omitted in following that advice or directive, unless done or omitted in bad faith or without reasonable care.
- (4) The attorney may apply to a court for directions under section 101 in respect of any advice given under subsection (1) or any advance directive given by the donor.

- (5) The attorney is not liable in respect of anything done or omitted to be done in accordance with the court's directions.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (4) obliges the attorney to apply to a court for directions.
- (7) If a donor has, under an enduring power of attorney, appointed one attorney in relation to his or her property and another attorney in relation to his or her personal care and welfare, both attorneys must consult each other regularly to ensure that the donor's interests are not prejudiced through any breakdown in communication between them.
- (8) To avoid doubt, if the same attorney must be consulted under subsection (1)(c) or (d) and subsection (7), the requirements of both subsections must be met in relation to that attorney.

100A Suspension of attorney's power to act

- (1) A donor of an enduring power of attorney who has been, but is no longer, mentally incapable may suspend the attorney's authority to act under the enduring power of attorney by giving written notice to the attorney.
- (2) An attorney whose authority is suspended may not act under the enduring power of attorney unless a relevant health practitioner has certified, or the court has determined, that the donor is mentally incapable.
- (3) The suspension does not revoke the enduring power of attorney.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects the donor's right to revoke the enduring power of attorney while the donor is mentally capable.
