Schedule 1 clause 1: inserted, on 12 May 2017, by section 10 of the Māori Purposes Act 2017 (2017 No 18).

2 Members and constitution of the board

First members

- 2.1 The first members of the board are the former trustees who comprise the board as provided in the Act.
- 2.2 Subject to clauses 2.7 and 2.10, each former trustee continuing in office pursuant to clause 2.1 remains in office until he or she is required to retire in accordance with Appendix 1.

The board

- 2.3 Subject to clauses 2.1 and 2.2, the board must comprise at least 5, but no more than 7, members, who must each be a beneficiary over the age of 18 years elected by the beneficiaries in accordance with the process set out in Appendix 2.
- 2.4 Subject to clauses 2.2 and 2.5, a member holds office for a period of 5 years, but on retiring is eligible for re-election.
- 2.5 Any person elected to replace a member vacating office prior to the expiry of his or her term serves only for the balance of the term that member had left to serve.
- 2.6 Subject to clauses 2.1 to 2.3, the board has the discretion to decide how many members will be elected to the board, and must give notice at the Annual General Meeting of any increase or decrease in the number of members that will be required to hold office from the next Annual General Meeting.
- 2.7 Where the term of office of a member expires (but not pursuant to clause 2.10), that member continues to hold office by virtue of the appointment for the expired term until—
- (a) the member is re-elected; or
 - (b) a successor to the member is elected.
- 2.8 The members in office pursuant to either or both of clauses 2.1 and 2.3 may decide to appoint up to 2 additional persons to join the board as independent members due to a need for specialist skill or knowledge if doing so would be in the best interests of the trust. Independent members may be appointed for such term as the appointing members decide, but for not more than 5 years. To be eligible for appointment as an independent member, a person need not be a beneficiary, but—
- (a) must be over the age of 18 years; and
 - (b) must not be disqualified from appointment for any of the reasons set out in clause 2.10(d) to (f).

Resignation

- 2.9 Any member may at any time resign by notice in writing signed by the member and addressed to the board.

Removal from office

- 2.10 A member will cease to hold office if he or she—
- (a) dies; or
 - (b) resigns as a member by notice in writing to the board; or
 - (c) fails or neglects to attend 3 consecutive meetings of the board or other meetings of members without leave of absence, unless it appears to the board at its first meeting after the last of such absences that there is a proper reason for such non-attendance; or

- (d) is not capable of undertaking the duties of a member, including becoming subject to an order under section 12, 30, or 31 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988; or
 - (e) has committed an act of bankruptcy or is an undischarged bankrupt; or
 - (f) is or has ever been convicted of a crime involving dishonesty as defined in section 2(1) of the Crimes Act 1961, or an offence specified in section 373(4) of the Companies Act 1993; or
 - (g) is removed from office by the High Court.
- 2.11 If a member becomes subject to a temporary property order under section 30 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988, clause 2.10(d) does not apply by virtue only of that order having been made. However, while such an order remains in force, the member is deemed to have been granted a leave of absence and is not capable of acting as a member during that period. If an order under section 31 is subsequently made, clause 2.10(d) applies.
- 2.12 If, due to vacancies on the board, there are for the time being less than 5 members in office pursuant to clause 2.1 or 2.3, the remaining members may exercise all the powers of the board as if there were no such vacancy on the board, provided that the remaining members ensure that an election is carried out in accordance with clause 4(a) of Appendix 2.

Adjustment of beneficial interests

- 3.2 The board may increase or decrease the total number of undivided beneficial interests in the Māori freehold land for the purposes of more effective management of the register and to avoid the succession to or acquisition of fractional undivided beneficial interests. If the board increases or decreases the total number of undivided beneficial interests, it must allocate the new beneficial interests in proportion to the beneficial interests that apply immediately prior to any such change.

In any case where the entity directly or indirectly procures, causes, permits, or otherwise makes available a member to carry out management services, the appointment will be of no effect and neither that entity nor that person will have any authority on behalf of nor claim against the trust, unless prior to that appointment the full terms and conditions of the proposed appointment were disclosed in writing to the board, and the board voted unanimously (subject to clause 6.1) in support of that appointment on those terms.

- 6.4 A disclosure of interest by a member must be recorded in a register of interests to be maintained by the trust. Immediately following his or her election as a member, each member must enter into the register of interests, and must disclose in writing to the others, the name of any iwi of which he or she is a member, and each member must also, at any time after his or her election, enter into the register of interests and disclose to the next meeting of the board any interest of which that member becomes aware.

Election of members of the board

Schedule 1 appendix 2: inserted, on 12 May 2017, by section 10 of the Māori Purposes Act 2017 (2017 No 18).

1 Election of members

- 1.1 No person may be eligible to be elected as a member who is under the age of 18 years or to whom the criteria in clause 2.10(d) to (f) apply.
- 1.2 At the Annual General Meeting each year the board must announce, pursuant to clause 2.6, any increase or decrease in the number of members that will be required to be elected to the board from the next Annual General Meeting.
- 1.3 The board may permit or require beneficiaries to cast a vote in an election by way of postal or electronic vote as the board considers appropriate.
- 1.4 The nominee or nominees who have received the highest number of valid votes will be the person or persons elected as members, provided that the number of persons elected as members must not exceed the number of members required to hold office.
- 1.5 The term for which any member is elected commences at the end of the Annual General Meeting at which his or her election as a member is announced by the board in accordance with this appendix. However, if there has been a delay in the election process as permitted by this appendix and the board cannot announce the results of the election at the Annual General Meeting in respect of all vacancies in the office of the board, the term for which any member is subsequently elected in accordance with the process set out in this appendix commences on a date to be determined by the board after it receives a declaration pursuant to clause 10(d) of this appendix. In the event that it is necessary for the board to make an appointment of a member in accordance with clause 3.3(b) of this appendix, the term of any person appointed as member will also commence on a date to be determined by the board.

Schedule 1 appendix 2 clause 1: inserted, on 12 May 2017, by section 10 of the Māori Purposes Act 2017 (2017 No 18).

- 3.2 In any case where the number of nominations received is the same as the number of members required to hold positions on the board so that an election is rendered unnecessary, the persons nominated for election are deemed to have been duly elected as members in accordance with their nominations and the remaining election process set out in clauses 7 to 11 of this appendix does not apply. However, the returning officer must still make a declaration as provided in clause 10(d) of this appendix.
- 3.3 In the event that there is an insufficient number of nominations to enable election of the number of members required to hold office, the following applies:
- (a) those persons nominated are deemed to have been duly elected as members in accordance with their nominations and the remaining election process set out in clauses 7 to 11 of this appendix does not apply in respect of those positions, except that the returning officer must still make a declaration as provided in clause 10(d) of this appendix; and
 - (b) the election process must be repeated in respect of the remaining vacant positions for which nominations were not received. If this second election process still does not result in the nomination and subsequent election of such number of members as are required to be elected to the board, the members holding office pursuant to clauses 2.1 and 2.3 must, as soon as practicable, by majority decision appoint such persons eligible to hold office as members as they consider suitable to the remaining vacant positions; such persons so appointed are in all respects and for all purposes deemed to have been elected to the position of member in accordance with this appendix.

1 Meetings of the board

- 1.1 The board may meet to conduct business at such intervals as the board may decide. The board may by a majority vote invite to such meeting whomever the board may decide will assist with their deliberations.
- 1.2 Except as expressly provided otherwise by this constitution, any matter requiring a decision at a meeting of the board must be decided by a simple majority of the members personally present and voting on the matter.
- 1.3 In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairperson does not have a second or casting vote.
- 1.4 Except as expressly provided otherwise by this constitution, a resolution in writing signed by all the members is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the board duly convened and constituted. Any such resolution may consist of several like documents each signed by 1 or more members. Any such document sent by a member by facsimile or such other electronic means permitted by the board from time to time is deemed to have been duly signed by that member.
- 1.5 Any member may at any time give notice convening a meeting of the board. Such notice must be given to each member at least 15 working days before the date of the proposed meeting. No notice or other communication will be effective until received. It will, however, be deemed to have been received by the addressee,—
 - (a) in the case of an email or facsimile, on the business day on which it is transmitted or, if transmitted after 5 pm on a working day or dispatched on a non-working day, on the next working day after the date of dispatch; and
 - (b) in the case of personal delivery, when delivered; and
 - (c) in the case of a letter, on the fifth working day after posting by FastPost.The notice must state the time and place of the meeting and, in sufficient terms, the nature of the business to be transacted.
- 1.6 The quorum for a meeting of the board is a majority of the members on the board, excluding independent members (if any).
- 1.7 The contemporaneous linking together of the members by telephone or other electronic means of communication constitutes a meeting of the board and the provisions of this appendix as to meetings of the board apply to such meetings provided the following conditions are met:

- (a) each member is entitled to notice of such a meeting and to be linked by electronic means for the purposes of the meeting; and
 - (b) each of the members taking part in the meeting must be able to hear each of the other members taking part during the whole of the meeting; and
 - (c) at the commencement and conclusion of the meeting the Chairperson must call upon each member to acknowledge his or her attendance; and
 - (d) a member may not withdraw from such a meeting unless that member has previously obtained the express consent of the Chairperson of the meeting to do so; and
 - (e) a member is conclusively presumed to have been personally present and to have formed part of the quorum of such a meeting at all times during the meeting unless that member has previously obtained the express consent of the Chairperson to withdraw from such a meeting.
- 1.8 Minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the board must be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose by the Secretary and must be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting at which the minutes are confirmed. Every such minute purporting to be so signed is prima facie evidence of the matters recorded. A minute of the proceedings of any meeting by telephone or other electronic means of communication is sufficient evidence of the observance of all necessary formalities if the minute of the meeting signed by the Chairperson of the meeting contains a certificate to that effect.

- 3.2 Any person or committee acting under delegated power must act in accordance with the terms of the Act and this constitution and, in the absence of proof to the contrary, is presumed to be acting within the terms of the delegation.

- 3.3 The board may revoke wholly or partly any delegation of the powers of the board at any time.
- 3.4 Subject to any directions given by the board or restrictions in this constitution, any person or committee to which any powers of the board have been delegated may exercise the delegation as that person or the committee may decide.

Notice

- 2.3 Beneficiaries must be given no less than 20 working days' notice of a general meeting.

- (a) a majority of the members on the board, excluding independent members (if any); and
 - (b) more than 10 beneficiaries (not including any member).

- 2.5 If a quorum is not present within 1 hour of the time appointed for the start of a general meeting,—

 - (b) notwithstanding clause 2.4 of this appendix, at the reconvened meeting the members and beneficiaries present constitute a quorum.

Chairperson

- 2.6 The Chairperson or, failing him or her, the Deputy Chairperson, will preside over and have control of every general meeting. If there is no Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson present at the time appointed for holding a general meeting, or if either of those persons is unwilling to preside over the meeting, the members present may choose a person to substitute as Chairperson for that meeting.

Matters for discussion

- 2.7 A beneficiary may propose a matter for discussion at a general meeting, which the Chairperson may or may not permit to proceed after considering a show of hands.

Ordinary resolutions

- 2.8 Except in the case of special resolutions referred to in clause 2.11 of this appendix, resolutions must be by ordinary resolution.
- 2.9 With the exception of any ordinary resolution to approve a major transaction, an ordinary resolution is not binding upon the board, which may still exercise its discretion to adopt another course of action.

Right to require poll vote in respect of ordinary resolution

- 2.10 Either the board or 5 beneficiaries together may require that a poll vote be taken on any matter that requires an ordinary resolution. Voting on a poll vote must be in accordance with clause 9.1(b).

Special resolutions

- 2.11 Special resolutions may only be proposed by the board, with the exception that such number of beneficiaries as hold not less than 10% of the beneficial interests may propose a special resolution to change the constitution, and the Board must facilitate the special resolution in accordance with clause 13 as if the board proposed that special resolution.

Voting on resolutions

- 2.12 Subject to clause 2.13 of this appendix, voting on an ordinary resolution may be by a simple show of hands at a general meeting or by way of postal or electronic voting, as permitted or required by the board, or both.
- 2.13 Voting on an ordinary resolution in respect of a major transaction and voting in respect of any special resolution must be by way of postal or electronic voting as permitted by the board.
- 2.14 Where voting on an ordinary resolution is permitted to be by personal vote at a general meeting (ie, show of hands), voting by proxy is permitted as set out in clauses 2.21 to 2.25 of this appendix.
- 2.15 The number of votes that each beneficiary is entitled to cast in respect of a resolution, and the tallying of votes cast, is determined by clause 9.1.

Postal and electronic voting

- 2.17 Not less than 20 working days prior to the date of the general meeting to which the resolution relates, the board must send or make available a voting paper to all known beneficiaries and to any person who has notified the board in accordance with clause 9.5 that he or she holds a power of attorney in respect of a beneficiary.
- 2.18 The board must appoint an appropriate person to act as returning officer for the purpose of any resolution in respect of which postal or electronic voting is permitted. The returning officer will be responsible for receiving and counting all postal and electronic votes cast in respect of that resolution.
- 2.19 On completion of the postal and electronic voting on a resolution, the returning officer must—
- (a) reject as invalid—

- (i) any voting paper for which there is reasonable cause to believe that it was not prepared by the trust for the purposes of the resolution; and
- (ii) any voting paper that does not clearly indicate whether the voter approves the proposed resolution or not—

provided that no voting paper may be rejected as invalid by reason only of some informality in the manner in which it has been dealt with by the voter if the voting paper is otherwise regular and if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the intention of the voter is clearly indicated; and

- (b) then—
 - (i) count the number of postal and electronic votes cast in respect of the resolution; and
 - (ii) count the number of postal and electronic votes rejected as invalid; and
- (c) advise the board of the outcome of the postal and electronic voting process in respect of the resolution.

2.20 The board must announce the result of the resolution at the general meeting after the counting of any votes cast in person or by proxy in respect of the resolution at that meeting (if any), or announce the result by such other means as the board considers appropriate, or both.

Proxies

2.21 Where a beneficiary would be entitled to exercise his or her right to vote in respect of an ordinary resolution by being present in person at a general meeting but cannot attend, he or she may appoint a proxy to act on his or her behalf at that general meeting or any adjournment of that general meeting.

2.22 Subject to clauses 2.23 to 2.25 of this appendix, a proxy for a beneficiary is entitled to attend and be heard at a meeting of beneficiaries as if the proxy were the beneficiary.

2.23 A proxy must be appointed by notice in writing using a form approved by the board and signed by the beneficiary and the notice must provide that the appointment is for a particular general meeting. The person appointed as proxy need not be a beneficiary, but must not be a member or a person nominated for election as a member.

2.24 Subject to clause 2.25 of this appendix, if the board receives more than 1 appointment of a proxy from a beneficiary and the proxies purport to relate to the same general meeting, the board is entitled to treat the most recent appointment as valid and to reject any prior appointments.

2.25 No proxy is effective in relation to a general meeting unless a copy of the notice of appointment is received by the board before 5 pm on the fourth working day preceding the day of the general meeting. If the beneficiary personally attends the general meeting to which the proxy relates, or more than 1 proxy attends a general meeting to which any proxy relates, the board is entitled to treat the appointment of any or all proxies as null and void at its discretion.

Information provided prior to general meeting

- 2.26 The board must ensure that clause 8.3 has been complied with at least 10 working days prior to an Annual General Meeting.
- 2.27 The board must post to all known beneficiaries such information as properly informs them of any proposed resolution for consideration at a general meeting. Any beneficiary may request further information from the board as to the proposed resolution, which, subject to the limitations referred to in clause 9.8, the board must provide at the expense of that beneficiary.

- 3.3 Despite the requirement in clause 2.16 of this appendix, the board may permit beneficiaries to submit a voting paper at a general meeting, including during and after any stage of a Special General Meeting.
- 3.4 If the board wishes to adopt voting procedures in accordance with this clause, it must provide beneficiaries with a final date on which any postal or electronic votes must be received and beneficiaries must be permitted to withdraw or amend their vote at any time prior to that final date.
