30 Purpose of this Part

The purpose of this Part is to assist in preserving New Zealand's documentary heritage so that it is available, subject to any applicable terms or conditions, for the benefit of New Zealanders.

31 Notice of requirement for public documents

- (1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, require a publisher of a public document (other than an Internet document) to give to the National Librarian, at the publisher's own expense, a specified number of copies (not exceeding 3) of—
 - (a) the public document in printed form; and
 - (b) if the document is an electronic document, the medium that contains the document.
- (2) The copies of the public document referred to in subsection (1) must be provided—
 - (a) within 20 working days from the date of first publication of the document (or a longer period, if any, that is specified in the notice); and
 - (b) on, or in accordance with, any terms and conditions as to format, public access, or other matters that are specified in the notice.
- (3) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, authorise the National Librarian to make a copy, at any time or times and at his or her discretion, of public documents that are Internet documents in accordance with any terms and conditions as to format, public access, or other matters that are specified in the notice.
- (4) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, amend or revoke a requirement notified under subsection (1) or subsection (3).

32 Contents of requirement

- (1) A requirement must specify—

- (a) the date on which it comes into force, which, subject to subsection (2), must be at least 3 months after the date on which the notice is published in the Gazette; and
 - (b) whether it applies to all classes of public documents or only to a specified class or classes of public documents; and
 - (c) in the case of a requirement notified under section 31(1), whether it applies to all publishers of those public documents or only to a specified class or classes of publishers of those documents.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)(a), a requirement that relates to books to which section 30A of the National Library Act 1965 would have applied if that Act had not been repealed by this Act is not subject to the minimum period of 3 months specified in subsection (1)(a).

33 Publishers to assist National Librarian to store and use documents

- (1) If, at any time, the National Librarian makes a written request for assistance, a publisher of an electronic document to which a requirement relates must, at the publisher's own expense, provide reasonable assistance within 20 working days of receiving the request to enable the National Librarian to store and use an identical copy of the document.
- (2) A written request under subsection (1) may relate to—
- (a) 1 or more electronic documents; or
 - (b) 1 or more classes of electronic documents.

- (3) The National Librarian may provide not more than 3 copies of a deposited document for use by members of the public

(whether at the premises of the National Library or elsewhere) but, except as provided in subsection (4) or with the publisher's agreement, must not make the document available on the Internet.

- (4) If a deposited document is made publicly available on the Internet by the publisher without restriction on its access or use by members of the public, the National Librarian may make the document available for access and use by members of the public on the Internet (as well as in the manner permitted by subsection (3)).
- (5) Except as provided in subsections (2) to (4), the law relating to copyright applies to every deposited document.

Section 34(2): substituted, on 1 February 2011, by section 16 of the National Library of New Zealand (Te Puna Mātauranga o Aotearoa) Amendment Act 2010 (2010 No 132).

35 Status of requirement as regulation

A requirement is a regulation for the purposes of the Regulations (Disallowance) Act 1989.

- (1) Before the Minister notifies a requirement, the Minister must consult the publishers or representatives of the publishers likely to be affected by the proposed requirement about the terms and conditions referred to in section 31(2)(b) or (3).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a requirement that relates to books to which section 30A of the National Library Act 1965 would have applied if that Act had not been repealed by this Act.

- (a) identical copies of the document; and
- (b) of the same standard as the best copy of the document that has been published in New Zealand.

38 Exemption from requirement

- (1) A requirement may authorise the Minister to exempt, by notice in the Gazette, a public document or class of public documents from the requirement on the basis of criteria set out in the requirement.
- (2) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, exempt a public document or class of public documents from a requirement if—
 - (a) the requirement authorises the Minister to grant exemptions from it; and
 - (b) a written application for the exemption has been made to the Minister; and
 - (c) the Minister is satisfied that the criteria for exemptions set out in the requirements are met and that it is appropriate to grant the exemption in the circumstances.
- (3) An exemption may be granted on the terms and conditions that the Minister thinks fit.
- (4) An exemption takes effect on the date, and on the terms and conditions, specified in the notice.

39 Obligations to comply with requirement

- (1) A publisher to whom a requirement applies must comply with that requirement.
- (2) A publisher to whom a requirement notified under section 31(3) applies must permit the National Librarian to make a copy of that document in accordance with that requirement.
- (3) If the name of the publisher does not appear on a printed public document and the printer of that document is resident in New Zealand or has its principal place of business in New Zealand,—
 - (a) the printer is under the same duty to comply with a requirement as the publisher; and
 - (b) if the printer complies with a requirement, the printer is entitled to recover the cost of doing so from the publisher.

40 Offence and penalty

A publisher or printer who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with section 39 commits an offence and, on conviction, is liable to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

- (2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a book whether the 30-day period referred to in section 30A of the National Library Act 1965 expires before, on, or after the commencement of this Act.

42 Transitional provision

Despite section 46(1), section 30A of the National Library Act 1965 applies in relation to a book if—

- (b) no requirement is in force in relation to the book.

Notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the National Library of New Zealand (Te Puna Mātauranga o Aotearoa) Act 2003. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the Act as at 1 July 2013, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
