- (3) In any case where, pursuant to subsection (2) of section 27, the Minister has declined to approve an establishment plan submitted by a Board, and the Board has not submitted a revised establishment plan in accordance with subsection (4) of that section within the period referred to in subsection (4) of that section (including, where that time has been extended, that extension of time), section 28 shall apply as if the original establishment plan submitted by the Board to the Minister were a revised establishment plan submitted under section 27, but nothing in section 28(2) shall apply in any such case.
- (4) Where, pursuant to subsection (1), the Minister causes an establishment plan to be prepared,—
 - (a) in the case of an establishment plan prepared as the result of the default of a Board, the share allocation plan included in that establishment plan shall provide for the voting equity securities in the relevant energy company to be allocated on the same basis as they would be allocated if the establishment plan were a plan to which section 29(2) applies:
