21 Procedure for infringement offences

- (1) Proceedings in respect of an infringement offence may be commenced—
 - (a) with the leave of a District Court Judge or a Registrar, by filing a charging document under the Criminal Procedure Act 2011; or
 - (b) where an infringement notice has been issued in respect of the offence, by providing particulars of a reminder notice in accordance with subsections (4) and (4A), or by filing a notice of hearing in a court, under this section.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) an infringement notice has been issued in respect of an infringement offence; and
 - (b) on the expiration of 28 days from the date of service of the notice, or a copy of the notice,—

- (i) the infringement fee for the offence has not been paid to the informant by a payment method specified in the notice; and
- (ii) the informant has not received, at the address specified in the infringement notice, a notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence,— the informant may serve on the person or one of the persons served with the infringement notice, or a copy of the infringement notice, a reminder notice that contains the same or substantially the same particulars as the infringement notice.

(2AA) The reminder notice referred to in subsection (2) and subsection (3C) must,—

- (a) if a form has been prescribed in any other Act or in regulations made under any other Act for the relevant infringement offence or the relevant class of infringement offences, be in that form; or
- (b) if no form has been so prescribed, be in the general form prescribed in regulations made under this Act.

(2A) For the purposes of this section, a reminder notice that is in a form prescribed under any Act or in any regulations made under that Act is to be treated as containing substantially the same particulars as the relevant infringement notice under that Act or those regulations.

(3) The informant may provide particulars of the reminder notice in accordance with subsections (4) and (4A) if—

- (a) a reminder notice has been served under subsection (2); and
- (b) on the expiration of 28 days from the date of service of that notice,—
 - (i) the infringement fee for the offence has not been paid to the informant by a payment method specified in the notice; and
 - (ii) the informant has not received, at the address specified in the infringement notice, a notice requesting a hearing in respect of the offence.

(3A) If—

- (a) the informant has not provided particulars of a reminder notice under subsection (3), in accordance with subsections (4) and (4A); and
- (b) the informant has instituted the necessary management and accounting systems to allow the infringement fee to be paid to the informant by instalments,— the informant may, but is not required to, enter into an arrangement allowing the infringement fee to be paid to the informant by instalments.

(3B) An arrangement under subsection (3A) must—

- (a) be entered into before the close of the date that is 6 months from the time when the infringement offence is alleged to have been committed; and

- (b) be completed before the close of the date that is 12 months from the time when the infringement offence is alleged to have been committed.
- (3C) If the informant has entered into an arrangement under subsection (3A), and default is made in the payment of any instalment, the informant may,—
- (a) despite subsection (3B)(a), enter into another arrangement under subsection (3A) allowing the infringement fee to be paid to the informant by instalments; or
 - (b) serve on the defendant or 1 of the defendants served with the infringement notice, or a copy of the infringement notice, a reminder notice in the prescribed form containing the same or substantially the same particulars as the infringement notice.
- (3D) The informant may provide particulars of the reminder notice in accordance with subsections (4) and (4A) if—
- (a) a reminder notice has been served under subsection (3C)(b); and
 - (b) on the expiration of 28 days from the date of service of that notice, the infringement fee for the infringement offence has not been paid to the informant by a payment method specified in the notice.
- (4) For the purposes of subsections (1), (3), and (3D) and subsections (4A) to (5A), the particulars of a reminder notice are—
- (a) the contents of the reminder notice, or such parts of the reminder notice that are prescribed as the particulars for the purposes of this subsection; and
 - (b) any particulars relating to the service of the infringement notice and reminder notice that may be prescribed; and
 - (c) any other particulars that may be prescribed.
- (4A) The particulars described in subsection (4)—
- (a) must be provided by the informant in electronic form in a manner and by means of an electronic system approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice; and
 - (b) once provided, must, for the purposes of any enactment or rule of law, be treated as information held in a court in relation to its judicial functions.
- (4B) Particulars of a reminder notice provided under subsection (3) or subsection (3D), and in accordance with subsection (4A), must be verified by the Ministry of Justice to ensure they contain the particulars described in subsection (4)(a) and (b), in accordance with a procedure approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice.
- (4C) When particulars of a reminder notice provided under subsection (3) or subsection (3D) are verified under subsection (4B) as containing the particulars described in subsection (4)(a) and (b), the reminder notice is deemed to have been filed in the court appointed for the exercise of the criminal jurisdiction which is the nearest by the most practicable route to the place where the offence was alleged to have been committed.

- (5) If,—
- (a) under subsection (3), particulars of a reminder notice are provided before the close of the date that is 6 months after the date on which the infringement offence is alleged to have been committed; and
 - (b) those particulars are verified under subsection (4B),—
- then the court in which the reminder notice is deemed, by subsection (4C), to have been filed is also deemed to have made an order (as if on the determination of a charge in respect of the offence) that the defendant pay a fine equal to the amount of the infringement fee then remaining unpaid for the offence together with costs of the prescribed amount.
- (5A) If,—
- (a) under subsection (3D), particulars of a reminder notice are provided before the close of the date that is 12 months after the date on which the infringement offence is alleged to have been committed; and
 - (b) those particulars are verified under subsection (4B),—
- then the court in which the reminder notice is deemed, by subsection (4C), to have been filed is also deemed to have made an order (as if on the determination of a charge in respect of the offence) that the defendant pay a fine equal to the amount of the infringement fee then remaining unpaid for the offence together with costs of the prescribed amount.
- (5AB) An order under subsection (5) or subsection (5A) is deemed to have been made on the date that the relevant reminder notice is deemed to have been filed under subsection (4C).
- (5B) If the informant has entered into an arrangement under subsection (3A) or subsection (3C)(a), no defendant may give notice requesting a hearing in respect of the infringement offence to which the arrangement applies.
- (6) A notice requesting a hearing in respect of an infringement offence must—
- (a) be in writing signed by the person or one of the persons served with the infringement notice in respect of the offence, or a copy of the infringement notice; and
 - (b) be delivered to the informant at the address specified in the infringement notice before or within 28 days after service of a reminder notice in respect of the offence, or within such further time as the informant may allow.
- (7) A person giving notice requesting a hearing in respect of an infringement offence may, if the person thinks fit, in that notice—
- (a) admit liability in respect of the offence; and

- (b) make any submissions as to penalty or otherwise that the defendant would wish to be considered by a court hearing proceedings in respect of the offence.
- (8) Where a notice requesting a hearing in respect of an infringement offence is given in accordance with this section, the following provisions shall apply:
- (a) the informant shall, if it is proposed that proceedings be commenced in respect of the offence, file in a court a notice of hearing in the prescribed form:
 - (b) where the defendant does not, in the notice requesting a hearing, admit liability in respect of the offence, the informant shall serve on the defendant a copy of the notice of hearing filed pursuant to paragraph (a):
 - (c) where the defendant does, in the notice requesting a hearing, admit liability in respect of the offence, the informant shall file that notice in the court in which the notice of hearing is filed:
 - (d) if a notice of hearing is filed in a court within 6 months from the time when the offence is alleged to have been committed,—
 - (i) the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 and the Costs in Criminal Cases Act 1967 apply, with any necessary modifications:
 - (ii) the notice of hearing is to be treated as if it were a charging document:
 - (iii) a copy of the notice served on the defendant under paragraph (b) is to be treated as if it were a summons to the defendant:
 - (iv) a notice of the defendant filed in the court under paragraph (c) is to be treated as if it were a notice of the defendant pleading guilty to the offence under section 38(1) of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011, but—
 - (A) section 38(2) of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011 does not apply; and
 - (B) despite sections 117 and 118 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011, the defendant is not required or entitled to appear before the court hearing the proceedings.
- (9) Where a defendant is found guilty of, or pleads guilty to, an infringement offence for which an infringement notice has been issued, the court shall order the defendant to pay costs of the prescribed amount in addition to the fine (if any) and other costs (if any) ordered by the court.
- (10) In any proceedings for an infringement offence for which an infringement notice has been issued—
- (a) it shall be a defence if the defendant proves that the infringement fee for the offence has been paid to the informant by a payment method specified in the notice before or within 28 days after service on the defendant of a reminder notice in respect of the offence:

- (b) it shall not be a defence that the infringement fee for the offence has been paid otherwise than as referred to in paragraph (a).
- (11) Where an infringement fee is paid to the informant by a payment method specified in the infringement notice but not within the time referred to in subsection (10)(a), the amount paid may be held and applied towards any fine or costs that the defendant may become liable to pay in respect of the offence.
- (12) In any proceedings for an infringement offence for which an infringement notice has been issued it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that—
- (a) the infringement notice in respect of the offence has been duly issued, and the notice, or a copy of the notice, has been served on the defendant:
 - (b) any reminder notice or copy of a notice of hearing required to have been served on the defendant has been duly served:
 - (c) the infringement fee for the offence has not been paid as required under this section.
- (13) If the informant has entered into an arrangement under subsection (3A) or subsection (3C)(a), and default is made in the payment of any instalment, proceedings may be taken as if default had been made in the payment of all instalments then remaining unpaid.

78B Power to correct irregularities in proceedings for infringement offences

- (1) This section applies if a defendant is deemed to have been ordered, or is ordered, to pay a fine or costs or both under section 21 and—

- (a) a District Court Judge or Registrar, on the application of the defendant, is satisfied on the basis of information provided with the application that—
- (i) the defendant is not a person to whom the infringement notice was issued or on whom the notice is deemed to have been served; or
 - (ii) the defendant (not being a defendant who, under section 78C(1) or (3), is ineligible to rely on this ground) did not in fact receive the reminder notice required to have been served on the defendant under section 21; or
 - (iia) the defendant did not in fact receive a copy of the notice of hearing required to have been served on the defendant under section 21; or
 - (iii) some other irregularity occurred in the procedures leading up to the order for the fine or costs, or both; or
 - (iv) the defendant believed on reasonable grounds that he or she had requested a hearing under section 21, but this request was not acted on by the informant; or
 - (v) the defendant reasonably believed that he or she had been advised by the informant that action would not be taken under section 21(3); or
 - (vi) the defendant reasonably believed that he or she had been advised by the informant that further time for requesting a hearing would be allowed under section 21(6)(b), but action was taken under section 21(3) before that further time had expired; or
 - (vii) the defendant—
 - (A) had, in writing, requested further relevant information from the informant in relation to the infringement offence; and
 - (B) had made the request within a time that would reasonably enable the informant to respond before the earliest time at which the informant would be entitled to take action under section 21(3); and
 - (C) believed on reasonable grounds that the informant had not refused to provide the requested information and that action would not be taken under section 21(3) before that information had been provided; and
 - (D) was not provided with the information before action was taken under section 21(3); or
 - (viii) the defendant paid the infringement fee to the informant by a payment method specified in the infringement notice before or within 28 days after service on the defendant of a reminder notice in respect of the offence to which the notice relates; or

- (b) the informant applies to a District Court Judge or Registrar to withdraw the reminder notice filed or deemed to have been filed under section 21.
- (1A) No more than 1 application, made in reliance on the ground stated in subsection (1)(a)(ii), may be granted in respect of the same defendant for the same infringement offence.
- (1B) An application under subsection (1) may be made—
 - (a) in writing in a form approved under section 209A; or
 - (b) electronically in a manner approved by the chief executive of the Ministry of Justice.
- (1C) An application under subsection (1) may be—
 - (a) made to any court; and
 - (b) considered in another court besides the one to which it is made.
- (2) The Judge or, subject to subsections (3) and (4), the Registrar may do 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) authorise the informant to serve a reminder notice on a person other than the defendant (being a person to whom the infringement notice was issued or on whom it was deemed to have been served):
 - (b) authorise the informant to serve on the defendant another copy of the reminder notice or the notice of hearing and, for that purpose, require the defendant to specify an address at which personal service, service by post, or service by either method may be effected:
 - (c) grant a hearing or rehearing of the matter, and proceed with the hearing or rehearing immediately if both parties agree, or set it down for a later date:
 - (d) set aside or modify the order:
 - (e) make any other order as to costs or otherwise that the Judge or Registrar considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) If a Registrar considering an application under subsection (1)(a) is satisfied that any of subparagraphs (i) or (iv) to (vii) of subsection (1)(a) apply, the Registrar must not exercise the power conferred by subsection (2)(a) or (b) except with the consent of the informant.
- (4) A Registrar may not exercise the power conferred by subsection (2)(d) except where the application is made under subsection (1)(a)(viii) or (1)(b).
- (4A) A Judge or Registrar must deal with an application under subsection (1) on the papers unless the Judge or Registrar considers that a hearing is necessary.
- (4B) While an application under subsection (1) is pending,—
 - (a) no warrant, order, or notice may be issued or take effect to enforce the order to which that application relates; and

- (b) the Registrar must take appropriate steps to ensure that the order is not acted on.
- (4C) Despite subsection (4B), if, before an application under subsection (1) is made, any property has been seized under a warrant to seize property to enforce the order to which that application relates,—
 - (a) any seized property that has not been sold, assigned, applied, released, or otherwise disposed of must be retained under section 100B(3) while the application is pending; or
 - (b) if the seized property has been sold but the proceeds of sale have not been applied in accordance with section 100N or 100R, the proceeds must be retained while the application is pending.
- (4D) If the order to which the application relates continues in effect after the application is determined or is discontinued, the property must be dealt with, and any fees and costs payable under an enactment in respect of the property are payable, as if the application had not been made.
- (4E) If, on the determination of the application, the order is set aside or ceases to have effect in accordance with subsection (5), the owner—
 - (a) is entitled to—
 - (i) the return of the property if the property has been retained in accordance with subsection (4C)(a); or
 - (ii) the proceeds of any sale if the proceeds have been retained in accordance with subsection (4C)(b); and
 - (b) is not liable for any fees and costs payable under an enactment in respect of the property.
- (4F) In any case where a Judge or Registrar gives a direction authorising the service of a reminder notice or a copy of a reminder notice under subsection (2)(a) or (b) (a new reminder notice) in replacement of, or by reference to, a previous reminder notice, then—
 - (a) section 21(3)(b), (3D)(b), and (10)(a), if applicable to the case, apply as if the reference to the date of service of the reminder notice were a reference to the date of the direction by the Judge or Registrar; and
 - (b) section 21(3B), (5)(a), (5A)(a), and (8)(d), if applicable to the case, apply as if the reference to the time when the offence is alleged to have been committed were a reference to the date of the direction by the Judge or Registrar.
- (4G) If, under subsection (2)(b), a Judge or Registrar authorises the informant to serve on the defendant a new reminder notice, the defendant may not give notice requesting a hearing in respect of the infringement offence to which the notice relates if the Registrar is satisfied that the notice was filed following the defendant's default in paying 1 or more instalments under an arrangement entered into under section 21(3A) or (3C)(a).

- (4H) If, under subsection (2)(d), an order is set aside following an application made by the informant under subsection (1)(b), the setting aside is not a bar to any other proceedings in the same matter.
- (5) If a Judge or Registrar exercises a power under subsection (2)(a), (b), or (c), the order made or deemed to have been made against the defendant ceases to have effect and the Registrar must take appropriate steps to ensure that the order is not acted on.
- (6) If a defendant granted a hearing or rehearing under this section does not appear, the court may, if it thinks fit, without hearing or rehearing the matter, direct that the original order be restored.

- (4) If the chief executive is satisfied that the access code of a recognised user should not have been cancelled or that any breach on the part of any recognised user whose access code has been cancelled is unlikely to recur, the chief executive may issue to that recognised user another access code.

 - (a) check if the fine status query has been submitted by a recognised user;
 - (b) if the identity of the recognised user is confirmed, compare the identifying particulars of the query subject with identifying particulars recorded in the fines enforcement records;

 - (b) the chief executive nevertheless has reason to believe that the identifying particulars are those of that defendant; and
 - (c) the chief executive proposes to combine the diverging particulars with the identifying particulars shown in the fines enforcement records about the defendant.
- (2) Before the chief executive combines the diverging particulars with the identifying particulars shown in the fines enforcement records about the defendant, the chief executive must first comply with section 181 of the Privacy Act 2020 as if the diverging particulars were a discrepancy and the proposed combination were an adverse action taken against the query subject.
- (3) If, following the chief executive's compliance with section 181 of the Privacy Act 2020, any information in the fine status response sent to a recognised user about a query subject is shown to be incorrect, the chief executive must notify the recognised user of the corrected information.
- (4) If the recognised user is a credit reporter who has disclosed the information contained in the fine status response to a subscriber, the credit reporter must promptly advise the subscriber of the corrected information.

- (5) A constable or bailiff may execute a warrant to seize property referred to in subsection (1) or a computer printout that, under this section, constitutes a warrant to seize property.
- (6) Subsection (3) does not limit any other provision of this Act.

- (2) If any person is in actual occupation of the premises, the bailiff or constable must, on entering, produce the warrant to that person and demand payment.
- (3) Where the fine is paid on the production of a warrant to seize property, the payment must be recorded on the warrant and the warrant is then of no further effect.
- (4) Without limiting anything in section 100C, any bailiff or constable seizing a motor vehicle under a warrant to seize property may, instead of or while seizing the vehicle, immobilise the vehicle by attaching to the vehicle any device designed for that purpose.
- (5) When property is seized under a warrant to seize property, the bailiff or constable must promptly give the defendant or the substitute a notice in a form approved by the chief executive—

100A Seizure of motor vehicle not precluded by low value or low interest

Consistent with the purposes stated in section 97, a motor vehicle may be seized in accordance with this Part even though it would be uneconomic to sell the vehicle or the proceeds from a sale of the vehicle would be insufficient to pay the fine in default or any part of that fine, whether because of the low value of the vehicle or the low value of the interest that the defendant or the substitute has in the motor vehicle, or for any other reason.

- (2) If any motor vehicle that is seized under a warrant to seize property fails to comply in any respect with section 242 of the Land Transport Act 1998, then—
 - (a) the vehicle may, despite that Act or any other enactment, be towed to any place specified by the Registrar; and
 - (b) no person who seizes, retains, or disposes of the vehicle in accordance with this Act is under any criminal or civil liability merely because of the failure of the vehicle to comply with that section.
- (3) The Registrar must ensure the seized property is retained until the fine is paid or the property is sold, or assigned or applied, or otherwise disposed of or released in accordance with a determination of the Registrar or a District Court Judge.

- (2) No motor vehicle may be immobilised under subsection (1) unless, at the time of its immobilisation, it is—

- (a) on private property; or
 - (b) in a public place and the bailiff or constable is satisfied that immobilising the vehicle will not cause undue inconvenience to other persons.
- (3) Where any motor vehicle is immobilised under subsection (1), any bailiff or constable—

 - (b) must, on the direction of a Registrar, seize the vehicle.

- (2) If a financing statement has been registered, the Registrar must promptly notify the person named as the secured party (including any lessor) in the financing statement of the following:
- (a) that the Registrar may, under section 100P, sell the property after the expiration of 7 days from the date of seizure if the fine remains unpaid and no claim has been made in respect of the property by a person other than—

- (4) If the property is a motor vehicle that has been seized while impounded under section 96, 96AAA, 96AAB, or 96A of the Land Transport Act 1998, the motor vehicle may not be released under subsection (1) before the day after the close of the impoundment period.

 - (a) the person is the owner of the property; and
 - (b) in the case of a motor vehicle seized in respect of a traffic fine, the person is not a substitute for the defendant or a nominee for the defendant or the substitute.
- (2) If a person other than the defendant claims to own the property and the Registrar is not satisfied of the matters specified in subsection (1), the Registrar must issue a summons in a form approved under section 209A calling before the court the claimant and the defendant or, if applicable in the case of a motor vehicle seized in respect of a traffic fine, the substitute for the defendant.
- (3) The issue of a summons under subsection (2) stays any action brought in respect of the claim.

- (2) The Judge may, if the property is a motor vehicle that has not yet been sold or otherwise disposed of, release the motor vehicle to a person whose motor vehicle was seized because the person was taken to be a substitute for the defendant if satisfied that 1 or more of the following grounds apply:

 - (b) the person did not own or have an interest in the motor vehicle at the material time:
 - (c) the person is a secured party under a security agreement relating to the motor vehicle, or is the lessor of the motor vehicle under a lease, but who has no relationship of another kind with the defendant:
 - (d) the motor vehicle was let on hire at the material time in accordance with a rental service licence under the Land Transport Act 1998.
- (3) In the case of a motor vehicle seized in respect of a traffic fine, the Judge may ask any claimant to satisfy the Judge that any agreement, transfer, or change in registration or ownership is genuine if the Judge has reason to question whether the claimant is a nominee for the defendant or any substitute for the defendant.
- (4) A person who claims to have acquired property from the defendant after the commission of any offence or after the taking of any enforcement action against the defendant must satisfy the Judge that the transaction on which the acquisition was based was genuine.

100I What happens if lessor does not apply to Registrar before property sold or disposed of

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) section 100H applies; but
 - (b) the lessor does not apply to the court for the release of the property (whether real property or personal property) under section 100H(2) before it is sold or disposed of; and
 - (c) the proceeds of the sale have not been fully applied.
- (2) The lessor may apply to the court for the release of the proceeds of the sale of the property that have not been applied.
- (3) On an application under subsection (2), the Registrar or a District Court Judge may release the proceeds of the sale of the property in accordance with subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) The proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied in accordance with section 100R or 100RA, as the case requires, as if the definitions of security agreement and security interest in section 79 included a lease and the lessor were a secured party as defined in that subsection.
- (5) However, despite subsection (4), if section 100R applies, it applies subject to the following modifications:

- (a) the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied in payment to the lessor of the amount to which the lessor would, but for the sale, have been entitled under the lease; and
 - (b) the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied in the manner and order of priority set out in section 100R, except that,—
 - (i) in the case of a lease for a term of 1 year or less, those proceeds must be applied for the payment to the lessor described in paragraph (a) after they are applied for the payments described in section 100R(1)(a) and (b), but before they are applied for the remainder of the payments described in section 100R(1)(c) to (j); and
 - (ii) in the case of a lease for a term of more than 1 year, those proceeds must be applied for the payment to the lessor described in paragraph (a) as if they were payments described in section 100R(1)(c), and section 100R(2) applied.
- (5A) Despite subsection (4), if section 100RA applies, it applies subject to the following modifications:
- (a) the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied in payment to the lessor of the amount to which the lessor would, but for the sale, have been entitled under the lease; and
 - (b) the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied in the manner and order of priority set out in section 100RA, except that,—
 - (i) in the case of a lease for a term of 1 year or less, those proceeds must be applied for the payment to the lessor described in paragraph (a) after they are applied for the payments described in section 100RA(1)(a), but before they are applied for the remainder of the payments described in section 100RA(1)(b) to (g); and
 - (ii) in the case of a lease for a term of more than 1 year, those proceeds must be applied for the payment to the lessor described in paragraph (a) as if they were payments described in section 100RA(1)(b), and section 100RA(2) applied.
- (6) On the release of the proceeds of the sale of the property to the lessor, the lease is cancelled.

100J Claims by secured parties

- (1) The Registrar, a Community Magistrate, or a District Court Judge must, on application or on his or her own initiative, recognise a security agreement in respect of property to be sold (whether real property or personal property) if satisfied that a person has rights over that property as a secured party.
- (2) The rights of a secured party may not be recognised under subsection (1) if the secured party is—
 - (a) the defendant; or
 - (b) in the case of a motor vehicle seized in respect of a traffic fine, a substitute for the defendant or a nominee for the defendant or the substitute.
- (3) When a security agreement has been recognised under subsection (1), the Registrar must take the action prescribed in section 100K if it appears to the Registrar that—
 - (a) the secured party is a person who enters into security agreements in the course of the person's business; and
 - (b) the defendant is the debtor under the security agreement; and
 - (c) the defendant has not become bankrupt or been put into liquidation since the date on which the defendant signed or assented to the security agreement (in this section and in section 100K referred to as the agreement date).
- (4) The Registrar must—
 - (a) establish the agreement date—
 - (i) from the security agreement or any other documentary evidence; or
 - (ii) if the agreement date cannot be so established, by determining the agreement date on the basis of any information that the Registrar considers relevant:
 - (b) ascertain, in accordance with section 100K, whether the defendant had a default balance recorded against the defendant's name.

Section 100J: replaced, on 13 February 2012, by section 32 of the Summary Proceedings Amendment Act 2011 (2011 No 32).

100K Certification of default balance

- (1) In order to assist the Registrar to ascertain whether the defendant had a default balance recorded against the defendant's name, the secured party may present to the Registrar evidence of a fine status response about the defendant.
- (2) On being satisfied of the authenticity of the evidence presented under subsection (1), the Registrar must accept the fine status response if—
 - (a) the date to which the fine status response relates is not earlier than—
 - (i) 20 working days before the agreement date; or
 - (ii) 20 working days before the date on which the provision of credit secured under the security agreement was approved, where the Registrar is presented with satisfactory evidence of the date of that approval; or
 - (b) where the fine status response does not come within paragraph (a), the Registrar is satisfied that, in providing the credit secured under the security agreement, the secured party relied on that fine status response, and that there are exceptional circumstances that justify that reliance.
- (3) If—
 - (a) a fine status response accepted under subsection (2) does disclose a default balance consisting of 1 or more fines; and
 - (b) the defendant still owes those fines in whole or part—the Registrar must certify that the secured party's security interest is subject to that default balance, less any amounts by which those fines have since been paid or reduced.
- (4) If—
 - (a) there is no evidence, or no satisfactory evidence, of a fine status response or if a fine status response has not been accepted under subsection (2); and
 - (b) as at the agreement date, the defendant had a default balance consisting of 1 or more fines; and
 - (c) the defendant still owes those fines in whole or part—the Registrar must certify that the secured party's security interest is subject to that default balance, less any amounts by which those fines have since been paid or reduced.
- (5) If section 92D was not in force as at the agreement date, the Registrar must certify that the secured party's security interest is not subject to a default balance.
- (6) In this section, fine status response has the same meaning as in section 92A.

 - (a) release the property to a secured party, at the request of the secured party, and direct the secured party to sell the property and account for the proceeds of sale in accordance with section 100N; or
 - (b) order the sale of the property under section 100P.
- (2) If the Judge or Registrar takes action under subsection (1)(a) and 2 or more secured parties have requested the taking of that action, then the Judge or Registrar must release the property to the secured party with the highest-ranking security interest under the order of priority determined by Part 7 or 8 of the Personal Property Securities Act 1999.
- (3) If the property is a motor vehicle that has been seized while impounded under section 96, 96AAA, 96AAB, or 96A of the Land Transport Act 1998, the motor vehicle may also be released under subsection (1)(a) even though the impoundment period has not yet expired.

 - (a) the day after the close of the impoundment period; or
 - (b) the expiry of 8 days after the day on which the motor vehicle was seized.
- (3) A motor vehicle may be sold under this section even though it fails to comply in any respect with section 242 of the Land Transport Act 1998, and the purchaser of that motor vehicle—
 - (a) is, despite that Act or any other enactment, entitled to tow the motor vehicle to any appropriate place; and
 - (b) in so towing the vehicle, is under no criminal or civil liability merely because of the failure of the vehicle to comply with that section; and

 - (b) a deposit has not been paid, or security has not been provided, under section 100F.
- (10) The purchaser or assignee of property sold, or disposed of, under this section obtains as a consequence of this section,—

100S Remission of fine and costs of sale in certain cases involving motor vehicles

- (1) This section applies if the realisation under section 100N or 100P of any motor vehicle seized in respect of a fine does not result in a reduction of the defendant's fine by more than $100.
- (2) The Registrar must—
 - (a) remit the impoundment costs and the costs of the sale of the motor vehicle (as those costs are described in section 100R(1)(a) and (b)); and
 - (b) remit—

- (i) the entire fine in default for which the motor vehicle was seized, if the amount of that fine is $100 or less; or
- (ii) $100 less any proceeds of that sale that have been applied towards paying the fine in default, if the amount of that fine is greater than $100.

Example

A motor vehicle seized in respect of a fine sells for $350. The impoundment costs and the costs of the sale of that motor vehicle are $300. This leaves a balance of $50 to be deducted from the fine. However, the Registrar must remit a further $50 of the fine in order to comply with the requirement for $100 to be deducted from the fine.

- (3) The reference to fine in subsection (2)(b) excludes—
 - (a) any reparation that the defendant is liable to pay, other than court costs and other costs that have been added to that reparation; and
 - (b) any offender levy.

- (2) If this section applies, a Judge may, on the application of that person, order the defendant to pay to the person compensation in respect of the loss.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit or affect any other remedy that a person may have in respect of loss referred to in that subsection.

 - (a) when deductions are to be made, by reference to a period of a week, fortnight, month, or some other period (the earnings period); and
 - (b) the amount or percentage to be deducted from the defendant's salary or wages for the earnings period; and
 - (c) an amount or percentage below which the net amount paid to the defendant for the earnings period must not fall; and
 - (d) that the money due and payable under the fine is, by way of the directed deductions, to be a charge on any salary or wages that from time to time while the attachment order remains in force become due and payable by the employer to the defendant.
- (2) The charge created by the attachment order—
 - (a) accrues from earnings period to earnings period, and on a day within, or following, each period that is specified in the attachment order; and

- (b) attaches to all salary or wages that become due by the employer to the defendant at any time while the attachment order is in force, whether or not the contract of employment in respect of which the salary or wages so become due existed at the date of the attachment order; and
 - (c) prevails over and has priority to any assignment or charge created by the defendant (whether before or after the making of the attachment order against the defendant), so that the attachment order has the same effect as if no such assignment or charge had been made or created.
- (3) Every attachment order applies for a fixed period stated in the order, and must not apply for a period of more than 5 years after the date on which the order is made by the Registrar or the chief executive.
- (4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), no attachment order is to operate so that, when its effect is considered either alone or with the effect of any item specified in subsection (5), the net amount paid to a defendant for an earnings period is below the protected earnings rate for the earnings period; and, where necessary, the amount to be deducted from the defendant's salary or wages for the earnings period is treated as being reduced or cancelled accordingly.
- (5) The items referred to in subsection (4) are—
 - (a) a deduction notice or an attachment order under the Child Support Act 1991, the Family Proceedings Act 1980, the Social Security Act 2018, or the Tax Administration Act 1994;
 - (b) a deduction for the recovery of payments under regulations made under section 444 of the Social Security Act 2018.
- (6) If any question arises in any case as to the priority to be accorded to an attachment order made under this Act, each of the items specified in subsection (5) has priority over that attachment order.
- (7) In this section,—

net earnings, in relation to an earnings period, means the balance left after deducting from the defendant's salary or wages for the earnings period the amount of tax required to be withheld or deducted in accordance with the PAYE rules of the Income Tax Act 2007 if the salary or wages were the only salary or wages paid to the defendant by the employer for the earnings period
