If the mortgagor (not being in arrears with any previous instalment or other payment under the mortgage) pays the instalment on or before its due date, or not later than the fourteenth day thereafter, he shall be entitled to a rebate of one-tenth of so much thereof as consists of interest, thereby reducing the rate of such interest to four and a half per centum in lieu of five per centum per annum.

(b.) Such rebate may be deducted and retained by the mortgagor from the full nominal amount of the instalment when making the payment.

Notice of due date of instalment to be given.
Ibid, sec. 36

36. Not later than one month before any instalment falls due the Superintendent shall post to the mortgagor, at his last known address, a notice specifying the due date of the instalment, the full nominal amount thereof, the amount of the rebate, the net amount of the instalment after deducting the rebate, and the date on which the right to the rebate will lapse:

Provided that the rights and liabilities of the mortgagor shall not be affected by the non-posting or non-receipt of such notice or by any error therein.

Mode of Disposal of Moneys paid in Advance.

37. (1.) All moneys paid in advance by a mortgagor in reduction of the mortgage debt shall be disposed of by the Superintendent in or towards satisfaction of the future instalments in the order of their due dates in mode A, or, if the mortgagor so directs, in mode B, as hereinafter set forth.

(a.) In the case of each instalment of principal which is wholly satisfied, and on which no interest has actually begun to accrue, the corresponding instalment of interest shall not be payable.

(b.) The instalments unsatisfied in whole or in part shall, as to both principal and interest, be deemed to be due and payable at half-yearly intervals computed from the due date of the instalment next preceding the instalment that is first satisfied in whole or in part, and there shall consequently be no break in the periodical continuity of the payments to be made by the mortgagor.

(3.) With respect to mode B, and the moneys to be disposed of thereunder, the following provisions shall apply:—

Under mode B, for payment of instalments of principal and interest.

(a.) Such moneys shall be disposed of in or towards satisfaction of the future instalments of principal and interest in the order of their due dates.

(b.) The due dates of the instalments shall not be affected, and consequently, in so far as the instalments are wholly satisfied in advance, there shall be a break in the periodical continuity of the payments to be made by the mortgagor.

(4.) In the case of moneys paid in advance prior to the coming into operation of "The Government Advances to Settlers Act Amendment Act, 1899," and then held thereunder, they may, at the option of the mortgagor, either continue to be held thereunder or, together with interest thereon from the date of the last yearly rest up to the date of the coming into operation of that Act, may be deemed to be moneys paid in advance, and be disposed of accordingly under the provisions in that behalf hereinbefore contained.

Disposal of moneys paid in advance.

Ibid, sec. 38

Readjustment of Loans.

38. (1.) For the purpose of giving greater elasticity to the existing provisions affecting loans, the following provisions shall apply in the case of every loan, whether now current or hereafter granted:—

All loans may be readjusted when part repaid.

Ibid, sec. 39

(a.) At any time after at least one-tenth of the principal has been repaid the mortgagor (not being in arrear with any instalment or other payment under the mortgage) may, with the consent of the Superintendent, readjust the loan, by treating the balance of principal then unpaid as a fresh loan duly granted for a fresh term:

Provided that in no case shall any loan be readjusted unless the balance of unpaid principal at the time of readjustment amounts to at least one hundred pounds.

Mode and effect thereof.

- (b.) Such readjustment shall be effected by memorandum of readjustment, which shall be executed by the Superintendent (but not necessarily under seal).
- (c.) The memorandum of readjustment shall be in the form in the Fifth Schedule hereto or to that effect, and shall specify the amount of the fresh loan (being in no case less than one hundred pounds), the date on which it is deemed to be granted (being the due date of an instalment under the original loan), and the amount and due date of the first prescribed instalment.
- (d.) The memorandum of readjustment shall be indorsed on the mortgage executed by the mortgagor in respect of the original loan, and need not be registered.
- (e.) From and after the execution of the memorandum of readjustment, such mortgage shall operate and be construed as applying to the fresh loan in lieu of the original loan, in the same manner in all respects and with the same priorities of security and otherwise as if the mortgage had been originally granted in respect of the fresh loan.

(2.) The provisions of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, extend and apply to fixed loans granted under any former Act authorising such loans any part of which (not less than one hundred pounds) is outstanding on the coming into operation of this Act.

- (b.) If the application is granted, in whole or in part, the amount granted shall be secured by memorandum of further advance, which shall be executed by the mortgagor and by the Superintendent.
- (c.) The memorandum of further advance shall be in the form in the Sixth Schedule hereto or to the like effect, and shall specify—
 - (i.) The amount of the further advance:
 - (ii.) The amount of outstanding principal owing under the mortgage:
 - (iii.) The total amount of such principal and further advance (such total amount being hereinafter referred to as “the fresh loan”):
 - (iv.) The date on which the fresh loan is deemed to be granted:
 - (v.) The amount and due date of the first prescribed instalment.
- (d.) On and after the execution of the memorandum of further advance the original mortgage shall operate and be construed as applying to the fresh loan in lieu of the original loan, in the same manner in all respects and with the same priorities of security and otherwise as if the mortgage had been originally granted in respect of the fresh loan as specified in the memorandum of further advance.

- (e.) The memorandum of further advance shall be registered.
- (f.) The further advance shall in every case be granted on the same system as the original loan, and in no case shall a further advance be granted unless all instalments on the original loan are paid up to the commencement of the term of the fresh loan.

Provisions as to other than Freehold Securities in Fee-simple.

40. In every case where the security of a loan consists of land of any of the classes (b) to (l) or of class (n) mentioned in section eighteen hereof, the following provisions shall apply, anything in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding :—

Provisions with respect to other than freehold securities.

1906, No. 19, sec. 41

Except with the consent of the Superintendent, and on such terms as in his interests as mortgagee he thinks fit, it shall not be lawful for the Land Board to forfeit or cancel the mortgagor's title for breach of conditions, or to accept any surrender thereof, without giving to the Superintendent at least three months' previous notice in writing of intention so to do.
- (b.) Notwithstanding any such forfeiture, cancellation, or surrender, the mortgage shall by force of this Act be deemed to be a first charge on the improvements then existing on the land, and on all moneys payable in respect thereof by any incoming tenant or occupier of the land (nevertheless to the extent only to which the mortgagor would have had interest therein if his title to the land had been lawfully determined otherwise than by forfeiture, cancellation, or surrender), and such money shall be payable to the Superintendent accordingly :

Provided that the Superintendent may accept from such tenant or occupier a mortgage of his estate and interest in the land in lieu of cash ; and in such case neither paragraph (a) of section eighty-four nor section eighty-seven of "The Land Act, 1908," nor any similar limitation in that Act or in any other Act shall be deemed to apply.

- (c.) In the event of the Superintendent granting a lease or any tenancy of the land or of any part thereof as mortgagee in possession (which he is hereby empowered to do without the consent of the Land Board), then, for the purpose of preventing forfeiture or cancellation of the mortgagor's title for breach of conditions, but for no other purpose, fulfilment of conditions by the person in actual possession under such tenancy or lease shall count as fulfilment by the mortgagor :

Provided that every such tenancy or lease shall, in the case of Crown land, be subject to the approval of the Minister of Lands.

- (d.) In the event of the Superintendent selling the security in exercise of power of sale, then, in so far as concerns the transfer to the purchaser, or any mortgage of his estate and interest in the land to the Superintendent to secure the whole or any part of the purchase-money, neither paragraphs (a), (e), nor (f) of section eighty-four nor section eighty-seven of "The Land Act, 1908," nor any similar limitation in that Act or in any other Act, shall be deemed to apply.
- (e.) Any such sale may be by public auction or private contract, as the Superintendent in his discretion thinks fit, and in the case of sale by private contract advertising shall not be necessary :
Provided that the sale shall, in the case of Crown lands, be subject to the approval of the Minister of Lands.
- (f.) The power of sale shall be deemed to arise and accrue, and may, without the consent of the Land Board, be exercised by the Superintendent, at any time after the expiration of the period limited in that behalf by the mortgage, anything in paragraph (c) of section eighty-four of "The Land Act, 1908," or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
- (g.) All moneys expended by the Superintendent in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred by the mortgage shall be payable to him by the mortgagor on demand, and until paid shall, together with interest at the rate of five per centum per annum computed from the date or dates of such moneys being expended, be deemed to be charged on the land, and be covered by the security accordingly.
- (h.) The provisions of this section apply to mortgages now current or hereafter granted.
- (i.) For the purposes of this section "Land Board" includes the statutory Board, trustees, Public Trustee, or other authority granting the lease or other title under which the mortgagor holds.
