This note is not part of the Act.

Part 1

Preliminary provisions

3 Purposes

The purposes of this Act are to—

- (a) provide for the incorporation of societies that are carried on for lawful purposes other than for the financial gain of any of their members; and
- (b) provide a legislative framework that promotes high-quality governance of societies; and
- (c) make the law of societies more accessible; and
- (d) recognise the principles that—
 - (i) societies are organisations with members who have the primary responsibility for holding the society to account; and
 - (ii) societies should operate in a manner that promotes the trust and confidence of their members; and
 - (iii) societies are private bodies that should be self-governing in accordance with their constitutions, any bylaws, and their own tikanga, kawa, culture, and practice, and should be free from inappropriate Government interference; and
 - (iv) societies should not distribute profits or similar financial benefits to their members.

4 Overview

- (1) In this Act,—
 - (a) this Part provides for preliminary matters, including the purposes of this Act and interpretation;
 - (b) Part 2 provides for the incorporation of a society, including eligibility to be incorporated and the process for incorporation;
 - (c) Part 3 provides for the administration of a society, including its capacity and powers, a prohibition against carrying on the society for the financial gain of any of its members, its constitution, its governing body (the committee), its officers, its members, and matters relating to financial reporting and meetings:

- (d) Part 4 provides for enforcement, including offences and court proceedings to enforce a society's constitution or to enforce officers' duties:
 - (e) Part 5 provides for various processes, including removal from the register, amalgamations, and liquidations:
 - (f) Part 6 provides for miscellaneous matters, including the register of incorporated societies, the jurisdiction of the courts, and regulations.
- (2) This section is a guide only to the general scheme and effect of this Act.

11 Registrar must refuse incorporation if name of society does not comply with requirements

- (1) The Registrar must refuse to incorporate a society under a name if, in the Registrar's opinion,—
 - (a) the use of the name would contravene any legislation; or
 - (b) the name is identical or almost identical to the name of any other society, company carrying on business in New Zealand (whether incorporated in New Zealand or not), or other body corporate established or registered in New Zealand; or
 - (c) the name is identical or almost identical to a name that has already been reserved under the Companies Act 1993 and that is still available for registration under that Act; or
 - (d) the name is likely to mislead the society's members or the public about the society's nature or identity; or
 - (e) the name is offensive; or
 - (f) the name does not include the word "Incorporated", "Inc", or "Manatōpū" (or 2 or more of those words) as the last word or words of the name.
- (2) If the Registrar refuses to incorporate a society under subsection (1), the society may be incorporated under a name that has been amended to address (to the Registrar's satisfaction) the matter referred to in that subsection.

- (3) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply if—
- (a) the other society, company, or body corporate gives its consent in the manner prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the society's use of the name will not be contrary to the public interest.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 11; 1993 No 105 s 22

12 Registrar must refuse incorporation if Registrar considers that purposes do not comply with Act

- (1) This section applies if the Registrar considers that the proposed purposes of a society include—
- (a) an unlawful purpose; or
 - (b) a purpose of carrying on the society for the financial gain of any of its members (see subpart 2 of Part 3).
- (2) The Registrar must refuse to incorporate the society until the purposes are amended to address (to the Registrar's satisfaction) the matter.

13 Registrar must refuse incorporation if Registrar considers that constitution does not comply with Act

- (1) This section applies if the Registrar considers that the proposed constitution of a society does not comply with this Act (see subpart 3 of Part 3).
- (2) The Registrar must refuse to incorporate the society until the constitution is amended to address (to the Registrar's satisfaction) the matter.

14 Body corporate treated as equivalent to 3 members in some cases

A body corporate that is a proposed member or a member of a society must be treated as being 3 members for the purpose of determining the number of members under sections 8(1) and 74.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 31

Incorporation

15 Incorporation

- (1) The Registrar must, as soon as practicable after the Registrar receives a properly completed application for incorporation,—
- (a) enter the society's name in the register (together with any other information relating to the society that the Registrar thinks appropriate); and
 - (b) issue a certificate of incorporation; and
 - (c) register the society's constitution.
- (2) This section is subject to sections 8 and 11 to 13.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 8

16 Society is body corporate

- (1) A society is, on and from the date of incorporation set out in the certificate of incorporation, a body corporate—
- (a) having perpetual succession; and
 - (b) having the capacity, rights, powers, and privileges provided for in sub-part 1 of Part 3.
- (2) A society continues in existence until it is removed from the register.
Compare: 1908 No 212 s 10; 1993 No 105 s 15

17 Certificate of incorporation

- (1) A certificate of incorporation of a society issued under section 15 is conclusive evidence that—
- (a) all the requirements of this Act about applying for incorporation have been complied with; and
 - (b) on and from the date of incorporation stated in the certificate, the society is registered and incorporated under this Act.
- (2) See section 10(2), which confirms that the Registrar may consider or reconsider at any time whether requirements of this Act are complied with.
Compare: 1908 No 212 s 9; 1993 No 105 s 14

Part 3Administration of societies*Subpart 1—Capacity, powers, and validity of actions*18 Capacity and powers

- (1) A society has, both within and outside New Zealand,—
- (a) full capacity to carry on or undertake any activity, do any act, or enter into any transaction; and
 - (b) for the purposes of paragraph (a), full rights, powers, and privileges.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to this Act, any other legislation, and the general law.
- (3) The society's constitution may contain a provision relating to the capacity, rights, powers, or privileges of the society only if the provision restricts the capacity of the society or those rights, powers, and privileges.

Examples

A society's powers include (subject to any restrictions in its constitution under subsection (3)) powers to—

- buy, sell, exchange, develop, and mortgage property;
- borrow money and give security for it;
- enter into contracts and leases:

- employ people:
- receive and make gifts:
- issue negotiable instruments:
- belong to other societies or associations.

See, however, subpart 2, which contains restrictions relating to the financial gain of any of the society's members.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 16

19 Validity of actions

- (1) An act of a society or the transfer of property to or by a society is not invalid merely because the society did not have the capacity, right, or power to do the act or to transfer or take a transfer of the property.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit Part 4 (which relates to enforcement).
- (3) The fact that an act is not, or would not be, in the best interests of a society does not affect the capacity of the society to do the act.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 17

20 Dealings between society and other persons

- (1) A society or its guarantor may not assert against a person dealing with the society that—
 - (a) this Act or the society's constitution has not been complied with:
 - (b) a person named as an officer of the society in the register—
 - (i) is not an officer of the society; or
 - (ii) has not been properly elected or appointed; or
 - (iii) does not have authority to exercise a power that, given the nature of the society, an officer ordinarily has authority to exercise:
 - (c) a person held out by the society as an officer, employee, or agent of the society—
 - (i) has not been properly elected or appointed; or
 - (ii) does not have authority to exercise a power that, given the nature of the society, a person elected or appointed to that capacity ordinarily has authority to exercise:
 - (d) a person held out by the society as an officer, employee, or agent of the society does not have the authority to exercise a power that the society holds them out as having:
 - (e) a document issued on behalf of the society by an officer, employee, or agent of the society with actual or usual authority to issue the document is not valid or is not genuine.
- (2) However, a society or its guarantor may assert any of the matters referred to in subsection (1)(a) to (e) against a person dealing with the society if that person had, or ought to have had, because of the person's position with or relationship to the society, knowledge of those matters.

- (3) Subsection (1) applies even if a person of the kind referred to in subsection (1)(b) to (e) acts fraudulently or forges a document that appears to have been signed on behalf of the society, unless the person dealing with the society has actual knowledge of the fraud or forgery.
- (4) In this section,—
- guarantor means a guarantor of an obligation of a society
- person dealing—
- (a) includes, in the case of a transaction with a society, the other party to the transaction; and
- (b) includes a person who has acquired property, rights, or interests from a society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 18

21 No notice or knowledge of constitution merely because it is registered or available for inspection

A person is not affected by, nor deemed to have notice or knowledge of the contents of, the constitution of a society or any other document relating to a society merely because the constitution or document is—

- (a) registered on the register; or
- (b) available for inspection at an office of the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 19

Subpart 2—Financial gain

22 Society must not be carried on for financial gain of its members

- (1) A society must not be carried on for the financial gain of any of its members.
- (2) An officer of a society commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 if—
- (a) the society fails to comply with subsection (1); and
- (b) the failure took place with the officer's authority, permission, or consent.
- (3) See subpart 4 of Part 4 (which allows a society to recover a financial gain from a member) and section 210 (which allows the High Court to put a society into liquidation if it is carried on for the financial gain of a member).

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 20(1), (2)

23 Financial gain

- (1) A society (or proposed society) must be treated as having a purpose of being carried on for the financial gain of any of its members if—

- (a) it distributes, or may distribute, any gain, profit, surplus, dividend, or other similar financial benefit to any of its members (whether in money or in kind); or
 - (b) it has, or may have, capital that is divided into shares or stock held by its members; or
 - (c) it holds, or may hold, property in which its members have a disposable interest (whether directly, or in the form of shares or stock in the capital of the society or otherwise).
- (2) A society must be treated as being carried on for the financial gain of any of its members if it acts as referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1).
- (3) This section is subject to section 24.

24 When society does not have financial gain purpose

- (1) A society (or proposed society) does not have a purpose of being carried on, and is not being carried on, for the financial gain of any of its members merely because it will or may—
- (a) engage in trade:
 - (b) pay a member for matters that are incidental to the purposes of the society, and the member is a not-for-profit entity:
 - (c) distribute funds to a member to further the purposes of the society (or proposed society), and the member—
 - (i) is a not-for-profit entity; and
 - (ii) is affiliated or closely related to the society (or proposed society); and
 - (iii) has the same, or substantially the same, purposes as those of the society (or proposed society):
 - (d) reimburse a member for reasonable expenses legitimately incurred on behalf of the society or while pursuing the society's purposes:
 - (e) provide benefits to members of the public, or of a class of the public, including members of the society or their families:
 - (f) provide benefits to members or their families to alleviate hardship:
 - (g) provide educational scholarships or grants to members or their families:
 - (h) pay a member a salary, wages, or other payments for services, or enter into any other transaction with a member, on arm's-length terms (see subsection (3)):
 - (i) provide a member with incidental benefits (for example, trophies, prizes, or discounts on products or services) in accordance with the purposes of the society:

- (j) have its surplus assets distributed under subpart 5 of Part 5 to a member that is a not-for-profit entity;
 - (k) amalgamate with or into another society under subpart 2 of Part 5 (with the result that the amalgamated society succeeds to any gain, profit, surplus, dividend, or other financial benefit of the amalgamating society);
 - (l) in the case of a union,—
 - (i) negotiate or arrange, in the ordinary course of promoting its members' collective employment interests, the salaries, wages, or other terms or conditions of employment of its members; or
 - (ii) do any other thing in the ordinary course of its activities as a union.
- (2) In addition, a society (or proposed society) does not have a purpose of being carried on, and is not being carried on, for the financial gain of any of its members merely because it is established for the protection or regulation of some trade, business, industry, or calling in which the members are engaged or interested, if the society itself does not engage or take part in the trade, business, industry, or calling, or any part or branch of it.
- (3) In subsection (1)(h), salary, wages, or other payments for services, or other transactions, are on arm's-length terms if—
- (a) the terms—
 - (i) would be reasonable in the circumstances if the parties were connected or related only by the transaction in question, each acting independently, and each acting in its own best interests; or
 - (ii) are less favourable to the member than the terms referred to in subparagraph (i); and
 - (b) the salary, wages, or other payments for services, or other transaction, does not include any share of a gain, profit, or surplus, percentage of revenue, or other reward in connection with any gain, profit, surplus, or revenue of the society.

Subpart 3—Constitution

25 Society must have constitution

Every society must have a constitution that complies with the requirements of this Act.

Contents of constitution

26 What constitution must contain

- (1) The constitution must contain the following matters:
 - (a) the name of the society (see section 11); and

- (b) the purposes of the society (see section 12); and
- (c) how a person becomes a member of the society, including a requirement that a person must consent to be a member (see section 76); and
- (d) how a person ceases to be a member of the society; and
- (e) arrangements for keeping the society's register of members up to date (see section 79); and
- (f) the composition, roles, functions, powers, and procedures of the committee of the society, including—
 - (i) the number of members that must or may be on the committee (see section 45); and
 - (ii) the election or appointment of officers; and
 - (iii) the terms of office of the officers; and
 - (iv) the functions and powers of the committee (see section 46); and
 - (v) grounds for removal from office of officers (see section 50(1)(b)); and
 - (vi) how the chairperson (if any) will be elected or appointed and whether that person will have a casting vote if there is an equality of votes; and
 - (vii) the quorum and procedure for committee meetings, including voting procedures; and
- (g) how the contact person or persons will be elected or appointed (see section 113); and
- (h) how the society will control and manage its finances; and
- (i) the method by which the constitution may be amended (see sections 30 and 31); and
- (j) procedures for resolving disputes, including providing for how a complaint may be made (see sections 38 to 44); and
- (k) arrangements and requirements for general meetings (see sections 84 to 93), including—
 - (i) the intervals between annual general meetings; and
 - (ii) the information that must be presented at general meetings; and
 - (iii) when minutes are required to be kept; and
 - (iv) the manner of calling general meetings; and
 - (v) whether and, if so, how written resolutions may be passed in lieu of a general meeting for the purposes of section 89; and
 - (vi) the time within which, and manner in which, notices of general meetings and notices of motion must be notified; and

- (vii) the quorum and procedure for general meetings, including voting procedures (for example, whether votes may be cast by post or by electronic means), procedures for proxies (if any), and whether the quorum takes into account members present by proxy or casting postal votes or votes by electronic means; and
 - (viii) the arrangements and requirements for special general meetings under section 64(3) (unless that provision has been negated under section 67); and
 - (l) the nomination of a not-for-profit entity, or a class or description of not-for-profit entities, to which any surplus assets of the society should be distributed on a liquidation of the society or on, or to enable, the removal of the society from the register (see section 5(3) and subpart 5 of Part 5).
- (2) Subsection (1)(j) does not limit a power to apply for an order, or take any other enforcement action, under Part 4.
 - (3) Subsection (1)(l) does not apply to a racing club within the meaning of section 5(1) of the Racing Industry Act 2020.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 6

27 Constitution must not give members rights or interests in society's property

The constitution must not purport to confer on any member any right, title, or interest (legal or equitable) in the property of the society.

28 Bylaws, and tikanga, kawa, culture, or practice, and other matters

- (1) The constitution may contain any other matters that are not inconsistent with this Act or any other legislation, including providing for—
 - (a) whether and, if so, how the society can make bylaws:
 - (b) the society to express its tikanga, kawa, culture, or practice:
 - (c) reasonable penalties to be imposed on any member (and for the consequences of the non-payment of any subscription or penalty):
 - (d) any other matter relevant to the society's operations or affairs.
- (2) A bylaw purportedly made by a society has no effect to the extent that it contravenes, or is inconsistent with, this Act, any other legislation, or the society's constitution.
- (3) The making, amendment, revocation, or replacement of a bylaw is not an amendment of the society's constitution.

Compare: 1922 No 27 s 3; 1953 No 80 s 4

*Effect of constitution29 Effect of constitution

- (1) The constitution of a society has no effect to the extent that it contravenes, or is inconsistent with, this Act or any other Act.
- (2) The constitution of a society is binding, in accordance with its terms, as between—
 - (a) the society and each member; and
 - (b) each member.
- (3) The constitution of a society is binding, in accordance with its terms, on each officer.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) are subject to the rest of this Act.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 31

*Amendments to constitution30 Society may amend constitution

- (1) A society may amend its constitution in the manner provided by the constitution.
- (2) Every amendment to a society's constitution must be—
 - (a) in writing; and
 - (b) approved at a general meeting of the society by a resolution passed by the relevant majority (or by a resolution passed in lieu of a meeting in accordance with section 89); and
 - (c) otherwise made in accordance with its constitution.
- (3) A relevant majority is—
 - (a) a simple majority of the votes of those members entitled to vote and voting on the question; or
 - (b) if a higher majority is required by the constitution, that higher majority of the votes of those members entitled to vote and voting on the question.
- (4) This section is subject to section 31.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 21(1), (2)

31 Minor or technical amendments

- (1) A society may amend its constitution under this section if the amendment—
 - (a) has no more than a minor effect; or
 - (b) corrects errors or makes similar technical alterations.
- (2) The committee of the society must, in accordance with its constitution, ensure that written notice of the amendment is sent to every member of the society.

- (3) The notice must state—
 - (a) the text of the amendment; and
 - (b) the right of the member to object to the amendment.
- (4) If no objection from a member is received within 20 working days after the date on which the notice is sent (or any longer period specified in the society's constitution), the committee of the society may make the amendment.
- (5) However, if such an objection is received, the society may not make the amendment under this section.

32 Amended constitution must continue to comply

A society's constitution, as amended under section 30 or 31, must continue to comply with the requirements of this Act.

33 Society must give Registrar copy of amendment and amended constitution

- (1) A society must ensure that a copy of an amendment to its constitution and a copy of the constitution as amended are given to the Registrar within 25 working days after the amendment—
 - (a) is approved under section 30; or
 - (b) is made under section 31.
- (2) The copy of the amendment and the copy of the constitution as amended must be accompanied by the information prescribed by the regulations (if any), and a certificate from an officer certifying that—
 - (a) the officer is authorised by the society to give the certificate; and
 - (b) the amendment was made in accordance with section 30 or 31; and
 - (c) the society's constitution, as amended, will continue to comply with the requirements of this Act.
- (3) The certificate must include a brief description of the nature of the amendment.
- (4) If the copy of the amendment and the copy of the constitution as amended that are given to the Registrar are in conflict, the copy of the amendment prevails.

34 Registration of amendment

- (1) The Registrar must register an amendment given under section 33 if the Registrar is satisfied that—
 - (a) the amendment was made in accordance with section 30 or 31; and
 - (b) the society's constitution, as amended, will continue to comply with the requirements of this Act.
- (2) The amendment takes effect from the date of registration.
- (3) Registration of the amendment is conclusive evidence that all requirements relating to the making, or registration, of the amendment were complied with.

- (4) Subsection (3) is subject to section 35.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 21(3)

35 Court may amend constitution

- (1) A court may, on the application of a society or a member of a society, make an order amending the constitution of the society if it is satisfied of 1 or more of the following:
- (a) the constitution does not comply with the requirements of this Act;
 - (b) an amendment to the constitution was not made in accordance with section 30 or 31;
 - (c) it is not reasonably practicable for the society to amend the constitution itself using the procedure set out in its constitution;
 - (d) the constitution is operating, or is likely to operate, in an oppressive, unfairly discriminatory, or unfairly prejudicial manner;
 - (e) for any other reason, it is just and equitable to amend the constitution.
- (2) The Registrar must amend the constitution on the register after receiving a sealed copy of the order or on a later date specified in the order.
- (3) The amendment takes effect from the date on which the constitution on the register is amended.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 21(3A)

36 Amendment where constitution is oppressive, unfairly discriminatory, or unfairly prejudicial

- (1) If a court makes an order under section 35 on the ground specified in section 35(1)(d), the constitution must not, to the extent that it has been amended by the court, again be amended without the leave of the court.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the court orders otherwise.
- (3) This section applies despite anything else in this Act.

37 Change of name cannot be made by amending constitution

The name of a society in its constitution may be amended only in accordance with sections 117 to 120.

Procedures in constitution for resolving disputes

38 Meanings of dispute and complaint

- (1) A disagreement or conflict is a dispute if—
- (a) it is between—
 - (i) 2 or more members; or
 - (ii) 1 or more members and the society; or
 - (iii) 1 or more members and 1 or more officers; or

- (iv) 2 or more officers; or
- (v) 1 or more officers and the society; or
- (vi) 1 or more members or officers and the society; and
- (b) the disagreement or conflict relates to an allegation that—
 - (i) a member or an officer has engaged in misconduct; or
 - (ii) a member or an officer has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under the society's constitution or bylaws or this Act; or
 - (iii) the society has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under the society's constitution or bylaws or this Act; or
 - (iv) a member's rights or interests as a member have been damaged or members' rights or interests generally have been damaged.
- (2) A member, an officer, or a society makes a complaint if, in accordance with the society's constitution,—
 - (a) the member or officer starts a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with the constitution; or
 - (b) the society starts a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with the constitution (for example, the society starts a disciplinary action against a member or an officer in relation to an allegation referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii)).
- (3) In this section, a reference to—
 - (a) a member is a reference to a member acting in their capacity as a member;
 - (b) an officer is a reference to an officer acting in their capacity as an officer.

39 Procedures for resolving disputes must be consistent with natural justice

The procedures in a society's constitution for resolving disputes must be consistent with the rules of natural justice.

40 Society may choose to include procedures in Schedule 2

A society may choose to include all or any of the procedures in clauses 2 to 8 of Schedule 2 in its constitution (but is not required to do so).

41 Safe harbour if Schedule 2 is used

- (1) The procedures in a society's constitution for resolving disputes must be treated as being consistent with the rules of natural justice if those procedures consist of—
 - (a) all of the procedures in clauses 2 to 8 of Schedule 2; and
 - (b) any additional procedures that are consistent with those procedures.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a society from having other procedures in its constitution for resolving disputes (as long as those procedures are consistent with the rules of natural justice).

42 Constitution may provide for types of dispute resolution

- (1) A society's constitution may provide that all or certain kinds of disputes must or may be submitted to any type of dispute resolution, including—
- (a) consensual dispute resolution (for example, mediation, facilitation, or a tikanga-based practice); and
 - (b) determinative dispute resolution (for example, arbitration under the Arbitration Act 1996 or adjudication).
- (2) This section and section 43 do not apply to the extent that other legislation requires a dispute to be dealt with in a different way (and the provisions of a constitution that relate to disputes have no effect to the extent that those provisions contravene, or are inconsistent with, that legislation).

Example

An incorporated society (T) is a trade union. Under section 161 of the Employment Relations Act 2000, the Employment Relations Authority has exclusive jurisdiction to make determinations about employment relationship problems generally, including matters about whether a person is entitled to be a member of the union and matters related to a failure by a union to comply with its rules.

T's constitution must not provide for employment relationship problems to be dealt with by arbitration because that would be inconsistent with that section.

43 Provisions relating to arbitration

- (1) If a society's constitution provides that a dispute must or may be submitted to arbitration under the Arbitration Act 1996, the relevant provisions of the constitution must be treated as an arbitration agreement that is binding on the society and the affected member or officer.
- (2) A society's constitution may prescribe procedural matters (not inconsistent with the Arbitration Act 1996) that govern an arbitration under this section.

44 Constitution may provide for appeal or review

A society's constitution may provide for whether and, if so, how a decision made under the procedures for resolving disputes may be subject to an appeal or a review.

Subpart 4—Committee and officers

Committee

45 Committee

- (1) Every society must have a committee.

- (2) The committee must comprise 3 or more officers who are qualified to be elected or appointed under section 47.
- (3) A majority of the officers on the committee must be made up of either or both of the following:
 - (a) members of the society;
 - (b) representatives of bodies corporate that are members of the society.

Example

A society (society A) has a committee of 5 officers.

Two of the officers are members of society A. One of the other officers represents another incorporated society (society B). Society B is a member of society A. Together these 3 officers are a majority on the committee.

The other 2 officers are independent officers.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply in the circumstances prescribed in the regulations.

46 Management of society

- (1) The operation and affairs of a society must be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of, its committee.
- (2) The committee has all the powers necessary for managing, and for directing and supervising the management of, the operation and affairs of the society.
- (3) This section is subject to any modifications, exceptions, or limitations contained in this Act or in the society's constitution.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 128

47 Qualifications of officers

- (1) Every officer of a society must be a natural person.
- (2) A natural person who is not disqualified by subsection (3) may be elected or appointed as an officer of the society, so long as that person—
 - (a) has consented in writing to be an officer; and
 - (b) certifies that they are not disqualified from being elected or appointed or otherwise holding office as an officer of the society.
- (3) The following persons are disqualified from being elected or appointed or otherwise holding office as an officer of a society:
 - (a) a person who is under 16 years of age;
 - (b) a person who is an undischarged bankrupt;
 - (c) a person who is prohibited from being a director or promoter of, or being concerned or taking part in the management of, an incorporated or unincorporated body under the Companies Act 1993, the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013, or the Takeovers Act 1993;

- (d) a person who is disqualified from being an officer of a charitable entity under section 31(4)(b) of the Charities Act 2005:
 - (e) a person who has been convicted of any of the following, and has been sentenced for the offence, within the last 7 years:
 - (i) an offence under subpart 6 of Part 4:
 - (ii) a crime involving dishonesty (within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Crimes Act 1961):
 - (iii) an offence under section 143B of the Tax Administration Act 1994:
 - (iv) an offence under section 22(2):
 - (v) an offence, in a country, State, or territory other than New Zealand, that is substantially similar to an offence specified in subparagraphs (i) to (iv):
 - (vi) a money laundering offence or an offence relating to the financing of terrorism, whether in New Zealand or elsewhere:
 - (f) a person who is subject to any of the following orders:
 - (i) a banning order under subpart 7 of Part 4:
 - (ii) an order under section 108 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003:
 - (iii) a forfeiture order under the Criminal Proceeds (Recovery) Act 2009:
 - (iv) a property order made under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988, or whose property is managed by a trustee corporation under section 32 of that Act:
 - (g) a person who is subject to an order that is substantially similar to an order referred to in paragraph (f) under a law of a country, State, or territory outside New Zealand that is a country, State, or territory prescribed by the regulations:
 - (h) in relation to any particular society, a person who does not comply with any qualifications for officers contained in the society's constitution.
- (4) A natural person who is disqualified from being an officer but who acts as an officer is an officer for the purposes of a provision of this Act that imposes a duty or an obligation on an officer.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 151

48 Registrar may waive disqualifying factors

- (1) The Registrar may, on an application made in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any), waive the application of any of the disqualifying factors set out in section 47(3)(b) to (g) in relation to a particular person and a society.

- (2) If the Registrar waives the application of a disqualifying factor, the person to whom the waiver relates must not be treated as being disqualified from being an officer of the society because of that factor.

Example

The purposes of an incorporated society (A) include providing services to facilitate or promote the rehabilitation and reintegration of offenders who have been released from prison.

The Registrar considers that it may be useful for A's committee to include a person who has been convicted of an offence specified in section 47(3)(e). The Registrar, accordingly, waives the disqualifying factor in that paragraph in relation to a particular person and A.

Compare: 2005 No 39 s 16(4), (5)

49 Other provisions relating to waivers

- (1) A waiver of a disqualifying factor may be granted on the terms or conditions that the Registrar thinks fit.
- (2) The Registrar may—
- (a) vary a waiver in the same way as a waiver may be granted;
 - (b) revoke a waiver that has been granted.

Compare: 2005 No 39 s 16(6)–(8)

Officer ceasing to hold office

50 Officer ceasing to hold office

- (1) A person ceases to be an officer of a society if the person—
- (a) resigns in accordance with subsection (2); or
 - (b) is removed from office in accordance with the society's constitution; or
 - (c) becomes disqualified from being an officer under section 47(3); or
 - (d) dies; or
 - (e) otherwise vacates office in accordance with the society's constitution.
- (2) An officer of a society may resign office—
- (a) in the manner provided in the constitution; or
 - (b) if the constitution does not provide for a manner, by signing a written notice of resignation and giving it to the society.
- (3) The notice of resignation is effective when it is received by the society or at a later time specified in the notice.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 157(1), (2)

51 Former officer remains liable for past acts, omissions, and decisions

- (1) Despite vacating office as an officer, a person who has held office as an officer remains liable under the provisions of this Act that impose liabilities on officers for acts and omissions and decisions made while that person was an officer.
- (2) See, however, the Limitation Act 2010, which provides defences to certain claims that are filed after an applicable period of time (for example, 6 years after the date of the act or omission on which the claim is based).

*Notice of election or appointment and of other changes52 Notice of elections or appointments and of other changes relating to officers

- (1) The society must ensure that notice of the following is given to the Registrar:
 - (a) an election or appointment of an officer:
 - (b) a person ceasing to hold office as an officer:
 - (c) a change in information relating to an officer that is prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The notice must be given to the Registrar in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any) within 20 working days after the society first becomes aware of the matter.

*Validity of acts53 Validity of officer's acts

The acts of a person as an officer are valid even though—

- (a) the person's election or appointment was defective; or
- (b) the person is not qualified for election or appointment.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 158

*Officers' duties54 Duty of officers to act in good faith and in best interests of society

- (1) An officer, when exercising powers or performing duties as an officer, must act in good faith and in what the officer believes to be the best interests of the society.
- (2) This section does not limit the power of an officer to make provision for the benefit of employees of the society in connection with the society ceasing to carry on the whole or part of its activities.

- (3) In subsection (2), employees includes former employees and the dependants of employees or former employees, but does not include an employee or a former employee who is or was an officer of the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 ss 131, 132

55 Powers must be exercised for proper purpose

An officer must exercise a power as an officer for a proper purpose.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 133

56 Officers must comply with Act and constitution

An officer must not act, or agree to the society acting, in a manner that contravenes this Act or the constitution of the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 134

57 Officer's duty of care

An officer, when exercising powers or performing duties as an officer, must exercise the care and diligence that a reasonable person with the same responsibilities would exercise in the same circumstances, taking into account, but without limitation,—

- (a) the nature of the society; and
- (b) the nature of the decision; and
- (c) the position of the officer and the nature of the responsibilities undertaken by them.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 137

58 Duty relating to activities that create substantial risk of serious loss to creditors

An officer must not—

- (a) agree to the activities of the society being carried on in a manner likely to create a substantial risk of serious loss to the society's creditors; or
- (b) cause or allow the activities of the society to be carried on in a manner likely to create a substantial risk of serious loss to the society's creditors.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 135

59 Duty in relation to obligations

An officer must not agree to the society incurring an obligation unless the officer believes at that time on reasonable grounds that the society will be able to perform the obligation when it is required to do so.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 136

60 Use of information and advice

- (1) An officer, when exercising powers or performing duties as an officer, may rely on reports, statements, and financial data and other information prepared or supplied, and on professional or expert advice given, by any of the following persons:

- (a) an employee of the society whom the officer believes on reasonable grounds to be reliable and competent in relation to the matters concerned;
 - (b) a professional adviser or expert in relation to matters that the officer believes on reasonable grounds to be within the person's professional or expert competence;
 - (c) any other officer or subcommittee of officers upon which the officer did not serve in relation to matters within the officer's or subcommittee's designated authority.
- (2) However, subsection (1) applies to an officer only if the officer—
- (a) acts in good faith; and
 - (b) makes proper inquiry where the need for inquiry is indicated by the circumstances; and
 - (c) has no knowledge that the reliance is unwarranted.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 138

61 Duties owed to society

The duties in sections 54 to 59 are owed to the society (rather than to members).

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 169(3)

Conflict of interest disclosure rules

62 When officer has interest

- (1) An officer (A) is interested in a matter if A—
- (a) may obtain a financial benefit from the matter; or
 - (b) is the spouse, civil union partner, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, nephew, niece, uncle, aunt, or first cousin of a person who may obtain a financial benefit from the matter; or
 - (c) may have a financial interest in a person to whom the matter relates; or
 - (d) is a partner, director, officer, board member, or trustee of a person who may have a financial interest in a person to whom the matter relates; or
 - (e) is interested in the matter because the society's constitution so provides.
- (2) However, A is not interested in a matter—
- (a) merely because A receives an indemnity, insurance cover, remuneration, or other benefits authorised under this Act; or

- (b) if A's interest is the same or substantially the same as the benefit or interest of all or most other members of the society due to the membership of those members; or
 - (c) if A's interest is so remote or insignificant that it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to influence A in carrying out A's responsibilities under this Act or the society's constitution; or
 - (d) if A's interest is of a kind that is specified in the society's constitution for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) Subsection (2)(d) applies only if the conditions prescribed by the regulations (if any) are satisfied.
- (4) In this section and sections 63 to 65, matter means—
- (a) a society's performance of its activities or exercise of its powers; or
 - (b) an arrangement, an agreement, or a contract (a transaction) made or entered into, or proposed to be entered into, by the society.

Compare: 2004 No 115 s 62

63 Duty to disclose interest

- (1) An officer who is interested in a matter relating to the society must disclose details of the nature and extent of the interest (including any monetary value of the interest if it can be quantified)—
- (a) to the committee; and
 - (b) in an interests register kept by the committee.
- (2) Disclosure under subsection (1) must be made as soon as practicable after the officer becomes aware that they are interested in the matter.

Compare: 2004 No 115 ss 63, 65

64 Consequences of being interested in matter

- (1) A member of the committee who is interested in a matter relating to a society—
- (a) must not vote or take part in a decision of the committee relating to the matter; and
 - (b) must not sign any document relating to the entry into a transaction or the initiation of the matter; but
 - (c) may take part in any discussion of the committee relating to the matter and be present at the time of the decision of the committee (unless the committee decides otherwise).
- (2) However,—
- (a) a member of the committee who is prevented from voting on a matter under subsection (1) may still be counted for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum at any meeting at which the matter is considered; and

- (b) subsection (1)(a) or (b) does not apply to a member of the committee (A) in relation to a particular matter if all members of the committee who are not interested in the matter consent to A acting as referred to in that paragraph.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), if 50% or more of the members of the committee are prevented from voting on the matter under subsection (1), a special general meeting of the society must be called to consider and determine the matter.

Compare: 2004 No 115 s 66

65 Consequences of failing to disclose interest

- (1) The committee must, in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any), notify the members of the society of a failure to comply with section 63 or 64, and of any transactions affected, as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the failure.
- (2) A failure to comply with section 63 or 64 does not affect the validity of an act or a matter.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not limit the right of any person to apply for judicial review.

Compare: 2004 No 115 s 67

66 Regulations may provide for how members are notified

- (1) Regulations made for the purposes of section 65(1) may, but do not need to, require every member to be notified.
- (2) The regulations may instead require notification to be made to members as a group (for example, by way of a notice on an Internet site that is reasonably accessible to the members generally).

67 Constitution may negate, limit, or modify conflict of interest requirements

- (1) The constitution of a society may negate, limit, or modify any provisions of sections 63, 64, 65(1), and 73 if the conditions prescribed by the regulations (if any) are satisfied.
- (2) The constitution of a society may negate or limit the society's ability to avoid a transaction under section 68(1) if the conditions prescribed by the regulations (if any) are satisfied.
- (3) This section does not limit sections 68(2) to (4) and 69 to 72.

68 Avoidance of transactions

- (1) A transaction entered into by the society in which an officer of the society is interested may be avoided by the society at any time before the expiry of 3 months after the transaction is notified under section 65(1).

- (2) However, a transaction cannot be avoided if the society receives fair value under it (see section 69).
- (3) A transaction in which an officer is interested can only be avoided on the ground of the officer's interest in accordance with this section.
- (4) A provision of a constitution is of no effect to the extent that it purports to allow a transaction to be avoided in circumstances in which the transaction could not otherwise be avoided under this Act.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 141(1), (2), (6)

69 What is fair value

- (1) For the purposes of section 68, whether a society receives fair value under a transaction is determined on the basis of the information known to the society and to the interested officer at the time the transaction is entered into.
- (2) If a transaction is entered into by the society in the ordinary course of its activities and on usual terms and conditions, the society is presumed to receive fair value under the transaction.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 141(3), (4)

70 Onus of proving fair value

- (1) A person who is seeking to uphold a transaction and who knew or ought to have known of the officer's interest at the time the transaction was entered into has the onus of establishing fair value.
- (2) In any other case, the society has the onus of establishing that it did not receive fair value.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 141(5)

71 Effect on third parties

The avoidance of a transaction under section 68 does not affect the title or interest of a person to or in property that the person has acquired if the property was acquired—

- (a) from a person other than the society; and
- (b) for valuable consideration; and
- (c) without knowledge of the circumstances of the transaction under which the person referred to in paragraph (a) acquired the property from the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 142

72 Application of provisions in case of certain payments, indemnities given, or insurance provided

Sections 63 to 66 and 68 do not apply in relation to—

- (a) a salary, wages, or other payments paid to an officer as referred to in section 24(1)(h); or

(b) an indemnity given or insurance provided in accordance with subpart 6.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 143

73 Interests register

- (1) The committee must keep and maintain a register of disclosures made by officers under section 63 (an interests register).
- (2) An officer of the society may inspect the interests register at any reasonable time.

Subpart 5—Members

74 Society must have at least 10 members

- (1) A society must continue to have at least 10 members.
- (2) An act of a society or the transfer of property to or by a society is not invalid merely because the society does not have at least 10 members.

75 Registrar may act if society has fewer than 10 members

- (1) The Registrar may, if the Registrar is satisfied that a society has fewer than 10 members, give the society written notice—
 - (a) requiring it to increase its membership in order to comply with section 74; and
 - (b) informing it that, if the society does not comply with that section within 6 months after the date of the notice, the Registrar may—
 - (i) apply to the High Court to put the society into liquidation; or
 - (ii) remove the society from the register under subpart 1 of Part 5.
- (2) The Registrar may, if the society does not comply with section 74 at the end of the 6-month period after the date of the notice,—
 - (a) make an application under section 212; or
 - (b) act under subpart 1 of Part 5.

76 Consent to become member

- (1) A person must consent to become a member of a society.
- (2) The consent of a body corporate (A) to become a member of a society may be given on A's behalf in writing by a person acting under A's express or implied authority.

77 Members have no right to property of society

Membership of a society does not confer on a member any right, title, or interest, either legal or equitable, in the property of the society.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 14

78 Liability of members

- (1) A member is not liable for an obligation of a society by reason only of being a member.
- (2) The liability of a person to a society in their capacity as a member is limited to—
 - (a) any amount unpaid on the membership of the member;
 - (b) any liability as a member expressly provided for in the society's constitution.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects the liability of a member of a society to the society under a contract, or for any tort, breach of a fiduciary duty, or other actionable wrong committed by the member.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 97

79 Register of members

- (1) Every society must keep a register of its members.
- (2) The register must contain—
 - (a) the name of each member; and
 - (b) the last known contact details of each member; and
 - (c) the date on which each person became a member; and
 - (d) all other information prescribed by the regulations (if any).
- (3) Every society must update its register of members as soon as practicable after becoming aware of changes to the information recorded on the register.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 22

*Access to information for members80 Information for members

- (1) A member may at any time make a written request to a society for information held by the society.
- (2) The request must specify the information sought in sufficient detail to enable it to be identified.
- (3) The society must, within a reasonable time after receiving a request,—
 - (a) provide the information; or
 - (b) agree to provide the information within a specified period; or
 - (c) agree to provide the information within a specified period if the member pays a reasonable charge to the society (which must be specified and explained) to meet the cost of providing the information; or
 - (d) refuse to provide the information, specifying the reasons for the refusal.

- (4) Nothing in this section or section 81 or 82 limits information privacy principle 6 set out in section 22 of the Privacy Act 2020.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 178(1)–(3)

81 Grounds for refusing request

- (1) A society may refuse to provide the information if—
- (a) withholding the information is necessary to protect the privacy of natural persons, including that of deceased natural persons; or
 - (b) the disclosure of the information would, or would be likely to, prejudice the commercial position of the society or of any of its members; or
 - (c) the disclosure of the information would, or would be likely to, prejudice the commercial position of any other person, whether or not that person supplied the information to the society; or
 - (d) the information is not relevant to the operation or affairs of the society; or
 - (e) the request for the information is frivolous or vexatious.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the reasons for which a society may refuse to provide the information.
- (3) However, the constitution of a society may negate subsection (2) (with the effect that the reasons for which a society may refuse to provide the information are limited to those in subsection (1)).

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 178(4)

82 Member may withdraw request if there is charge for information

If the society requires the member to pay a charge for the information, the member may withdraw the request, and must be treated as having done so unless, within 10 working days after receiving notification of the charge, the member informs the society—

- (a) that the member will pay the charge; or
- (b) that the member considers the charge to be unreasonable.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 178(5)

83 Court orders relating to information

- (1) A court may, on the application of a member who has made a request for information under section 80, make an order under this section if it is satisfied that—
- (a) the period specified for providing the information is unreasonable; or
 - (b) the charge set by the society is unreasonable; or
 - (c) the society does not have sufficient reason to refuse to supply the information; or

- (d) the society has sufficient reason to refuse to supply the information but other reasons exist that outweigh the refusal.
 - (2) The order is an order requiring the society to supply the information within the time or on payment of the charge that the court thinks fit.
 - (3) The court may also specify in the order—
 - (a) the use that may be made of the information; and
 - (b) the persons to whom it may be disclosed.
 - (4) The court may make an order for the payment of costs that it thinks fit.
- Compare: 1993 No 105 s 178(6)–(9)

General meetings

84 Annual general meetings

- (1) Every society must call an annual general meeting of members to be held—
 - (a) not later than 6 months after the balance date of the society; and
 - (b) not later than 15 months after the previous annual general meeting.
- (2) However, a society does not have to hold its first annual general meeting in the calendar year of its incorporation but must hold that meeting within 18 months after its incorporation.
- (3) The society must—
 - (a) hold the meeting on the date on which it is called to be held and in accordance with its constitution; and
 - (b) ensure that minutes of the meeting are kept.
- (4) If a society is a union or is of a kind prescribed by the regulations, the society's constitution may provide that a right to attend an annual general meeting applies only to delegates or other representatives of members (rather than to all members).

85 Irregularities in calling meeting

- (1) An irregularity in the manner of calling a general meeting of a society is waived if all the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting attend the meeting without protest as to the irregularity, or if all such members agree to the waiver.
- (2) An accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or a failure to receive notice of a meeting by, a member does not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.
- (3) Subsection (2) is subject to the constitution of the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 Schedule 1 cl 2(3), (3A)

86 Information to be presented at annual general meeting

- (1) The committee must, at each annual general meeting, present the following information:
 - (a) an annual report on the operations and affairs of the society during the most recently completed accounting period;
 - (b) the financial statements of the society for that period;
 - (c) notice of the disclosures, or types of disclosures, made under section 63 (disclosure of interests) during that period (including a brief summary of the matters, or types of matters, to which those disclosures relate).
- (2) The annual report must contain the information prescribed by the regulations (if any).
- (3) In subsection (1)(c), matters has the same meaning as in section 62.

87 Methods of holding meetings

- (1) A general meeting of a society must be held by a quorum of persons—
 - (a) being assembled together at the time and place appointed for the meeting; or
 - (b) participating in the meeting by means of audio link, audiovisual link, or other electronic communication; or
 - (c) by a combination of both of the methods described in paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (2) This section is subject to the society's constitution.
- (3) See sections 26(1)(k) and 93, which provide for the constitution to deal with arrangements and requirements for general meetings (including the quorum, proxies, and voting by post or electronic means).

88 Right of access to financial statements and minutes of meeting

- (1) A member may, at any time, make a written request to the society for either or both of the following:
 - (a) the financial statements of the society that were presented at the most recent annual general meeting of the society;
 - (b) the minutes of the most recent general meeting of the society.
- (2) The society must, within a reasonable period after receiving the request and without charge, provide the requested information to the member.
- (3) Sections 80 and 81 do not limit this section.

*Resolutions in lieu of meeting89 Resolution in lieu of meeting

- (1) This section and sections 90 to 92 apply if the constitution of a society allows a resolution to be passed in lieu of a meeting under section 26(1)(k)(v).
- (2) A written resolution is as valid for the purposes of this Act and the constitution as if it had been passed at a general meeting if it is approved by no less than 75% (or a higher percentage required by the constitution) of the number of members who are entitled to vote.
- (3) A written resolution under this section may consist of 1 or more documents in similar form (including letters, electronic mail, or other similar means of communication) each approved by or on behalf of 1 or more of the persons specified in subsection (2).
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a member may give their approval by—
 - (a) signing the resolution; or
 - (b) giving their approval to the resolution in any other manner permitted by the constitution (for example, by electronic means).
- (5) This section does not limit section 84 (which requires a society to call and hold an annual general meeting).

90 Proposed resolution in lieu must be sent to members entitled to vote

- (1) The society must ensure—
 - (a) that a proposed resolution under section 89 is dated with the date on which the proposed resolution is first sent to a person entitled to vote for the purpose of approval (the circulation date); and
 - (b) that the proposed resolution is sent to an address for each person who is entitled to vote; and
 - (c) as far as is reasonably practicable, that the proposed resolution is sent under paragraph (b) on the circulation date; and
 - (d) that a proposed resolution sent under paragraph (b) is accompanied by a statement of the effect of subsection (2).
- (2) A proposed resolution lapses if it is not passed under section 89 within 3 months (or any shorter period provided in the constitution) after the circulation date.
- (3) In this section and section 92, address, of a person (A), means—
 - (a) the address (including an electronic address) specified by A for the relevant purpose; or
 - (b) the actual or last known address (including an electronic address) for A, if—
 - (i) paragraph (a) does not apply; or

- (ii) the society knows that the address referred to in paragraph (a) is not correct.

91 Accidental omission does not invalidate resolution in lieu

An accidental omission to send a proposed resolution or statement under section 90 to a person entitled to vote does not invalidate a resolution passed under section 89.

92 Society must send copy of passed resolution in lieu to certain members

The society must, within 5 working days after a resolution is passed under section 89, send a copy of the resolution to an address for each person who was entitled to vote who did not approve the resolution and on whose behalf the resolution was not approved.

Voting by proxy, postal voting, and voting by electronic means

93 Constitution may permit voting by proxy, post, and electronic means

- (1) This section applies if this Act requires or permits the members of a society to vote on a matter (for example, to approve a resolution to amend the society's constitution under section 30).
- (2) The members may vote in 1 or more of the following ways if permitted by the society's constitution:
 - (a) vote by proxy:
 - (b) cast a postal vote:
 - (c) cast a vote by electronic means.
- (3) See section 26(1)(k), which also provides for a constitution to set out procedures for voting in person at general meetings.

Subpart 6—Indemnities or insurance for officers, members, or employees of society

94 Society restricted from indemnifying or effecting insurance for its own officers, members, and employees

- (1) A society must not, except in accordance with this subpart, indemnify, or directly or indirectly effect insurance for, an officer, a member, or an employee of the society for—
 - (a) liability for any act or omission in their capacity as an officer, a member, or an employee of that society; or
 - (b) costs incurred by the officer, member, or employee of that society in defending or settling any claim or proceeding relating to that liability.
- (2) An indemnity given in breach of this subpart is void.
- (3) In this subpart,—

effect insurance includes to pay, whether directly or indirectly, the costs of the insurance employee includes a former employee

indemnify includes relieve, exempt, or excuse from liability, whether before or after the liability arises member includes a former member officer includes a former officer.

Compare: 2013 No 69 ss 526, 530

95 Society may indemnify or effect insurance for person in their capacity as employee of third person

Section 94 does not prevent a society from indemnifying, or directly or indirectly effecting insurance for, a member (A) in respect of A's liability for any act or omission in A's capacity as an employee of a person other than the society (or costs incurred by A in defending or settling any claim or proceeding relating to that liability).

Example

An incorporated society (T) is a trade union. Its members include employees of various business, including a company (B).

T may effect insurance for its members for liability for acts or omissions as employees of B (or for associated costs).

96 Permitted indemnities for certain liabilities or costs

- (1) A society may indemnify an officer, a member, or an employee of the society for—
 - (a) liability to any person other than the society for any act or omission in their capacity as an officer, a member, or an employee of that society (not being a liability specified in subsection (2)); or
 - (b) costs incurred by the officer, member, or employee in defending or settling any claim or proceeding relating to that liability.
- (2) The liability specified in this subsection is—
 - (a) criminal liability; or
 - (b) a liability that arises out of a failure to act in good faith and in what the officer, member, or employee believes to be the best interests of the society when acting in their capacity as an officer, a member, or an employee of the society.
- (3) A society may indemnify an officer, a member, or an employee of the society for any costs incurred by them in defending or settling a proceeding that relates to liability of a kind referred to in section 94(1)(a) if—
 - (a) judgment is given in their favour or if they are acquitted; or

- (b) the proceeding is discontinued.
- (4) This section is subject to section 98.

Compare: 2013 No 69 s 527

97 Permitted insurance for certain liability or costs

- (1) A society may, with the prior approval of its committee, effect insurance for an officer, a member, or an employee of the society in respect of—
 - (a) liability (other than criminal liability) of a kind referred to in section 94; or
 - (b) costs incurred by the officer, member, or employee in defending or settling any claim or proceeding relating to that liability; or
 - (c) costs incurred by the officer, member, or employee in defending any criminal proceedings—
 - (i) that have been brought against the officer, member, or employee in relation to any alleged act or omission in their capacity as an officer, a member, or an employee; and
 - (ii) in which they are acquitted.
- (2) The officers of the society who vote in favour of authorising the insurance under subsection (1) must sign a certificate stating that, in their opinion, the cost of effecting the insurance is fair to the society.
- (3) The officer, member, or employee who is insured is personally liable to the society for the cost of effecting insurance if—
 - (a) subsection (2) or section 98 has not been complied with in effecting the insurance; or
 - (b) reasonable grounds did not exist for the opinion set out in the certificate given under subsection (2).
- (4) However, subsection (3) does not apply to the extent that the insurance was fair to the society at the time the insurance was effected.

Compare: 2013 No 69 s 528

98 Indemnity or insurance for breach of officers' duties, etc, must be expressly authorised by society's constitution

- (1) Despite sections 96 and 97, a society may indemnify an officer under section 96, or effect insurance for an officer under section 97, for the matters specified in subsection (2) only if giving the indemnity or effecting the insurance is expressly authorised by the society's constitution.
- (2) The matters are—
 - (a) liability (other than criminal liability) for a failure to comply with—
 - (i) a duty under sections 54 to 61 (officers' duties); or

- (ii) any other duty imposed on the officer in their capacity as an officer:
- (b) costs incurred by the officer for any claim or proceeding relating to that liability.

Subpart 7—Accounting records, financial reporting, and annual returns

Balance date

99 Balance date of charitable entities

The balance date of a society that is a charitable entity is the entity's balance date under section 41(3) to (7) of the Charities Act 2005.

100 Balance date of other societies

- (1) The balance date of a society (other than a charitable entity) is the close of—
 - (a) the date specified in the constitution as the society's balance date; or
 - (b) any other date that the committee adopts as the society's balance date (if the balance date is not specified under paragraph (a)); or
 - (c) 31 March (if the balance date is not specified under paragraph (a) or (b)).
- (2) The following apply to a society (other than a charitable entity):
 - (a) the society must have a balance date in each calendar year (subject to paragraphs (b) to (d)):
 - (b) the society need not have a balance date in the calendar year in which it is incorporated if its first balance date is in the following calendar year and is not later than 15 months after the date of its incorporation:
 - (c) the society may change its balance date without the approval of the Registrar if—
 - (i) the period between any 2 balance dates does not exceed 15 months; and
 - (ii) the society continues to have a balance date in each calendar year:
 - (d) the society may change its balance date with the approval of the Registrar before the change is made (and the change may be approved with or without conditions).
- (3) If the balance date is specified in the society's constitution, a change must be made in accordance with section 30 or 31 (without limiting subsection (2)(c) and (d)).

*Accounting records101 Accounting records must be kept

- (1) The committee must ensure that there are kept at all times accounting records that—
 - (a) correctly record the transactions of the society; and
 - (b) allow the society to produce financial statements that comply with the requirements of this Act; and
 - (c) would enable the financial statements to be readily and properly audited (if required under any legislation or the society's constitution).
- (2) The committee must establish and maintain a satisfactory system of control of the society's accounting records.
- (3) The accounting records must be kept—
 - (a) in written form in English or te reo Māori; or
 - (b) in a form or manner that is easily accessible and convertible into written form in English or te reo Māori.
- (4) The accounting records must be kept for the current accounting period and for the last 7 completed accounting periods of the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 194

*Financial reporting102 Annual financial statements must be prepared and registered

- (1) Every society must ensure that, within 6 months after the balance date of the society, financial statements are—
 - (a) completed in relation to the society and that balance date; and
 - (b) dated and signed by or on behalf of the society by 2 members of the committee.
- (2) The financial statements must be prepared in accordance with,—
 - (a) in the case of a specified not-for-profit entity, generally accepted accounting practice; or
 - (b) in the case of a small society, any of the following:
 - (i) generally accepted accounting practice; or
 - (ii) a non-GAAP standard that applies for the purposes of this section; or
 - (iii) the requirements set out in section 104; or
 - (c) in any other case, either of the following:
 - (i) generally accepted accounting practice;
 - (ii) a non-GAAP standard that applies for the purposes of this section.

- (3) Every society must ensure that, within 6 months after the balance date of the society, copies of the financial statements of the society for the period ending on that date are given to the Registrar for registration.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 201

103 Definitions relating to financial reporting

- (1) In this subpart,—
- applicable auditing and assurance standard has the same meaning as in section 5(1) of the Financial Reporting Act 2013
- generally accepted accounting practice has the same meaning as in section 8 of the Financial Reporting Act 2013
- non-GAAP standard has the same meaning as in section 5(1) of the Financial Reporting Act 2013
- qualified auditor has the same meaning as in section 35 of the Financial Reporting Act 2013.
- (2) In this subpart, a society is, in respect of an accounting period,—
- (a) a specified not-for-profit entity if it is such an entity in respect of that period under section 46 of the Financial Reporting Act 2013:
- (b) a small society if,—
- (i) in each of the 2 preceding accounting periods of the society, the total operating payments of the society are less than $50,000; and
- (ii) as at the balance date of each of the 2 preceding accounting periods, the total current assets of the society are less than $50,000; and
- (iii) at the balance date of the accounting period, the society is not an entity described in section LD 3(2) of the Income Tax Act 2007 (a donee organisation).
- (3) Subsection (4) applies for the purposes of this subpart if—
- (a) a society is preparing financial statements for an accounting period (the relevant period); but
- (b) the society does not have 2 preceding accounting periods as referred to in subsection (2)(b).

Example

A society is preparing financial statements for an accounting period ending on 31 December 2026. The society was only incorporated in 2025. The society cannot apply the test as to whether it is a small society in subsection (2)(b) because it was not in existence for 2 accounting periods before the relevant period. Instead, it may apply the test in subsection (4).

- (4) The society is a small society in respect of the relevant period if,—

- (a) in the relevant period, the total operating payments of the society are less than $50,000; and
 - (b) as at the balance date of the relevant period, the total current assets of the society are less than $50,000; and
 - (c) at the balance date of the relevant period, the society is not an entity described in section LD 3(2) of the Income Tax Act 2007 (a donee organisation).
- (5) For the purposes of this section, total current assets has the meaning set out in the regulations.

104 Minimum requirements for financial statements of small societies

For the purposes of section 102(2)(b)(iii), the financial statements for an accounting period must—

- (a) contain the following information:
 - (i) the income and expenditure, or receipts and payments, of the society during the accounting period; and
 - (ii) the assets and liabilities of the society at the close of the accounting period; and
 - (iii) all mortgages, charges, and other security interests of any description affecting any of the property of the society at the close of the accounting period; and
- (b) otherwise comply with requirements prescribed by the regulations.

105 Annual financial statements of certain societies must be audited

- (1) Every society that is of a kind prescribed by the regulations must ensure that the financial statements that are required to be prepared under section 102 are audited by a qualified auditor.
- (2) See sections 37 to 39 of the Financial Reporting Act 2013 (which provide for the appointment of a partnership and access to information).
- (3) An auditor must, in carrying out an audit for the purposes of this section, comply with all applicable auditing and assurance standards.

106 Auditor must report to members

- (1) The auditor of a society (if any) must make a report to the members on the financial statements audited by the auditor.
- (2) The auditor's report must comply with the requirements of all applicable auditing and assurance standards.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 207B

107 Auditor's report must be sent to Registrar and External Reporting Board if requirements have not been complied with

If an auditor's report indicates that the requirements of this Act have not been complied with, the auditor must, within 7 working days after signing the report, send a copy of the report and a copy of the financial statements to which it relates to the Registrar and the External Reporting Board.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 207C

108 Duties do not apply if alternative financial reporting duties under financial markets or charities legislation

Sections 102 to 105 do not apply to a society in relation to an accounting period if—

- (a) financial statements for the society and that accounting period are required to be prepared under subpart 3 of Part 7 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013; or
- (b) the society is a charitable entity and an annual return of the society under section 41 of the Charities Act 2005 is required to be accompanied by financial statements for the society and that accounting period.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 197

*Annual return109 Annual returns

- (1) Every society must, in the manner prescribed by the regulations, ensure that an annual return is given to the Registrar for registration.
- (2) The annual return must contain the information prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) This section does not apply to a charitable entity.

Subpart 8—Other administration matters*Registered office110 Registered office

- (1) Every society must always have a registered office in New Zealand.
- (2) The registered office of a society at any particular time is the place described as such in the register (subject to section 111).

111 Change of registered office

- (1) The committee of a society may change the registered office of the society at any time.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to the society's constitution and to subsection (4).

- (3) The society must, in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any), give notice to the Registrar of any change to its registered office.
- (4) A change to a society's registered office takes effect on a date stated in the notice (being a date that is at least 5 working days after the notice is registered).

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 187

Contact person

112 Purpose

The purpose of sections 113 to 116 is to provide for every society to have a person whom the Registrar can contact when needed.

113 Society must have contact person

Every society must at all times have at least 1 contact person (and may have up to 3 contact persons).

114 Who contact person may be

- (1) A contact person must be—
 - (a) at least 18 years of age; and
 - (b) ordinarily resident in New Zealand.
- (2) The position of contact person may be held separately or in conjunction with any office in the society.
- (3) In this section, a person is ordinarily resident in New Zealand if the person—
 - (a) is domiciled in New Zealand; or
 - (b) is living in New Zealand and the place where that person usually lives is, and has been for the immediately preceding 12 months, in New Zealand, whether or not that person has on occasions been away from New Zealand during that period.

115 Vacancy in position of contact person

If there is a vacancy in the position of contact person and the society has no other contact person, the society does not breach section 113 if the position is filled within 20 working days after the vacancy occurs.

116 Notice of change of contact person

- (1) The society must ensure that notice of the following changes is given to the Registrar:
 - (a) a change in a contact person of the society;
 - (b) a change in the name or the contact details of a contact person of the society.

- (2) The notice must be given to the Registrar in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any) within 20 working days after the society first becomes aware of the change.

Name of society

117 Change of name of society

- (1) An application to change the name of a society must be made by or on behalf of the society in the manner prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) As soon as the Registrar receives a properly completed application, the Registrar must—
 - (a) enter the new name of the society on the register; and
 - (b) issue a certificate of incorporation for the society recording the change of name of the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 23

118 Registrar may refuse application if proposed name contrary to section 11

- (1) Despite section 117, the Registrar must refuse to register a change to a society's name if the Registrar considers that any of paragraphs (a) to (f) of section 11(1) apply to the proposed new name.
- (2) If the Registrar refuses to register a change to a society's name, the Registrar may register a change if the proposed new name is amended to address (to the Registrar's satisfaction) the matter referred to in subsection (1).

119 Change of name if name is contrary to section 11

- (1) The Registrar may by written notice require the society to change its name under section 117 if the Registrar considers that any of paragraphs (a), (b), and (d) to (f) of section 11(1) apply to a society's name.
- (2) The society must change its name within—
 - (a) 20 working days after the date on which the notice is served; or
 - (b) any longer period specified in the notice.
- (3) If a society fails to comply with subsection (2),—
 - (a) the Registrar may enter a new name on the register for the society (being a name selected by the Registrar that would be acceptable under section 11); and
 - (b) issue a certificate of incorporation recording the change of name of the society.

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 11A; 1993 No 105 s 24

120 Effect of change of name

- (1) A change of name of a society—

- (a) takes effect from the date of the certificate issued under section 117 or 119; and
 - (b) does not affect any rights or obligations of the society, or legal proceedings by or against the society, and legal proceedings that may have been continued or commenced against the society under its former name may be continued or commenced against it under its new name.
- (2) If a society's name is changed, the constitution must be treated as containing the new name for the purposes of section 26(1)(a).
- Compare: 1993 No 105 s 23(4)

121 Use of society name

- (1) A society must ensure that its name is clearly stated in every document issued or signed by, or on behalf of, the society that evidences or creates a legal obligation of the society.
- (2) If a document that evidences or creates a legal obligation of a society is issued or signed by or on behalf of the society and the name of the society is incorrectly stated in the document, every person who issued or signed the document is liable to the same extent as the society if the society fails to discharge the obligation unless—
- (a) the person who issued or signed the document proves that the person in whose favour the obligation was incurred was aware at the time the document was issued or signed that the obligation was incurred by the society; or
 - (b) the court is satisfied that it would not be just and equitable for the person who issued or signed the document to be so liable.
- (3) A society that fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.
- Compare: 1993 No 105 s 25

122 Society may use abbreviation

For the purposes of sections 121 and 123 (which relate to the manner in which a society may enter into contracts and other obligations), a society may use a generally recognised abbreviation of a word or words in its name if it is not misleading to do so.

Authority to bind society

123 Method of contracting

- (1) A contract or other enforceable obligation may be entered into by a society as follows:

- (a) an obligation that, if entered into by a natural person, would, by law, be required to be by deed may be entered into on behalf of the society in writing signed under the name of the society by—
 - (i) 2 or more officers of the society; or
 - (ii) if the constitution of the society so provides, an officer, or other person or class of persons, whose signature or signatures must be witnessed; or
 - (iii) 1 or more attorneys appointed by the society under section 124:
 - (b) an obligation that, if entered into by a natural person, is, by law, required to be in writing may be entered into on behalf of the society in writing by a person acting under the society's express or implied authority:
 - (c) an obligation that, if entered into by a natural person, is not, by law, required to be in writing may be entered into on behalf of the society in writing or orally by a person acting under the society's express or implied authority.
- (2) A society may, in addition to complying with subsection (1), affix its common seal, if it has one, to the contract or document containing the enforceable obligation.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies to a contract or other obligation—
- (a) whether or not the contract or obligation was entered into in New Zealand; and
 - (b) whether or not the law governing the contract or obligation is the law of New Zealand.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 180

124 Attorneys

- (1) A society may, by an instrument signed under section 123(1)(a), appoint a person as its attorney either generally or in relation to a specified matter.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to the society's constitution.
- (3) An act of the attorney under the instrument binds the society.
- (4) Sections 19 to 21 of the Property Law Act 2007 apply, with all necessary modifications, in relation to the power of attorney—
 - (a) to the same extent as if the society were a natural person; and
 - (b) as if a commencement of the liquidation of the society, or a removal of the society from the register, were an event revoking the power of attorney within the meaning of those sections.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 181

*Service of documents on society125 Service of documents

- (1) A document in a legal proceeding may be served on a society in the manner prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) A document, other than a document in a legal proceeding, may be served on a society in the manner prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) A document that is served on a society must be treated as received by the society when specified by the regulations.

*Te reo Māori126 Use of te reo Māori in records and documents

Nothing in this Act prevents a society from—

- (a) having any of the following in te reo Māori:
 - (i) the society's constitution:
 - (ii) the society's bylaws (if any):
 - (iii) any other document required by or for the purposes of this Act; or
- (b) keeping its records in te reo Māori.

Part 4Enforcement*127 Overview

- (1) This Part relates to matters of enforcement, including providing for—
 - (a) court orders to enforce a society's constitution or bylaws:
 - (b) court orders to enforce officers' duties:
 - (c) court orders where the operations or affairs of a society are oppressive, unfairly discriminatory, or unfairly prejudicial to a member:
 - (d) a society to recover a financial gain derived in contravention of subpart 2 of Part 3:
 - (e) offences.
- (2) This Part provides for applications for court orders to be made—
 - (a) by, or on behalf of, a society or its members, former members, or officers; or
 - (b) by the Registrar (but see section 150).

128 Part subject to exclusive jurisdiction under other legislation

- (1) This Part is subject to any other legislation that confers exclusive jurisdiction in relation to a matter involving a society, its members, or its officers (for example, if the society is a union, the exclusive jurisdiction of the Employment Authority or the Employment Court under the Employment Relations Act 2000).

- (2) The court or tribunal that has exclusive jurisdiction may make orders and otherwise act in relation to the matter under this Part as if it were the High Court.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), the court or tribunal may order that a proceeding or any part of it be transferred to and dealt with by the High Court under this Part if the court or tribunal making the order is satisfied that it is desirable to do so.
- (4) The High Court may deal with the proceeding as if an application had been made to it under this Part.

Subpart 1—Court orders enforcing society’s constitution or bylaws

129 Court orders

- (1) A court may, on an application under this subpart, make 1 or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order declaring and enforcing the rights or obligations of a society, any officer, or any member under the society’s constitution or bylaws:
 - (b) an order directing the performance and observance of a society’s constitution or bylaws by the society, an officer, or a member:
 - (c) an order restraining a society, an officer, or a member from acting in a manner contrary to the society’s constitution or bylaws:
 - (d) an order for a person who has breached a society’s constitution or bylaws to compensate (in whole or in part) the society, a member, or a former member for the loss or damage suffered by the society, member, or former member because of the breach:
 - (e) any order that the court thinks just, including any order about costs.
- (2) Section 130 does not limit this section.

130 Disputes under society’s constitution

- (1) This section applies to a dispute that has been, or is being, investigated or otherwise dealt with under the procedures in the society’s constitution referred to in section 26(1)(j).
- (2) A court may, on an application under this subpart, exercise a power under subsection (4) if it is satisfied that—
 - (a) there has been a breach of the rules of natural justice; or
 - (b) there has been a serious breach of the procedures in the society’s constitution referred to in section 26(1)(j); or
 - (c) a decision maker has a lack of jurisdiction or has been improperly appointed; or

- (d) the decision made on the dispute by a decision maker is in conflict with the public policy of New Zealand.
- (3) Subsection (2)(b) does not limit subsection (2)(a).
- (4) The court may do any 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) make 1 or more of the orders under section 129;
 - (b) make any decision it thinks should have been made by a decision maker;
 - (c) direct the decision maker—
 - (i) to hear or rehear the matter concerned; or
 - (ii) to consider or determine (whether for the first time or again) any matters that the court directs; or
 - (d) make any order that the court thinks just, including any order about costs.
- (5) The court must state its reasons for giving a direction under subsection (4)(c).
- (6) Subsection (2)(a) is subject to section 41, which provides for when procedures in a society's constitution for resolving disputes must be treated as being consistent with the rules of natural justice.

131 When decision maker has lack of jurisdiction

For the purposes of section 130(2)(c), a decision maker has a lack of jurisdiction only where,—

- (a) in the narrow and original sense of the term jurisdiction, the decision maker has no entitlement to enter upon the inquiry in question; or
- (b) the decision is outside the classes of decisions that the decision maker is authorised to make; or
- (c) the decision maker acts in bad faith.

132 Who may apply

- (1) An application for an order under this subpart may be made by—
 - (a) a society; or
 - (b) a member of a society; or
 - (c) a former member of a society (see section 152); or
 - (d) an officer of a society; or
 - (e) the Registrar (see section 150).
- (2) The Registrar may apply only if the Registrar considers that making the application is in the public interest.
- (3) See section 151 (which provides for the court to refuse to consider an application).

Subpart 2—Court orders enforcing officers' duties

133 Court orders

A court may, on an application under this subpart, make 1 or more of the following orders against an officer or a former officer of a society if the court is satisfied that the officer or former officer has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under the society's constitution or bylaws or this Act:

- (a) an order declaring and enforcing those duties:
- (b) an order directing the performance and observance of those duties:
- (c) an order restraining the officer from acting in a manner contrary to their duties:
- (d) an order for the officer or former officer to compensate (in whole or in part) the society for the loss or damage suffered by the society because of a breach of those duties:
- (e) an order for an account of profits (including an order for the computation and payment to the society of profits made in connection with a breach of a duty):
- (f) an order for the officer or former officer to return property to the society:
- (g) any other order that the court thinks just, including any order about costs.

134 Who may apply

- (1) An application for an order under this subpart may be made by—
 - (a) a society; or
 - (b) a member or an officer of a society (but only under sections 135 to 138); or
 - (c) the Registrar.
- (2) The Registrar may apply only if the Registrar considers that—
 - (a) the breach, or likely breach, of duty is or would be serious; and
 - (b) making the application is in the public interest (see section 150).
- (3) See section 151 (which provides for the court to refuse to consider an application).

135 When member or officer may apply or intervene in proceeding on behalf of society

- (1) A court may, on the application of a member or an officer of a society, grant leave to the member or officer to—
 - (a) apply under this subpart in the name and on behalf of the society; or

- (b) intervene in a proceeding under this subpart to which the society is a party for the purpose of continuing, defending, or discontinuing the proceeding on behalf of the society.
- (2) The court may grant the leave only if it is satisfied that—
- (a) either—
 - (i) the society does not intend to bring, defend, or diligently continue a proceeding under this subpart; or
 - (ii) the society has discontinued a proceeding under this subpart; and
 - (b) it is in the interests of the society that the conduct of a proceeding under this subpart should not be left to the officers or to the determination of the members as a whole.

136 Matters court must have regard to in determining whether to grant leave

The court must, in determining whether to grant leave, have regard to—

- (a) the likelihood of the proceeding succeeding;
- (b) the costs of the proceeding in relation to the relief likely to be obtained;
- (c) any action already taken by the society to obtain relief;
- (d) the interests of the society in the proceeding being commenced, continued, defended, or discontinued.

137 Other matters relating to leave application

- (1) Notice of an application under section 135 must be served on the society.
- (2) The society, in relation to the application,—
 - (a) may appear and be heard; and
 - (b) must inform the court whether or not it intends to bring, continue, defend, or discontinue a proceeding under this subpart.

138 Powers of court where leave granted

- (1) The court may make any order it thinks fit in relation to an application under section 135 made by a member or an officer or in a proceeding in which a member or an officer intervenes with leave of the court under that section.
- (2) The orders may include (without limitation) an order—
 - (a) authorising the member, officer, or any other person to control the conduct of the proceeding;
 - (b) giving directions for the conduct of the proceeding;
 - (c) requiring the society, the officers, or a member to provide information or assistance in relation to the proceeding.

139 Costs of action by member, officer, or Registrar to be met by society

- (1) The court must, on the application of a person to whom leave was granted under section 135 or of the Registrar, order that the society must meet the whole or a part of the reasonable costs of bringing or intervening in a proceeding under this subpart.
- (2) Those costs may include any costs relating to a settlement, compromise, or discontinuance approved under section 140.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the court considers that it would be unjust or inequitable for the society to bear those costs.

140 Settlement, compromise, or withdrawal of proceeding brought by member, officer, or Registrar

A proceeding under this subpart that is brought by a member, an officer, or the Registrar, or in which a member or an officer intervenes, may be settled, compromised, or discontinued only with the approval of the court.

Subpart 3—Prejudiced members141 Prejudiced members

- (1) A member or former member of a society may apply to a court for an order under this subpart on the grounds that—
 - (a) the operations or affairs of the society have been, are being, or are likely to be conducted in a manner that is oppressive, unfairly discriminatory, or unfairly prejudicial to the member or former member in their capacity as a member; or
 - (b) any act or acts of the society have been, are, or are likely to be oppressive, unfairly discriminatory, or unfairly prejudicial to the member or former member in that capacity.
- (2) See section 151 (which provides for the court to refuse to consider an application).
- (3) See also section 152 (which relates to applications by former members).

142 Court orders

- (1) A court may, on an application under this subpart and if it considers that it is just and equitable to do so, make any orders that it thinks fit.
- (2) The orders may include (without limitation) an order—
 - (a) requiring the society or any other person to pay compensation to a member or former member; or
 - (b) regulating the future conduct of the society's operations or affairs; or
 - (c) appointing a receiver of the society; or
 - (d) directing the rectification of the records of the society; or

- (e) putting the society into liquidation under subpart 4 of Part 5; or
 - (f) setting aside an action taken by the society or its committee in breach of this Act or the society's constitution or its bylaws.
- (3) No order may be made against the society or any other person under this section unless the society or person is a party to the proceeding.
- (4) See sections 35 and 36 (which provide for a court to amend a society's constitution, including where the constitution is operating, or is likely to operate, in an oppressive, unfairly discriminatory, or unfairly prejudicial manner).

Subpart 4—Financial gain

143 Society may recover financial gain from member

- (1) A member or former member who obtains a financial gain as a result of the society contravening subpart 2 of Part 3 must be treated as having received the financial gain for the benefit of the society.
- (2) The society may recover the financial gain from the member (or former member) in any court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the society.
- (3) See section 151 (which provides for the court to refuse to consider an application).

Compare: 1908 No 212 s 20(4)

144 When member or officer may apply or intervene in proceeding on behalf of society

- (1) A court may, on the application of a member or an officer of a society, grant leave to the member or officer to—
- (a) bring a proceeding under this subpart in the name and on behalf of the society; or
 - (b) intervene in a proceeding under this subpart to which the society is a party for the purpose of continuing, defending, or discontinuing the proceeding on behalf of the society.
- (2) The court may grant the leave only if it is satisfied that—
- (a) either—
 - (i) the society does not intend to bring, defend, or diligently continue a proceeding under this subpart; or
 - (ii) the society has discontinued a proceeding under this subpart; and
 - (b) it is in the interests of the society that the conduct of a proceeding under this subpart should not be left to the officers or to the determination of the members as a whole.

145 Matters court must have regard to in determining whether to grant leave

The court must, in determining whether to grant leave, have regard to—

- (a) the likelihood of the proceeding succeeding;
- (b) the costs of the proceeding in relation to the relief likely to be obtained;
- (c) any action already taken by the society to obtain relief;
- (d) the interests of the society in the proceeding being commenced, continued, defended, or discontinued.

146 Other matters relating to leave application

- (1) Notice of an application under section 144 must be served on the society.
- (2) The society, in relation to the application,—
 - (a) may appear and be heard; and
 - (b) must inform the court whether or not it intends to bring, continue, defend, or discontinue a proceeding under this subpart.

147 Powers of court where leave granted

- (1) The court may make any order it thinks fit in relation to an application under section 144 made by a member or an officer or in a proceeding in which a member or an officer intervenes with leave of the court under that section.
- (2) The orders may include (without limitation) an order—
 - (a) authorising the member, officer, or any other person to control the conduct of the proceeding;
 - (b) giving directions for the conduct of the proceeding;
 - (c) requiring the society, the officers, or a member to provide information or assistance in relation to the proceeding.

148 Costs of action by member, officer, or Registrar to be met by society

- (1) The court must, on the application of a person to whom leave was granted under section 144 or of the Registrar, order that the society must meet the whole or a part of the reasonable costs of bringing or intervening in a proceeding under this subpart.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the court considers that it would be unjust or inequitable for the society to bear those costs.

149 Registrar may bring proceeding to recover financial gain

The Registrar may bring a proceeding under this subpart in the name and on behalf of the society if the Registrar considers that it is in the public interest to do so (see section 150).

Subpart 5—Miscellaneous provisions relating to applications

150 Limit on Registrar’s power to apply

- (1) Despite anything else in this Part, the Registrar may make an application under any of subparts 1, 2, 4, and 7 only if the Registrar considers that it is in the public interest to do so.
- (2) The Registrar must, when considering whether making an application is in the public interest, have regard to—
 - (a) the principles that—
 - (i) societies are organisations with members who have the primary responsibility for holding the society to account; and
 - (ii) societies are private bodies that should be self-governing in accordance with their constitutions, any bylaws, and their own tikanga, kawa, culture, and practice, and should be free from inappropriate government interference; and
 - (b) the likely effect of the application and the associated proceeding on the future conduct and governance of societies in general; and
 - (c) whether making the application is an efficient and effective use of the Registrar’s resources; and
 - (d) the extent to which the application and the associated proceeding involve matters of general significance or importance in terms of promoting high-quality governance of societies; and
 - (e) the likelihood of the society, a member, a former member, or an officer making an application (if an application has not yet been made) and diligently continuing the associated proceeding; and
 - (f) the size and nature of the society, including whether the society receives or has received any public funding or there is otherwise a significant public interest in the governance of the society; and
 - (g) any other matters that the Registrar considers relevant.
- (3) In subsection (2)(f), public funding includes any grant, donation, or gift from a public entity or from members of the public.
- (4) In subsection (3), public entity has the same meaning as in section 5 of the Public Audit Act 2001.

151 Court may refuse to consider application

A court may refuse to make an order on an application under subparts 1 to 4 or may make an order for costs against a party, whether successful or not, if it is of the opinion that—

- (a) the issue raised in the application is trivial; or
- (b) the applicant is not an appropriate person to bring the application; or

- (c) it was unreasonable to make the application having regard to 1 or more of the following:
 - (i) the importance of the issue:
 - (ii) the nature of the society:
 - (iii) the availability of any other method of resolving the issue:
 - (iv) the costs involved:
 - (v) the lapse of time:
 - (vi) acquiescence:
 - (vii) any other relevant circumstance; or
- (d) the conduct of any party has unreasonably prolonged a dispute or increased the costs of the proceeding; or
- (e) the application is frivolous or vexatious or otherwise not in the public interest.

152 Applications by former members

A former member of a society may make an application under subpart 1 or 3 only if the person was a member of the society at any time in the 6-month period before the application is made.

153 Undertaking about damages not required by Registrar

- (1) If the Registrar makes an application under subpart 1, 2, or 4, the court must not, as a condition of making an order on the application, require the Registrar to give an undertaking about damages.
- (2) In determining the Registrar's application, the court must not take into account that the Registrar is not required to give an undertaking about damages.

Subpart 6—Offences

154 False statements

- (1) A person commits an offence if, with respect to a document required by or for the purposes of this Act, they—
 - (a) make, or authorise the making of, a statement in it that is false or misleading in a material particular knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (b) omit, or authorise the omission from it of, any matter knowing that the omission makes the document false or misleading in a material particular.
- (2) An officer or employee of a society commits an offence if they—

- (a) make or provide, or authorise or permit the making or providing of, a statement or report that relates to the operations or affairs of the society, and that is false or misleading in a material particular, to—
 - (i) an officer, an employee, an auditor, or a member of the society; or
 - (ii) a liquidator, liquidation committee, or receiver or manager of property of the society; and
 - (b) know it to be false or misleading in a material particular.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a person who voted in favour of the making of a statement at a meeting must be treated as having authorised the making of the statement.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, a fine not exceeding $50,000, or both.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 377

155 Fraudulent use or destruction of property

- (1) An officer, a member, or an employee of a society commits an offence if they—
- (a) fraudulently take or apply property of the society for—
 - (i) their own use or benefit; or
 - (ii) a use or purpose other than the use or purpose of the society; or
 - (iii) the use or benefit of a person other than the society; or
 - (b) fraudulently conceal or destroy property of the society.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, a fine not exceeding $200,000, or both.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 378

156 Falsification of register, records, or documents

- (1) An officer, a member, or an employee of a society commits an offence if, with intent to defraud or deceive a person, they—
- (a) destroy, part with, mutilate, alter, or falsify any register, record, or document required by this Act or the society's constitution; or
 - (b) make a false entry in any register, record, or document required by this Act or the society's constitution.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, a fine not exceeding $200,000, or both.

157 Operating fraudulently or dishonestly incurring debt

- (1) A person commits an offence if they are knowingly a party to a society operating—
 - (a) with intent to defraud creditors of the society or any other person; or
 - (b) for a fraudulent purpose.
- (2) An officer of a society commits an offence if,—
 - (a) by false pretences or other fraud, they induce a person to give credit to the society; or
 - (b) with intent to defraud creditors of the society, they—
 - (i) give, transfer, or cause a charge to be given on property of the society to any person; or
 - (ii) cause property to be given or transferred to any person; or
 - (iii) cause or are a party to execution being levied against property of the society; or
 - (iv) do any thing that causes material loss to any creditor.
- (3) An officer of a society commits an offence if—
 - (a) the society incurs a debt (the debt); and
 - (b) the society—
 - (i) is insolvent at the time that it incurs the debt; or
 - (ii) becomes insolvent by incurring the debt; or
 - (iii) is insolvent at the time that it incurs debts that include the debt; or
 - (iv) becomes insolvent by incurring debts that include the debt; and
 - (c) the officer knows, at the time when the society incurs the debt, that the society is insolvent or will become insolvent as a result of incurring the debt or other debts that include the debt; and
 - (d) the officer’s failure to prevent the society from incurring the debt is dishonest.
- (4) In subsection (3), insolvent means that the society is unable to pay its debts.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, a fine not exceeding $200,000, or both.

158 Improper use of “Incorporated”, “Inc”, or “Manatōpū”

- (1) Any person who, not being an incorporated body, whether alone or with other persons, dishonestly operates under any name or title of which the word “Incorporated”, the word “Inc”, or the word “Manatōpū”, or any contraction or imitation of any of those words, is the last word commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000.

- (2) In subsection (1), incorporated body means either of the following:
- (a) a society incorporated under this Act;
 - (b) an entity incorporated under any other Act or overseas law.

159 Banning order contravention

A person who knowingly acts in contravention of an order made under subpart 7 commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, a fine not exceeding $50,000, or both.

Infringement offences

160 Infringement offences

- (1) A society that fails to comply with any of the provisions listed in subsection (2) commits an infringement offence and is liable to—
- (a) an infringement fee of an amount prescribed by the regulations; or
 - (b) a fine imposed by a court not exceeding $3,000.
- (2) The provisions are—
- (a) section 33 (duty to notify the Registrar of amendments to the constitution):
 - (b) section 52 (duty to notify Registrar of elections or appointments and other changes relating to officers):
 - (c) section 79 (duty to maintain a register of members):
 - (d) section 84(1) (duty to call annual general meeting):
 - (e) section 84(3) (duty to hold, and keep minutes of, annual general meetings):
 - (f) section 92 (duty to send copy of passed resolution in lieu of meeting to certain members):
 - (g) section 102(3) (duty to register financial statements):
 - (h) section 109(1) (duty to register an annual return):
 - (i) section 110 (duty to have registered office):
 - (j) section 116 (duty to give Registrar notice of change of contact person).

161 Proceedings for infringement offences

- (1) A society that is alleged to have committed an infringement offence may—
- (a) be proceeded against by the filing of a charging document under section 14 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2011; or
 - (b) be issued with an infringement notice as provided in section 162.

- (2) Proceedings commenced in the way described in subsection (1)(a) do not require leave of a District Court Judge or Registrar under section 21(1)(a) of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957.
- (3) See section 21 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 for the procedure that applies if an infringement notice is issued.

162 When infringement notice may be issued

The Registrar may issue an infringement notice to a society if the Registrar believes on reasonable grounds that the society is committing, or has committed, an infringement offence.

163 Infringement notice may be revoked

- (1) The Registrar may revoke an infringement notice before the infringement fee is paid, or an order for payment of a fine is made or deemed to be made by a court under section 21 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957.
- (2) An infringement notice is revoked by giving written notice to the society to which it was issued that the notice is revoked.
- (3) The revocation of an infringement notice before the infringement fee is paid is not a bar to any further action as described in section 161(1)(a) or (b) against the person to whom the notice was issued in respect of the same matter.

164 What infringement notice must contain

An infringement notice must be in the form prescribed by the regulations and must contain—

- (a) details of the alleged infringement offence that fairly inform the society of the time, place, and nature of the alleged offence; and
- (b) the amount of the infringement fee; and
- (c) an address for the Registrar; and
- (d) how the infringement fee may be paid; and
- (e) the time within which the infringement fee must be paid; and
- (f) a summary of the provisions of section 21(10) of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957; and
- (g) a statement that the society served with the notice has a right to request a hearing; and
- (h) a statement of what will happen if the society served with the notice does not pay the fee and does not request a hearing; and
- (i) any other matters prescribed by the regulations.

165 How infringement notice may be served

- (1) An infringement notice may be served on the society that the Registrar believes is committing or has committed the infringement offence by—

- (a) delivering it to an officer or employee of the society at the society's head office, principal place of business or work, or registered office, or by bringing it to the officer's notice or the employee's notice if that person refuses to accept it; or
 - (b) sending it to the society by prepaid post addressed to the society's last known place of business or work; or
 - (c) sending it to an electronic address of the society in any case where the society does not have a known place of business or work in New Zealand.
- (2) An infringement notice (or a copy of it) sent in accordance with subsection (1)(b) or (c) must be sent for the attention of an officer or employee of the society.
- (3) An infringement notice (or a copy of it) served in accordance with this section is to be treated as having been served on the society concerned.
- (4) Unless the contrary is shown,—
- (a) an infringement notice (or a copy of it) sent by prepaid post to a society under subsection (1)(b) is to be treated as having been served on that society on the fifth working day after the date on which it was posted; and
 - (b) an infringement notice sent to a valid electronic address of a society under subsection (1)(c) is to be treated as having been served at the time the electronic communication first enters an information system that is outside the control of the Registrar.

166 Payment of infringement fee

The Registrar must pay all infringement fees received into a Crown Bank Account.

167 Reminder notices

A reminder notice must be in the form prescribed in regulations, and must include the same particulars, or substantially the same particulars, as the infringement notice.

Subpart 7—Banning order

168 Court may disqualify officers

- (1) A court may make a banning order against a person (A) if—
- (a) A has been convicted of an offence under subpart 6, or has been convicted of a crime involving dishonesty as defined in section 2(1) of the Crimes Act 1961; or
 - (b) A has, while an officer of a society and whether convicted or not,—

- (i) persistently failed to comply with this Act or, if the society has failed to so comply, persistently failed to take reasonable steps to obtain compliance with this Act; or
 - (ii) been guilty of fraud in relation to the society or of a breach of duty to the society; or
 - (iii) acted in a reckless or an incompetent manner in the performance of A's duties as an officer; or
 - (c) A has become a mentally impaired person who, in the opinion of the court, permanently lacks wholly or partly the competence to manage their own affairs.
- (2) A banning order may, permanently or for a period specified in the order, prohibit or restrict A, without the leave of the court, from doing either or both of the following:
- (a) being an officer of a society:
 - (b) being concerned or taking part in the management of a society in any way (whether directly or indirectly).

169 When order may be permanent or for period longer than 10 years

The court may make an order under section 168 permanent or for a period longer than 10 years only in the most serious of cases for which an order may be made.

170 Notice of banning order

- (1) The Registrar of the court must, as soon as practicable after a banning order is made, give notice that the order has been made to—
- (a) the Registrar of Incorporated Societies; and
 - (b) the chief executive (within the meaning of section 4(1) of the Charities Act 2005).
- (2) The Registrar of Incorporated Societies must, after receiving a notice under this section, give notice in the Gazette of the name of the person against whom the order is made.

171 Applications for orders

- (1) A person intending to apply for an order under this subpart must give not less than 10 working days' notice of that intention to the person (A) against whom the order is sought, and on the hearing of the application A may appear and give evidence or call witnesses.
- (2) An application for an order under this subpart may be made by—
- (a) the Registrar, the Official Assignee, or the liquidator of the society; or
 - (b) a person who is, or has been, a member or creditor of the society.

172 Right to appear and give evidence

- (1) This section applies on the hearing of—
 - (a) an application for an order under this subpart by the Registrar, the Official Assignee, or the liquidator; or
 - (b) an application for leave under section 168(2) by a person against whom an order has been made on the application of the Registrar, the Official Assignee, or the liquidator.
- (2) The Registrar, the Official Assignee, or the liquidator (as the case may be)—
 - (a) must appear and call the attention of the court to any matters that seem to them to be relevant; and
 - (b) may give evidence or call witnesses.

173 Liability for contravening banning order

- (1) A person who acts in contravention of an order made under this subpart is personally liable to—
 - (a) a liquidator of the society for every unpaid debt incurred by the society while that person was so acting; and
 - (b) a creditor of the society for a debt to that creditor incurred by the society while that person was so acting.
- (2) See also section 159 (offence for contravening a banning order).

Part 5Removal from register, amalgamation, liquidation, and other processes*Subpart 1—Removal from register*174 Removal from register

- (1) A society is removed from the register when the Registrar, acting under section 175, registers a notice issued by the Registrar stating that the society is removed from the register.
- (2) See section 16(2), which has the effect that a society is no longer in existence if it is removed from the register.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 317

175 Grounds for removal from register

- (1) The Registrar may remove a society from the register if—
 - (a) a request that the society be removed on either of the grounds specified in section 176 is sent or delivered to the Registrar by—

- (i) a member authorised to make the request by a resolution of members passed under subpart 6; or
- (ii) the committee or any person, if the society's constitution so requires or permits; or
- (b) the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that—
 - (i) the society is no longer operating; and
 - (ii) there is no proper reason for the society to continue to exist; or
- (c) the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that—
 - (i) the society's constitution does not comply with this Act; and
 - (ii) the failure to comply is material; or
- (d) the Registrar has given the society written notice under section 75 requiring the society to increase its membership to ensure that it has at least 10 members and the society has not complied as referred to in section 75(2); or
- (e) the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that the society, or 1 or more of its officers, has failed in a persistent or serious way to comply with duties relating to the society under this Act; or
- (f) the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that the society has failed to comply with—
 - (i) any of sections 102, 104, 105, and 109 (which relate to financial reporting and annual returns); or
 - (ii) a term or condition imposed under regulations made under section 254(1)(w) (which relates to the conversion of entities into incorporated societies); or
- (g) the Registrar has reasonable grounds to believe that the society or any other person has failed to comply with a term or condition imposed by the Registrar under clause 7(3) of Schedule 1 (which relates to the transitional reregistration of societies); or
- (h) the society has been put into liquidation, and—
 - (i) no liquidator is acting; or
 - (ii) the documents referred to in section 257(1)(a) of the Companies Act 1993 (as applied by subpart 4) have not been sent or delivered to the Registrar within 6 months after the liquidation of the society is completed; or
- (i) a liquidator sends or delivers to the Registrar the documents referred to in section 257(1)(a) of the Companies Act 1993 (as applied by subpart 4).

- (2) The Registrar may also remove a society from the register if the society is an amalgamating society, other than an amalgamated society, on the date set out in the certificate of amalgamation under section 198.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 318(1)

176 When society may request removal

- (1) A request under section 175(1)(a) may be made on the grounds—
- (a) that the society has ceased to operate, has discharged in full its debts and liabilities to all its known creditors, and has distributed its surplus assets in accordance with its constitution and this Act; or
 - (b) that the society has no surplus assets after paying its debts and liabilities in full or in part, and no creditor has applied to the court under subpart 4 for an order putting the society into liquidation.
- (2) A request must be made in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any).

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 318(2)

Procedural requirements before removal

177 Notice of intention to remove from register

- (1) The Registrar may remove a society from the register under section 175(1) only if—
- (a) the Registrar gives notice of the intention to remove the society from the register to the public and all other persons prescribed by the regulations (if any); and
 - (b) the Registrar—
 - (i) is satisfied that no person has objected to the removal under section 178; or
 - (ii) if an objection to the removal has been received, has complied with section 179 or 180.
- (2) The notice must—
- (a) specify the date by which an objection to the removal must be delivered to the Registrar, which must be no less than the number of working days after the date of the notice that is prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) be given in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 318(5)

178 Objection to removal from register

- (1) If a notice is given under section 177, any person may deliver to the Registrar, not later than the date specified in the notice, an objection to the removal on any 1 or more of the following grounds:
- (a) that the grounds for removal relied on by the Registrar do not exist; or

- (b) that the society is still operating or there is a proper reason for it to continue in existence; or
 - (c) that the society is a party to a legal proceeding; or
 - (d) that the society is in receivership, or liquidation, or both; or
 - (e) that the person is a creditor or another person who has an undischarged claim against the society; or
 - (f) that the person believes that there exists, and intends to pursue, a right of action on behalf of the society under Part 4; or
 - (g) that, for any other reason, it would not be just and equitable to remove the society from the register.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(e) and section 188(1)(a)(iv), section 321(2) of the Companies Act 1993 applies with all necessary modifications as if the society were a company.
- (3) An objection must, if required by the Registrar, be verified by the production of original documents or certified copies of original documents or by statutory declaration.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 321

179 Objections under section 178(1)(a) to (d)

If an objection is made under section 178(1)(a) to (d), the Registrar must not proceed with the removal unless the Registrar is satisfied that—

- (a) the objection has been withdrawn; or
- (b) any facts on which the objection is based are not, or are no longer, correct; or
- (c) despite the objection, the relevant ground for removal applies; or
- (d) the objection is frivolous or vexatious.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 322(1)

180 Objections under section 178(1)(e) to (g)

- (1) If an objection is made under section 178(1)(e) to (g), the Registrar may give notice to the person objecting that, unless notice of a specified application is served on the Registrar not later than 20 working days after the date of the Registrar's notice, the Registrar intends to proceed with the removal.
- (2) In this section, a specified application is an application to a court under section 182 or 212.
- (3) The Registrar may proceed with a removal if—
- (a) notice of a specified application is not served on the Registrar; or
 - (b) the specified application is withdrawn; or

- (c) on the hearing of the specified application, the court refuses to grant either an order putting the society into liquidation or an order that the society not be removed from the register.
- (4) A person who makes a specified application must give the Registrar notice in writing of the decision of the court within 5 working days after the decision is given.
- (5) If a specified application is withdrawn, the person who made the specified application must, within 5 working days, give the Registrar notice in writing of the withdrawal.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 322(2)–(4)

181 Registrar must send information to person who requests removal

The Registrar must send the following to a person who sends or delivers a request under section 175(1)(a) or a liquidator referred to in section 175(1)(i):

- (a) a copy of an objection under section 178:
- (b) a copy of a notice given by or served on the Registrar under section 180:
- (c) if the society is removed from the register, notice of the removal.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 322(5)

182 Court may order that society not be removed

- (1) A person who gives a notice objecting to a removal on a ground specified in section 178(1)(e) to (g) may apply to a court for an order that the society not be removed from the register.
- (2) The court may, if it is satisfied that the society should not be removed from the register on any of the grounds in section 178(1), make an order that the society is not to be removed from the register.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 323

183 Liability of officers, members, and others to continue

- (1) The removal of a society from the register does not affect the liability of any former officer or member of the society or any other person in respect of any act or omission that took place before the society was removed from the register.
- (2) The liability continues and may be enforced as if the society had not been removed from the register.
- (3) See, however, the Limitation Act 2010, which provides defences to certain claims that are filed after an applicable period of time (for example, 6 years after the date of the act or omission on which the claim is based).

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 326

*Restoration to register184 Restoration to register

- (1) A society is restored to the register when the Registrar, acting under section 185 or an order made under section 188, registers a notice issued by the Registrar stating that the society is restored to the register.
- (2) A society that is restored to the register must be treated as having continued in existence as if it had not been removed from the register.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 330

185 Registrar may restore society to register

- (1) The Registrar must, on an application made in the manner prescribed by the regulations, and may, on the Registrar's own motion, restore a society to the register if the Registrar is satisfied that, at the time the society was removed from the register,—
 - (a) the grounds for the removal did not exist; or
 - (b) the society was a party to a legal proceeding; or
 - (c) the society was in receivership or liquidation, or both.
- (2) The Registrar may, on the application made in the manner prescribed by the regulations, or on the Registrar's own motion, restore a society to the register if the Registrar is satisfied that the society was operating at the time of its removal and there is a proper reason for the society to continue to exist.
- (3) This section does not limit section 188.

186 Notice of proposed restoration

- (1) The Registrar must give notice of an intention to restore a society to the register before the Registrar restores the society to the register under section 185.
- (2) The notice must be given to the public and all other persons prescribed by the regulations (if any) in the manner prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The notice must specify the date by which an objection to the restoration may be sent or delivered to the Registrar, which must be no less than the number of working days after the date of the notice that is prescribed by the regulations.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 328(3)

187 Registrar must not restore society if objection received

- (1) The Registrar must not restore a society to the register under section 185 if the Registrar receives an objection to the restoration within the period stated in the notice.
- (2) However, the Registrar may restore a society to the register if the Registrar is satisfied that—

- (a) the objection has been withdrawn; or
- (b) any facts on which the objection is based are not, or are no longer, correct; or
- (c) the objection is frivolous or vexatious.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 328(4)

188 Court may order restoration of society

- (1) A court may, on the application of a person referred to in subsection (2), order that a society be restored to the register if it is satisfied that,—
 - (a) at the time the society was removed from the register,—
 - (i) the society was still operating or another reason existed for the society to continue in existence; or
 - (ii) the society was a party to a legal proceeding; or
 - (iii) the society was in receivership or liquidation, or both; or
 - (iv) the applicant was a creditor or another person who had an undischarged claim against the society; or
 - (v) the applicant believed that there existed, and intended to pursue, a right of action on behalf of the society under Part 4; or
 - (b) for any other reason it is just and equitable to restore the society to the register.
- (2) The following persons may apply:
 - (a) any person who is prescribed by the regulations:
 - (b) the Registrar:
 - (c) with the leave of the court, any other person.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 329

189 Registrar or court may require provisions of this Act or regulations to be complied with

The Registrar or a court may require any of the provisions of this Act or any regulations to be complied with (being provisions with which a society had failed to comply before it was removed from the register) before restoring the society to the register under section 185 or ordering its restoration to the register under section 188.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 328(5)

190 Other court orders

- (1) This section applies if a society is restored to the register under section 185 or its restoration to the register is ordered under section 188.
- (2) A court may, on the application of the Registrar or the applicant for restoration or on its own motion, give any directions or make any orders that may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of placing the society and any other persons as nearly as possible in the same position as if the society had not been removed from the register.

- (3) However, a direction or an order may not require the return to the society of any surplus assets that have been properly disposed of under subpart 5.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 328(6)

Subpart 2—Amalgamations

191 Amalgamations

- (1) Two or more societies may amalgamate as 1 society under this subpart.
- (2) The amalgamated society may continue as—
- (a) one of the amalgamating societies; or
 - (b) a new society.

192 Amalgamation proposal

In this subpart, an amalgamation proposal is a document that—

- (a) sets out the terms of the amalgamation; and
- (b) sets out the proposed constitution of the amalgamated society; and
- (c) sets out all other information prescribed by the regulations (if any).

193 Information relating to proposal for members, creditors, and public

The committee of each amalgamating society must, not less than 20 working days before the amalgamation is proposed to take effect,—

- (a) send to each member of that society a copy of the amalgamation proposal and all other information prescribed by the regulations (if any); and
- (b) send to every secured creditor of the society a copy of the amalgamation proposal and all other information prescribed by the regulations (if any); and
- (c) give public notice of the proposed amalgamation in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

194 Approval of amalgamation proposal

- (1) The committee of each amalgamating society must resolve that,—
- (a) in its opinion, the amalgamation is in the best interests of the amalgamating society; and
 - (b) the committee is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the amalgamated society will, on amalgamation, satisfy the solvency test under section 195.
- (2) The amalgamation proposal must be approved by each amalgamating society—

- (a) by a resolution that is approved by a simple majority or, if a higher majority is required by the constitution, that higher majority, of the votes of those members entitled to vote and voting on the question; and
- (b) in accordance with its constitution.

195 Solvency test for amalgamations

- (1) For the purposes of section 194, a society satisfies the solvency test if—
 - (a) the society is able to pay its debts as they become due in the normal course of its operations; and
 - (b) the value of the society's assets is greater than the value of its liabilities, including contingent liabilities.
- (2) Section 4(3) and (4) of the Companies Act 1993 applies with all necessary modifications as if references to a company were references to a society and references to directors were references to officers.

196 Officers must sign certificate

- (1) Every officer of an amalgamating society who votes in favour of a resolution under section 194(1) must sign a certificate stating—
 - (a) that, in the officer's opinion, the conditions set out in that subsection are satisfied; and
 - (b) the grounds for that opinion.
- (2) An officer who fails to comply with this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

197 Registration of amalgamation

The following must be sent to the Registrar for an amalgamation of 2 or more societies:

- (a) the approved amalgamation proposal; and
- (b) all certificates required under section 196; and
- (c) all other information prescribed by the regulations (if any); and
- (d) the fee prescribed by the regulations.

198 Certificate of amalgamation and changes to register

- (1) The Registrar must, on receiving the information under section 197,—
 - (a) issue a certificate of amalgamation; and
 - (b) if the amalgamated society is one of the amalgamating societies, make any necessary changes to that society's registration (for example, registering its new constitution); and
 - (c) if the amalgamated society is a new society, act under section 15(1)(a) to (c).

- (2) If an amalgamation proposal specifies a date on which the amalgamation is intended to become effective, and that date is the same as, or later than, the date on which the Registrar receives the information, the certificate of amalgamation and any certificate of incorporation must be expressed to take effect on the date specified in the amalgamation proposal.

199 Amalgamation must not proceed if Registrar considers that name does not comply

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the amalgamated society is to continue under a name that is different from the name of one of the amalgamating societies; and
 - (b) the Registrar considers that any of paragraphs (a) to (f) of section 11(1) apply to the proposed name of the amalgamated society.
- (2) The Registrar must refuse to act under section 198 until the proposed name of the amalgamated society is amended to address (to the Registrar’s satisfaction) the matter.

200 Amalgamation must not proceed if Registrar considers that purposes do not comply with Act

- (1) This section applies if the Registrar considers that the proposed purposes of an amalgamated society include—
- (a) an unlawful purpose; or
 - (b) a purpose of carrying on the society for the financial gain of any of its members (see subpart 2 of Part 3).
- (2) The Registrar must refuse to act under section 198 until the purposes are amended to address (to the Registrar’s satisfaction) the matter.

201 Amalgamation must not proceed if Registrar considers that constitution does not comply with Act

- (1) This section applies if the Registrar considers that the proposed constitution of an amalgamated society does not comply with the requirements of this Act (see subpart 3 of Part 3).
- (2) The Registrar must refuse to act under section 198 until the constitution is amended to address (to the Registrar’s satisfaction) the matter referred to in subsection (1).

202 Registrar has discretion about nature and extent of consideration of amalgamation proposal

The nature and extent of the consideration that the Registrar gives to an amalgamation proposal is at the Registrar’s discretion.

203 Effect of certificate of amalgamation

On and from the date shown in a certificate of amalgamation,—

- (a) the amalgamation is effective; and
- (b) if it is the same as a name of one of the amalgamating societies, the amalgamated society has the name specified in the amalgamation proposal; and
- (c) the Registrar must remove the amalgamating societies, other than the amalgamated society, from the register; and
- (d) the amalgamated society succeeds to all the property, rights, powers, and privileges of each of the amalgamating societies; and
- (e) the amalgamated society succeeds to all the liabilities and obligations of each of the amalgamating societies; and
- (f) proceedings pending by, or against, an amalgamating society may be continued by, or against, the amalgamated society; and
- (g) a conviction, ruling, order, or judgment in favour of, or against, an amalgamating society may be enforced by, or against, the amalgamated society.

204 Other registers

- (1) Neither the Registrar-General of Land, nor any other person charged with keeping any books or registers, is obliged to change the name of an amalgamating society to that of an amalgamated society in those books or registers or in any documents solely because an amalgamation has been effected under this subpart.
- (2) The presentation of a specified instrument to a registrar or any other person is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, sufficient evidence that the property to which the instrument relates has become the property of the amalgamated society.
- (3) A specified instrument is an instrument that—
 - (a) is executed or purports to be executed by the amalgamated society; and
 - (b) relates to any property held immediately before the amalgamation by an amalgamating society; and
 - (c) states that the property has become the property of the amalgamated society under this subpart.
- (4) This subpart does not limit the Land Transfer Act 2017 except as provided in this section.

205 Amalgamated society may present certificate about property of society

- (1) This section applies if—

- (a) any financial products issued by a person (A) or any rights or interests in property of a person (A) become, under this subpart, the property of an amalgamated society; and
 - (b) a certificate signed on behalf of the committee of the amalgamated society is presented to A, stating that those products, rights, or interests have, under this subpart, become the property of the amalgamated society.
- (2) Despite any other legislation or rule of law, A, on presentation of the certificate, must register the amalgamated society as the holder of the financial products or as the person entitled to the rights or interests.
- (3) This section does not limit section 204.
- (4) In this section, financial products has the same meaning as in section 7 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013.

206 Powers of court in other cases

- (1) This section applies if a creditor of an amalgamating society, or any other person to whom an amalgamating society is under an obligation, believes that the creditor or other person would be unfairly prejudiced by a proposed amalgamation.
- (2) The creditor or other person may, before the date on which the amalgamation becomes effective, apply to the court for an order under this section.
- (3) The court may, if it is satisfied that the creditor or other person would be unfairly prejudiced by the proposed amalgamation, make any order that the court thinks fit in relation to the proposal, including—
 - (a) directing that effect must not be given to the proposal;
 - (b) modifying the proposal in any manner specified in the order;
 - (c) directing the amalgamating society or its committee to reconsider the proposal or any part of it.
- (4) An order may be made on the conditions that the court thinks fit.

Subpart 3—Compromises with creditors

207 Compromises with creditors

- (1) Part 14 and Schedule 5 of the Companies Act 1993 apply to a society with all necessary modifications as if it were a company.
- (2) For the purposes of this subpart, a reference in Part 14 or Schedule 5 of the Companies Act 1993 to—
 - (a) a creditor must be treated as including a reference to—
 - (i) a person who, in a liquidation, would be entitled to claim that the society owes a debt to them; and
 - (ii) a secured creditor:

- (b) the board of directors of the company must be treated as a reference to the committee of the society;
- (c) a shareholder of the company must be treated as a reference to a member of the society;
- (d) a reference to the Registrar must be treated as a reference to the Registrar as defined in section 5.

Subpart 4—Liquidation

Members may resolve to put society into liquidation

208 Members may resolve to put society into liquidation

A society may be put into liquidation if the society passes a resolution appointing a liquidator under subpart 6.

209 Application of Companies Act 1993 where members resolve to put society into liquidation

- (1) Part 16 of the Companies Act 1993 applies to the liquidation of the society under section 208, with all necessary modifications, as if the society were a company that had been put into liquidation under section 241(2)(a) of that Act.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a reference in Part 16 of the Companies Act 1993 to—
 - (a) the board of directors of the company must be treated as a reference to the committee of the society;
 - (b) a shareholder of the company must be treated as a reference to a member of the society;
 - (c) the Registrar must be treated as a reference to the Registrar as defined in section 5.
- (3) This section is subject to the rest of this Act (see, in particular, subpart 5) and to the regulations.

High Court may put society into liquidation

210 High Court may put society into liquidation

The High Court may put a society into liquidation by the appointment as liquidator of a named person or of an Official Assignee if any of the following circumstances exist:

- (a) the members of the society are reduced in number to fewer than 10; or
- (b) the society suspends its operations for 1 year or more; or
- (c) the society is unable to pay its debts; or
- (d) the society's constitution does not comply with the requirements of this Act; or

- (e) the society carries on any operations under which a member derives a financial gain contrary to the provisions of this Act; or
- (f) incorporation has been obtained for the society by fraud or mistake; or
- (g) the society exists for an illegal purpose; or
- (h) there has been, in relation to the society, failure to comply with any provision of, or any order given under, this Act; or
- (i) the High Court is satisfied that it is just and equitable that the society should be put into liquidation.

211 Limit on liquidation where society has fewer than 10 members

- (1) A society may be put into liquidation in the circumstance specified in section 210(a) only if—
 - (a) the application for the appointment of a liquidator of the society is made by the Registrar; and
 - (b) the Registrar has complied with section 75 (which requires the Registrar to give a society 6 months' notice to increase its membership).
- (2) Nothing in this section or section 75 prevents a society from being put into liquidation under section 210(b) to (i).

212 Application to court to appoint liquidator

- (1) An application to the High Court for the appointment of a liquidator of a society must be made by—
 - (a) the society; or
 - (b) a member; or
 - (c) a creditor; or
 - (d) the Registrar.
- (2) All costs incurred by the Registrar in making an application must be a first charge on the assets of the society (unless the court orders otherwise).

213 Application of Companies Act 1993 where High Court puts society into liquidation

- (1) Part 16 of the Companies Act 1993 applies, with all necessary modifications,—
 - (a) to an application under section 212 as if the application were an application under section 241(2)(c) of that Act; and
 - (b) to the liquidation as if the liquidator had been appointed under section 241(2)(c) of that Act.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a reference in Part 16 of the Companies Act 1993 to—
 - (a) the board of directors of the company must be treated as a reference to the committee of the society;

- (b) a shareholder of the company must be treated as a reference to a member of the society;
 - (c) the Registrar must be treated as a reference to the Registrar as defined in section 5.
- (3) This section is subject to the rest of this Act (see, in particular, subpart 5) and to the regulations.

Subpart 5—Other matters relating to removal or liquidation of society

214 Application of subpart

- (1) This subpart applies if a society—
- (a) has been removed from the register under subpart 1; or
 - (b) is in liquidation.
- (2) This subpart also applies for the purposes of section 176(1)(a) (to enable a society to request to be removed from the register).

215 Who may act under subpart

- (1) The following persons may act under this subpart:
- (a) a person authorised in a direction given by the Registrar in the case of section 214(1)(a);
 - (b) the liquidator in the case of section 214(1)(b);
 - (c) the society in the case of section 214(2).
- (2) In this subpart, relevant person means the authorised person, the liquidator, or the society, as the case may be.

216 Rules for disposal of surplus assets

- (1) The relevant person must take reasonable steps to ensure that the surplus assets of the society after the payment of all costs, debts, and liabilities are disposed of to 1 or more not-for-profit entities in accordance with the following rules:
- (a) the assets must be distributed to the entity nominated in the society's constitution under section 26(1)(l) unless more than 1 not-for-profit entity has been nominated by name, class, or description (subject to section 218):
 - (b) if more than 1 not-for-profit entity has been nominated by name, class, or description in the society's constitution under section 26(1)(l), the assets must be distributed to those not-for-profit entities in the following manner (subject to section 218):
 - (i) in the manner provided by the society's constitution (unless that manner does not result in reasonable certainty about the allocation to each entity); or

- (ii) in the manner specified in a resolution approved under subpart 6 (if the society's constitution does not result in reasonable certainty about the allocation to each entity):
 - (c) if a resolution has been approved under subpart 6 for the purposes of this paragraph, the assets must be distributed to 1 or more not-for-profit entities in the manner specified in that resolution:
 - (d) the assets must be distributed as the Registrar directs (after the Registrar has had regard to the matters provided for in the society's constitution under section 26(1)(l)) if the Registrar is satisfied that—
 - (i) subsection (2) applies; and
 - (ii) an effective resolution has not been approved under subpart 6 for the purposes of paragraph (c).
- (2) This subsection applies if the Registrar is satisfied that—
 - (a) the assets cannot reasonably be disposed of under subsection (1)(a) or (b); or
 - (b) the society or a person of a class prescribed by the regulations requests in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any) that the Registrar act under subsection (1)(d); or
 - (c) the circumstances prescribed in the regulations exist.
- (3) If 1 or more entities that were nominated in the society's constitution under section 26(1)(l) are not not-for-profit entities or for any reason are unable or unwilling to receive the surplus assets, those entities must be disregarded.

217 How resolution may be passed after society is removed

- (1) If a society has been removed from the register, the society may, with the approval of the Registrar, be treated as being still in existence for the purposes of passing a resolution under subpart 6.
- (2) That subpart applies with all necessary modifications, including—
 - (a) treating a reference to the committee of the society as a reference to the committee that held office immediately before the removal; and
 - (b) treating a reference to members as a reference to the persons who were members immediately before the removal; and
 - (c) any other modifications authorised by the Registrar.

218 When distribution under constitution does not apply

Section 216(1)(a) and (b) does not apply if—

- (a) the not-for-profit entity or entities cannot be identified with reasonable certainty or no nominated not-for-profit entities currently exist; or
- (b) an effective resolution has been approved under subpart 6 for the purposes of section 216(1)(c); or

- (c) the Registrar has decided that section 216(2) applies or has made a direction under section 216(1)(d).

219 Extent of inquiries that must be made

The relevant person is only required to make reasonable inquiries for the purpose of identifying the not-for-profit entity or entities to which the surplus assets of the society must be disposed of under section 216(1)(a) or (b).

220 Other provisions relating to person authorised by Registrar

- (1) A person (A) authorised in a direction given by the Registrar under section 215(1)(a) is immune from liability in civil proceedings for good-faith actions or omissions in the performance or exercise or intended performance or exercise of their duties, functions, or powers under this subpart.
- (2) The costs referred to in section 216 that must be paid before the surplus assets are disposed of include the fees and expenses properly incurred by A in the performance or exercise of their duties, functions, or powers under this subpart.

221 Directions to facilitate liquidation or removal of society

The Registrar may give 1 or more of the following directions:

- (a) a direction vesting all or any of the assets of the society without transfer, conveyance, or assignment in 1 or more persons who are specified in the direction (subject to all charges, encumbrances, estates, and interests affecting the assets):
- (b) if anything remains to be done to complete any matters outstanding on the liquidation or removal of the society or to provide for the payment of the costs, debts, and liabilities of the society, the directions that are necessary or desirable to provide for the completion and payment:
- (c) a direction that is otherwise necessary or desirable to facilitate the distribution of the society's surplus assets (if any):
- (d) a direction conferring on a person the powers that are necessary or desirable to enable the person to carry out the functions and duties imposed on the person by a direction given under section 215(1)(a), 216, or 224 or this section.

222 Direction to defer disposal of surplus assets

- (1) This section applies if a society has been removed from the register.
- (2) The Registrar may direct that the disposal of the surplus assets of a society, and any other action under this subpart, must be deferred if the Registrar considers that a direction is necessary or desirable for either or both of the following purposes:
 - (a) ascertaining whether any person is likely to make an application to restore the society to the register; and

- (b) giving a reasonable opportunity for a society to be restored to the register before its surplus assets are disposed of.
- (3) The Registrar may—
 - (a) specify any period of deferral that the Registrar thinks fit; and
 - (b) by a further direction, extend or end the period of deferral.
- (4) Nothing in this section requires the return to the society of any surplus assets that have already been properly disposed of under this subpart before the direction is made.

223 Disposal of surplus assets ceases if society is restored to register

- (1) If a society that has been removed from the register is restored to the register, section 216 ceases to apply.
- (2) Nothing in this section requires the return to the society of any surplus assets that have already been properly disposed of under this subpart before the society is restored to the register (see also section 190(3)).

224 Distribution after lapse of time

- (1) This section applies if,—
 - (a) after assets of a society have been disposed of under section 216, further assets of the society come to the attention of the Registrar; and
 - (b) the Registrar considers, after taking into account the length of time since the society was liquidated or removed from the register, that it is necessary or desirable to dispose of the further assets under this section.
- (2) The assets must be disposed of to 1 or more not-for-profit entities in accordance with a direction given by the Registrar.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Registrar must have regard to the matters provided for in the society's constitution under section 26(1)(1).

Example

An incorporated society (A) is removed from the register. The assets that are known about at the time are distributed, in accordance with a resolution, under section 216(1)(c).

However, it is discovered 10 years later that another piece of land is still in A's name.

Given the lapse of time since A was removed from the register, the Registrar considers that it is impracticable to dispose of the land under section 216. Therefore, the Registrar decides to dispose of the land by a direction under this section.

225 Direction relating to land

- (1) This section applies if, by a direction under this subpart, an estate or interest in land under the Land Transfer Act 2017 is vested in a person.

- (2) The Registrar-General of Land, on receiving an application made in the manner prescribed by the regulations (if any), must alter the register of land, and generally do all of the things that may be necessary, to give full effect to the direction.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies subject to the provisions of the direction.

226 No appeal against Registrar's decision

A person may not appeal against a decision or direction of the Registrar made or given under this subpart.

Subpart 6—Procedure for certain resolutions

227 Application of subpart

This subpart applies to a resolution—

- (a) to authorise a member of a society to request the society's removal from the register under subpart 1; or
- (b) for the purposes of section 216 (being a resolution that provides for the distribution of a society's surplus assets under subpart 5); or
- (c) to appoint a liquidator of a society.

228 Notice of resolutions

- (1) The committee of the society must ensure that written notice of the resolution is sent to every member of the society at least the relevant number of days before the general meeting at which the resolution is to be submitted.
- (2) The relevant number of days is—
 - (a) 20 working days (unless paragraph (b) applies); or
 - (b) the number of working days that is specified in the society's constitution for the purposes of this section (which may be fewer or more than 20).
- (3) The notice must be sent to an address for the member and otherwise in accordance with the society's constitution.
- (4) The notice must state—
 - (a) the time and place of the meeting; and
 - (b) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to enable a member to form a reasoned judgement in relation to it; and
 - (c) the text of the resolution to be submitted to the meeting; and
 - (d) the right of a member to appoint a proxy (if allowed by the society's constitution); and
 - (e) the right of a member to cast a vote by post or electronic means (if the society's constitution allows); and

- (f) in the case of a resolution for the purpose of section 216(1)(c), a statement confirming that the committee has had regard to the purposes of the society under section 230; and
 - (g) any other information required by the society's constitution.
- (5) In this section, address, of a person (A), means—
- (a) the address (including an electronic address) specified by A for the relevant purpose; or
 - (b) the actual or last known address (including an electronic address) for A, if—
 - (i) paragraph (a) does not apply; or
 - (ii) the society knows that the address referred to in paragraph (a) is not correct.

229 Approval of resolution

- (1) The resolution is effective only if—
- (a) it is approved by a simple majority or, if a higher majority is required by the constitution, that higher majority, of the votes of those members entitled to vote and voting on the question; and
 - (b) in the case of a resolution for the purposes of section 216,—
 - (i) it results in reasonable certainty about the distribution of surplus assets to 1 or more not-for-profit entities; and
 - (ii) all procedural requirements prescribed by the regulations (if any) are satisfied; and
 - (c) all other procedural requirements of the society's constitution are satisfied (for example, a constitution may require the resolution to be confirmed at a subsequent general meeting).
- (2) An accidental omission to send a notice under section 228 to, or a failure to receive such a notice by, a member of a society does not invalidate the resolution.

230 Additional requirement for resolution providing for distribution of surplus assets

- (1) This section applies to a resolution for the purposes of section 216(1)(c).
- (2) The committee of the society must, in considering the not-for-profit entity or entities to which it is proposed that the surplus assets will be distributed in accordance with the resolution, have regard to the purposes of the society.
- (3) See also section 217 (which provides for how a resolution may be passed after the society has been removed).

Part 6
Register, regulations, amendments, and other miscellaneous provisions

Subpart 1—Register of incorporated societies

Register established

231 Register of incorporated societies

- (1) A register called the register of incorporated societies is established.
- (2) The register must be an electronic register.
- (3) The register must be operated at all times unless—
 - (a) the Registrar suspends the operation of the register, in whole or in part, under subsection (4); or
 - (b) otherwise provided in regulations.
- (4) The Registrar may refuse access to the register or otherwise suspend the operation of the register, in whole or in part, if the Registrar considers that it is not practical to provide access to the register.

Compare: 2005 No 39 s 21

232 Purpose of register

The purpose of the register is—

- (a) to enable a member of the public to—
 - (i) determine whether an entity is a society under this Act; and
 - (ii) obtain information about the nature, activities, and purposes of a society; and
 - (iii) obtain information about the officers of a society; and
 - (iv) know how to contact a society; and
- (b) to assist any person—
 - (i) in the exercise of the person's powers under this Act or any other legislation; or
 - (ii) in the performance of the person's functions under this Act or any other legislation.

233 Contents of register

- (1) The register must contain the following information for each society:
 - (a) the name of the society; and
 - (b) the registered office of the society; and
 - (c) the registration number of the society (if any); and

- (d) the New Zealand Business Number of the society; and
 - (e) the names of the officers of the society and of all persons who have been officers of the society since the society was first registered as a society under this Act; and
 - (f) a copy of the constitution of the society (and copies of any amendments to the constitution); and
 - (g) notices of change of registered office, notices of the election or appointment of officers, notices of change of name, and notices of special resolutions; and
 - (h) the financial statements and annual returns given to the Registrar by the society; and
 - (i) any other information prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) This section is subject to section 234.

234 Registrar may remove or omit information and may restrict public access

- (1) The Registrar may remove or omit from the register any information that relates to a society if the Registrar considers, in the public interest, that the information should not form part of the register.
- (2) The Registrar may, on a request from a society or an individual referred to in paragraph (b) or (c) or on the Registrar's own motion, prevent or restrict public access to any information that relates to—
- (a) the society if the Registrar considers, in the public interest, that public access to that information should be prevented or restricted; or
 - (b) an individual if the Registrar considers that public access to that information would be likely to prejudice the privacy or personal safety of any person; or
 - (c) an individual if the individual is—
 - (i) a protected person in relation to a protection order under the Family Violence Act 2018; or
 - (ii) a person for whose benefit a suppression provision or order applies under any legislation.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Registrar may prevent or restrict access subject to any terms and conditions that the Registrar thinks fit.
- (4) However, in the case of subsection (2)(c), the Registrar must ensure that those terms and conditions are consistent with the protection order or suppression provision or order.
- (5) This section does not limit the Official Information Act 1982.

Compare: 2005 No 39 s 25

235 Amendments to register

The Registrar may make any amendments to the register that are necessary—

- (a) to reflect any changes in the information that relates to a society; or
- (b) to rectify or correct the register if the Registrar is satisfied that any information—
 - (i) has been wrongly entered in, or omitted from, the register; or
 - (ii) has been incorrectly entered in the register; or
 - (iii) contains a typographical error or a mistake; or
- (c) for the purposes of section 234; or
- (d) to comply with any court order.

Compare: 2005 No 39 s 26

236 Registration of documents or other information

- (1) If this Act or the regulations require or permit a document or other information to be registered or given to the Registrar, the document or information must be given in the manner specified by the Registrar (who, for example, may specify a form to be used or require notification by electronic means, or may specify any of the matters referred to in section 254(1)(b)(i) to (iv)).
- (2) The Registrar may refuse to perform or exercise a function, power, or duty in relation to the document or information if—
 - (a) subsection (1) is not complied with; or
 - (b) the requirements of the Act or the regulations have otherwise not been complied with (for example, where a document is not given in the manner prescribed by the regulations).
- (3) Neither registration nor refusal of registration of a document or other information by the Registrar affects, or creates a presumption about, the validity or invalidity of the document or information or the correctness or otherwise of any information (unless this Act otherwise provides).

*Searches of register237 Search of register

- (1) A person may search the register under this Act or the regulations.
- (2) The register may be searched only by reference to the following criteria:
 - (a) the name of the society;
 - (b) the registration number of the society (if any);
 - (c) the New Zealand Business Number of the society;
 - (d) the name of an officer of the society;
 - (e) any other criteria prescribed by the regulations.

238 Search purposes

A search of the register may be carried out only by the following persons for the following purposes:

- (a) a person for the purpose of determining whether an entity is a society under this Act:
- (b) a person for the purpose of obtaining information about the nature, activities, officers, and purposes of a society:
- (c) a person for the purpose of knowing how to contact a society:
- (d) an individual, or a person with the consent of the individual, for the purpose of searching for information about that individual:
- (e) a person for the purpose of assisting the person in the exercise of the person's powers under this Act or any other legislation:
- (f) a person for the purpose of assisting the person in the performance of the person's functions under this Act or any other legislation.

Compare: 2005 No 39 s 28

239 When search constitutes interference with privacy of individual

A search of the register for personal information that has not been carried out in accordance with sections 237 and 238 constitutes an action that is an interference with the privacy of an individual under section 69 of the Privacy Act 2020.

Compare: 2005 No 39 s 29

*Registrar of Incorporated Societies240 Registrar of Incorporated Societies

- (1) The chief executive of the Ministry must appoint, under the Public Service Act 2020, the Registrar of Incorporated Societies.
- (2) The Registrar is an employee of the Ministry, and the appointment may be held separately or in conjunction with any other office in the Ministry.

241 Functions of Registrar

The functions of the Registrar are, in accordance with this Act and the regulations, to—

- (a) consider applications under Part 2:
- (b) maintain the register and carry out other functions relating to the register:
- (c) receive financial statements, annual returns, and other documents for registration under this Act:

- (d) perform or exercise functions, duties, and powers conferred on the Registrar relating to the liquidation of societies, the removal of societies from the register, or matters of enforcement:
- (e) perform or exercise other functions, duties, and powers conferred on the Registrar by this Act or the regulations.

242 Power of Registrar to delegate

- (1) The Registrar may delegate to any employee of the public service (within the meaning of the Public Service Act 2020), either generally or particularly, any of the Registrar's functions, duties, and powers (except this power of delegation).
- (2) A delegation—
 - (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) may be made subject to any restrictions and conditions that the Registrar thinks fit; and
 - (c) is revocable at any time, in writing; and
 - (d) does not prevent the performance or exercise of a function, duty, or power by the Registrar.
- (3) Any reference in this Act or the regulations to the Registrar includes a reference to the delegate in respect of anything delegated to that person.

243 How delegated functions may be performed

- (1) A person to whom any functions, duties, or powers are delegated may perform and exercise them in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been conferred directly by this Act and not by delegation.
- (2) A person who appears to act under a delegation is presumed to be acting in accordance with its terms in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

Registrar's powers of inspection

244 Registrar's powers of inspection

- (1) The Registrar or a person authorised by the Registrar may exercise 1 or more of the powers referred to in section 245—
 - (a) for the purpose of—
 - (i) ascertaining whether a society or an officer of a society is complying, or has complied, with this Act; or
 - (ii) ascertaining whether the Registrar should exercise any of their rights or powers under this Act; or
 - (iii) ascertaining whether there has been a contravention of this Act; but
 - (b) only if, in the Registrar's opinion, it is in the public interest to do so.

- (2) A person who is authorised by the Registrar must be an employee of the public service (within the meaning of the Public Service Act 2020).
- (3) Nothing in this section limits or affects the Tax Administration Act 1994 or the Statistics Act 1975.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 365

245 What powers may be exercised

- (1) The powers are as follows:
 - (a) to require a person, in the manner specified by the Registrar or authorised person, to produce for inspection relevant documents within that person's possession or control:
 - (b) to inspect and take copies of relevant documents:
 - (c) to take possession of relevant documents and remove them from the place where they are kept, and retain them for a reasonable time, for the purpose of taking copies:
 - (d) to retain relevant documents for a period that is, in all the circumstances, reasonable if there are reasonable grounds for believing that they are evidence of the commission of an offence.
- (2) A person who fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(a) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000.
- (3) A person referred to in subsection (1)(a) includes a person carrying on the business of banking.
- (4) Every person has the same privileges in relation to producing relevant documents under this section as witnesses have in proceedings before a court (see subpart 8 of Part 2 of the Evidence Act 2006).
- (5) In this section, relevant document, in relation to a society, means a document that contains information relating to—
 - (a) the society; or
 - (b) money or other property that is, or has been, managed, supervised, controlled, or held in trust by or for the society.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 365

246 Offence to obstruct or hinder

A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 if the person obstructs or hinders the Registrar or a person authorised by the Registrar while exercising a power conferred by section 244.

247 Disclosure of information and reports

- (1) This section applies to a person (A) who is authorised by the Registrar for the purpose of section 244 and who has—

- (a) obtained a document or other information in the course of making an inspection under that section; or
 - (b) prepared a report in relation to an inspection under that section.
- (2) A must, if directed to do so by the Registrar, give the document, information, or report to—
- (a) the Registrar; or
 - (b) the Minister; or
 - (c) the chief executive of the Ministry; or
 - (d) any person authorised by the Registrar to receive the document, information, or report for the purposes of this Act or in connection with the exercise of powers conferred by this Act; or
 - (e) a liquidator for the purposes of the liquidation of a society; or
 - (f) any person authorised by the Registrar to receive the document, information, or report for the purposes of detecting offences against any Act.
- (3) A must not disclose that document, information, or report except—
- (a) under subsection (2); or
 - (b) subject to the approval of the Registrar, with the consent of the person to whom it relates; or
 - (c) subject to the approval of the Registrar, for the purposes of this Act or in connection with the exercise of powers conferred by this Act; or
 - (d) to the extent that the information, or information contained in the document or report, is available under any Act or in a public document; or
 - (e) subject to the approval of the Registrar, to a liquidator for the purposes of the liquidation of a society; or
 - (f) in the course of criminal proceedings; or
 - (g) subject to the approval of the Registrar, for the purpose of detecting offences against any Act.
- (4) A person who fails to comply with this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 366

248 Inspector's report admissible in liquidation proceedings

Despite any other Act or rule of law, a report prepared by a person in relation to an inspection carried out by the person under section 244 is admissible in evidence at the hearing of an application to the court to appoint a liquidator.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 369

*Appeals against Registrar's decisions249 Appeals against Registrar's decisions

- (1) A person who is aggrieved by an act or a decision of the Registrar under this Act may appeal to the District Court within 28 working days after the date of notification of the act or decision, or within any further time that the court may allow.
- (2) On hearing the appeal, the District Court may approve the Registrar's act or decision or may give any directions or make any determination in the matter that the court thinks fit.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), there is no appeal against an act or a decision of the Registrar under—
 - (a) subpart 1, 2, or 4 of Part 4 (for example, there is no appeal against the Registrar's decision on whether or not to make an application under any of those subparts):
 - (b) section 215(1)(a), 216(1)(d), 221, 222, or 224.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 370

250 Exercise of powers under section 244 not affected by appeal

- (1) If a person appeals or applies to the court in relation to an act or a decision of the Registrar, or of a person authorised by the Registrar, under section 244, until a decision on the appeal or application is given,—
 - (a) the Registrar, or that person, may continue to exercise the powers under that section as if no appeal or application had been made; and
 - (b) no person is excused from fulfilling an obligation under that section by reason of that appeal or application.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite any other provision of any Act or any rule of law, but is subject to subsection (3).
- (3) If the appeal or application is allowed or granted,—
 - (a) the Registrar must ensure that, promptly after the decision of the court is given, any copy of a document taken or retained by the Registrar, or by a person authorised by the Registrar in respect of that act or decision, is destroyed; and
 - (b) no document or other information acquired under section 245 in relation to that act or decision is admissible in evidence in any proceeding unless the court hearing the proceeding in which it is sought to offer the evidence is satisfied that it was not obtained unfairly.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 371

Sharing of information relating to charitable entities

251 Sharing of information relating to charitable entities

- (1) The Registrar may provide to the Charities Act chief executive any information, or a copy of any document, that the Registrar—
 - (a) holds in relation to the performance or exercise of the Registrar’s functions, powers, or duties; and
 - (b) considers may assist that chief executive in the performance or exercise of their functions, powers, or duties under the Charities Act 2005.
- (2) The Registrar may use any information, or a copy of any document, provided to them by the Charities Act chief executive under the Charities Act 2005 in the Registrar’s performance or exercise of the Registrar’s functions, powers, or duties.

- (3) In this section,—

Charities Act chief executive means the chief executive within the meaning of section 4 of the Charities Act 2005

Registrar’s functions, powers, or duties means the Registrar’s functions, powers, or duties under this Act or any other legislation (including functions, powers, or duties as the Registrar under 1 or more of the Companies Act 1993, the Financial Service Providers (Registration and Dispute Resolution) Act 2008, and the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013).

- (4) This section applies despite anything to the contrary in any contract, deed, or document.
- (5) Nothing in this section limits the Privacy Act 2020.

Compare: 1993 No 105 s 371A

Subpart 2—Jurisdiction

252 Jurisdiction of District Court

- (1) The District Court may hear and determine appeals against the Registrar’s decisions.
- (2) The District Court may hear and determine applications for orders, or for a court to exercise any other power, under any of the provisions of this Act if—
 - (a) the amount claimed or the value of the property to which the matter relates does not exceed $350,000; or
 - (b) no amount is claimed and there is no property to which the matter relates; or
 - (c) the occasion for the making of the order or the exercise of the power arises in the course of civil proceedings properly before the court; or

- (d) the parties consent, under section 81 of the District Court Act 2016, to the District Court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the application.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).
- (4) Despite subsection (2), the District Court does not have jurisdiction to hear and determine an application or other matter if this Act expressly provides that the High Court is to exercise the power in relation to the matter (for example, applications for a society to be put into liquidation).

253 Jurisdiction of High Court

The High Court may hear and determine the following matters:

- (a) applications for orders, or for a court to exercise any other power, under any provision of this Act:
- (b) appeals arising from any proceeding in the District Court under this Act.

Subpart 3—Regulations

254 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make regulations for all or any of the following purposes:
 - (a) prescribing information that must be included or provided for the purposes of this Act:
 - (b) prescribing, for the purposes of any provision of this Act that requires a thing to be done in a manner prescribed by the regulations, the manner in which the thing must be done, including prescribing—
 - (i) by whom, when, where, and how the thing must be done:
 - (ii) the form that must be used in connection with doing the thing:
 - (iii) what information or other evidence or documents must be provided in connection with the thing:
 - (iv) requirements with which information, evidence, or documents that are provided in connection with the thing must comply:
 - (v) that fees or charges must be paid in connection with doing the thing:
 - (c) authorising the Registrar to determine or prescribe, whether by notice or by setting the requirements of the register, any of the matters under paragraph (b)(i) to (iv):
 - (d) declaring any class or classes of persons to be, or not to be, officers for the purposes of this Act:
 - (e) prescribing circumstances for the purposes of section 45(4):

- (f) prescribing countries, States, or territories for the purposes of section 47(3)(g):
- (g) prescribing changes for the purposes of section 52(1)(c):
- (h) prescribing conditions for the purposes of sections 62(3) and 67:
- (i) prescribing kinds of societies for the purposes of section 84(4):
- (j) defining total current assets for the purposes of section 103:
- (k) prescribing requirements under section 104(b) (financial statements of small societies):
- (l) prescribing kinds of societies for the purposes of section 105:
- (m) setting the infringement fee for each infringement offence, which must not exceed $1,000:
- (n) prescribing information to be included in infringement notices and reminder notices and the form of notices:
- (o) prescribing matters for the purposes of subpart 1 of Part 5, including prescribing persons for the purposes of sections 177(1)(a), 186(2), and 188:
- (p) prescribing matters for the purposes of subpart 5 of Part 5, including prescribing persons for the purposes of section 216(2)(b) and circumstances for the purposes of section 216(2)(c):
- (q) prescribing procedural requirements for resolutions referred to in section 229(1)(b):
- (r) prescribing the manner of serving documents on a society and when the documents are treated as received:
- (s) prescribing how information may or must be given to, provided to, or served on any person under this Act and other matters relating to that procedure (including when the information is treated as received, or as having been given, provided, or served, for the purposes of this Act and the regulations):
- (t) prescribing procedures, requirements, and other matters, not inconsistent with this Act, for the register, including matters that relate to—
 - (i) the operation of the register:
 - (ii) the form of the register:
 - (iii) the information to be contained in the register:
 - (iv) access to the register:
 - (v) search criteria for the register:
 - (vi) circumstances in which amendments must be made to the register:
- (u) specifying Acts for the purposes of section 257 and Schedule 3 (which allow an entity formed or incorporated by or under a specified Act to apply to be reregistered as an incorporated society):

- (v) specifying the preconditions that must be met for a body corporate or other association (an entity) to be reregistered as an incorporated society under section 257 and Schedule 3:
 - (w) specifying terms and conditions that must be complied with by an entity after it has reregistered as an incorporated society under section 257 and Schedule 3:
 - (x) providing for any other matters contemplated by this Act, necessary for its administration, or necessary for giving it full effect.
- (2) Regulations may be made under the following only on the recommendation of the Minister:
- (a) subsection (1)(l):
 - (b) subsection (1)(u) to (w).
- (3) The Minister may make a recommendation under subsection (2)(a) only if the Minister has had regard to the following:
- (a) the circumstances in which companies and other kinds of entities are required to have their financial statements audited under other legislation:
 - (b) the desirability of avoiding unnecessary administrative burdens, and unnecessary compliance costs, for incorporated societies:
 - (c) the principles in section 3(d):
 - (d) the desirability of promoting confidence in the integrity of the financial reporting of incorporated societies.
- (4) The Minister may make a recommendation under subsection (2)(b) in relation to an entity, or an entity of a particular type, that is formed or incorporated by or under an Act (the specified Act) only if—
- (a) the Minister is satisfied that allowing the entity, or an entity of that type, to reregister as an incorporated society—
 - (i) is not materially inconsistent with the purposes of the specified Act; and
 - (ii) is otherwise appropriate (having regard to the purposes of this Act and whether the matter would be more appropriately dealt with by way of parliamentary enactment); and
 - (b) in the case of a specified Act that imposes significant duties or requirements on the entity or on an entity of that type, the Minister is satisfied that an entity that is reregistered as an incorporated society will continue to be subject to substantially similar, or stricter, duties or requirements (subject to any minor or technical changes); and
 - (c) the Minister has consulted the persons (or representatives of the persons) that the Minister considers will be substantially affected by the regulations, and those persons have had the opportunity to comment to the Minister.

- (5) If regulations made under subsection (1)(c) authorise the Registrar to determine or prescribe matters by notice,—
- (a) the notice is secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements), unless the notice applies only to 1 or more named persons; and
- (b) the regulations must contain a statement to that effect.
- (6) Different matters for the purposes of this Act may be prescribed by the regulations for different classes of persons or different classes of circumstances.
- (7) Regulations made under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

255 Fees

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make regulations prescribing—
- (a) fees or other amounts payable to the Registrar for the performance of functions or the exercise of powers under this Act or the regulations or the manner in which those fees or amounts may be calculated;
- (b) amounts payable to the Registrar by way of penalty for failure to deliver a document to the Registrar within the time prescribed by or under this Act;
- (c) fees or other amounts payable to the Registrar for any other matter under this Act or the regulations or the manner in which those fees or amounts may be calculated.

- (2) The Registrar may refuse to perform a function or exercise a power until the fee or amount prescribed by the regulations is paid.
- (3) The regulations may authorise the Registrar to refund or waive, in whole or in part and on the conditions that may be prescribed, payment by 1 or more named persons of any fee or amount referred to in this section.
- (4) A fee or an amount payable to the Registrar is recoverable by the Registrar in any court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the Crown.
- (5) Regulations made under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

256 Transitionals, savings, and orderly implementation of Act

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister, make regulations for any of the following purposes:
 - (a) providing that, subject to any conditions stated in the regulations, transitional or savings provisions prescribed by the regulations that relate to the implementation of this Act (in addition to, or in substitution for, any other transitional provisions in Schedule 1) apply during the whole or any part of the transitional implementation period ending on the 5-year date:
 - (b) providing that, subject to any conditions stated in the regulations, specified provisions of this Act (including definitions and any transitional provisions in Schedule 1), or provisions of other legislation amended, revoked, or repealed by this Act, do not apply, or continue to apply or apply with modifications or additions, or both, during the whole or any part of the transitional implementation period ending on the 5-year date:
 - (c) prescribing matters for the purposes of Part 1 of Schedule 1.
- (2) The Minister must not recommend the making of regulations under this section unless the Minister is satisfied that the regulations—
 - (a) are necessary or desirable for the orderly implementation of this Act; and
 - (b) are consistent with the purposes of this Act.
- (3) This section is repealed on the close of the 5-year date.
- (4) Any regulations made under this section that are in force on the 5-year date are revoked on the close of that day.

- (5) Nothing in Schedule 1 limits this section.
- (6) In this section, 5-year date means the date that is 5 years after the date on which clause 4 of Schedule 1 comes into force.
- (7) Regulations made under this section are secondary legislation (see Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 for publication requirements).

Subpart 4—Conversion of entities into incorporated societies

257 Entities formed or incorporated by other Acts may convert to be incorporated societies

A body corporate or other association that is formed or incorporated by or under an Act that is specified by the regulations for the purposes of this section may be reregistered as an incorporated society under this Act in accordance with Schedule 3.

258 Consequences of failing to comply with terms or conditions of conversion

- (1) This section applies if an incorporated society fails to comply with a term or condition imposed under regulations made under section 254(1)(w).
- (2) The court may make 1 or more of the orders specified in section 129 as if the term or condition were a provision of the society's constitution.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), subpart 1 of Part 4 applies with all necessary modifications as if the term or condition were a provision of the society's constitution.
- (4) See also section 175, which specifies the failure as a ground that allows the Registrar to remove the society from the register.

Subpart 5—Amendments to Charitable Trusts Act 1957

259 Amendments to Charitable Trusts Act 1957

This subpart amends the Charitable Trusts Act 1957.

260 Section 6 amended (Interpretation)

- (1) In section 6, repeal the definition of Assistant Registrar.
- (2) In section 6, replace the definition of Registrar with:

Registrar means the Registrar of Incorporated Societies under the Incorporated Societies Act 2022

261 Section 8 replaced (Society may apply for incorporation)

Replace section 8 with:

8 Applications for incorporation may no longer be made by societies

- (1) An application for the incorporation of a society as a board under this Part may not be made on or after the commencement date.
- (2) An application for the incorporation of a society as a board under this Part that is made before the commencement date must be considered and determined as if the Incorporated Societies Act 2022 had not been enacted.
- (3) In this section, commencement date means the date on which section 261 of the Incorporated Societies Act 2022 comes into force.
- (4) See section 30A, which allows a society that is incorporated as a board under this Part to choose to reregister as a society under the Incorporated Societies Act 2022.

262 Section 9 amended (Manner in which society may authorise application)

In section 9, replace “sections 7 and 8” with “section 7”.

263 Section 10 amended (Applications for incorporation)

- (1) In section 10(2)(a), delete “or society”.
- (2) In section 10(2)(c), delete “by a society or”.
- (3) Replace section 10(3) with:
 - (3) If the Registrar considers that any documents accompanying an application do not disclose sufficient information regarding the trusts on which any property is held by the applicant or applicants, the Registrar may refuse to register the trustees as provided in this Part until the further information that the Registrar requires is supplied to the Registrar.

264 Section 11 amended (Registration of boards)

- (1) In section 11(1), delete “or society (as the case may be)”.
- (2) Replace section 11(1)(a) with:
 - (a) enter the name of the board in the register kept by the Registrar under this Part, together with details of the place of the board’s registered office and any other details that the Registrar thinks fit:

265 Section 17 amended (Right to appeal to court)

In section 17(1), delete “, or that a society is not to be so registered,”.

266 New section 30A inserted (Society may reregister under Incorporated Societies Act 2022)

After section 30, insert:

30A Society may reregister under Incorporated Societies Act 2022

- (1) A society incorporated as a board under this Part may continue to be incorporated under this Part as if this Act had not been amended by sections 259 to 267 of the Incorporated Societies Act 2022.
- (2) However, a society incorporated as a board under this Part may apply to be reregistered as a society under the Incorporated Societies Act 2022 under Part 1 of Schedule 1 of that Act (see clause 2(4) of that schedule).

267 Schedule 2 amended

In Schedule 2, repeal form 2.

Subpart 6—Repeal, revocation, and consequential amendments

268 Repeal of Incorporated Societies Act 1908

The Incorporated Societies Act 1908 (1908 No 212) is repealed.

269 Revocation of Incorporated Societies Regulations 1979

The Incorporated Societies Regulations 1979 (SR 1979/93) are revoked.

270 Amendments to and repeal of other legislation

- (1) Amend the Acts specified in Part 1 of Schedule 4 as set out in that schedule.
- (2) Amend the secondary legislation specified in Part 2 of Schedule 4 as set out in that schedule.
- (3) The Plunket Society Rules Act 1959 (1959 No 1(P)) is repealed.

Part 1

Process for existing societies to become societies under this Act

1 Purpose

The purpose of this Part is to provide for an existing society to become a society under the Incorporated Societies Act 2022.

2 Overview

- (1) Clause 4 prevents new societies from applying for incorporation under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 (the 1908 Act).
- (2) The general scheme and effect of the transitional provisions for a society that is already incorporated under the 1908 Act is as follows:
 - (a) the society continues to be subject to the 1908 Act until it reregisters as a society under this Act or until the transition date, which is the later of—
 - (i) 1 December 2025; and
 - (ii) the date that is 2 years and 6 months after the commencement of clause 4:
 - (b) during the period before the transition date, the society can amend its rules (or approve a new constitution) and make other arrangements to facilitate a transition to becoming a society under this Act. This includes ensuring that—
 - (i) the society’s proposed constitution will comply with the requirements of this Act; and
 - (ii) the society’s officers are qualified to be elected or appointed under section 47:
 - (c) the society may apply to be reregistered as a society under this Act before the transition date. The society will be reregistered if it meets the requirements for incorporation under this Act:
 - (d) the 1908 Act is repealed no later than the fourth anniversary of the date of Royal assent. If a society is not reregistered under this Act, the following applies:
 - (i) the society may cease to exist on the transition date, but may be restored to the register:
 - (ii) if the society is not restored, its surplus assets must be distributed under subpart 5 of Part 5 of this Act.
- (3) Section 8 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 (the 1957 Act) prevents new societies from applying for incorporation as a board under Part 2 of that Act.
- (4) The general scheme and effect of the transitional provisions for a society that is already incorporated as a board under Part 2 of the 1957 Act is as follows:
 - (a) the society may choose to reregister as a society under this Act:
 - (b) the society may continue to be subject to the 1957 Act indefinitely if it chooses not to reregister.
- (5) This clause is a guide only to the general scheme and effect of the transitional provisions for existing societies.

3 Interpretation

- (1) In this Part,—

1908 Act means the Incorporated Societies Act 1908

1957 Act means the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 committee means the committee or other governing body of the existing society existing society means—

(a) a society that is incorporated under the 1908 Act:

(b) a society that is incorporated as a board under Part 2 of the 1957 Act members means the members of the existing society officers means the members of the committee or other governing body of the existing society rules,—

(a) in relation to an existing society that is incorporated under the 1908 Act, means the rules of the society under that Act:

(b) in relation to an existing society that is incorporated as a board under Part 2 of the 1957 Act, means the rules and other documents (if any) providing for the constitution of the board transition date means the later of—

(a) 1 December 2025; and

(b) the date that is immediately after the expiry of the period of 2 years and 6 months that starts on the date on which clause 4 comes into force.

- (2) A reference to a society that is incorporated under the 1908 Act includes a branch or group of branches of a society that is incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Amendment Act 1920.

4 Application for incorporation may no longer be made under 1908 Act

- (1) An application for the incorporation of a society under the 1908 Act may not be made on or after the commencement of this clause.
- (2) An application for the incorporation of a society under the 1908 Act that is made before the commencement of this clause must be considered and determined as if this Act had not been enacted.
- (3) An application may be treated as having been made only if it is received by the Registrar before the commencement of this clause.

5 Existing society may apply to reregister under this Act

- (1) An existing society may apply for reregistration as a society under this Act unless the society is in liquidation.
- (2) In the case of an existing society that is incorporated under the 1908 Act, an application for reregistration may only be made before the transition date.
- (3) Every application for reregistration must—

- (a) contain, or be accompanied by, the information prescribed by the regulations; and
- (b) include the proposed name of the society; and
- (c) contain the name and contact details of at least 1 contact person; and
- (d) be accompanied by a copy of the society's proposed constitution; and
- (e) be accompanied by the fee prescribed by the regulations; and
- (f) otherwise be made in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

6 Dispute resolution provisions treated as applying

- (1) If a society's proposed constitution under clause 5(3)(d) does not contain provisions under section 26(1)(j) (which relates to dispute resolution), the constitution must be treated as including the provisions of clauses 2 to 8 of Schedule 2 for that purpose.
- (2) This clause does not apply if the Registrar refuses to reregister the society until the constitution is amended to address (to the Registrar's satisfaction) the matter referred to in subclause (1).
- (3) Subclause (1) does not prevent a society from subsequently amending its constitution in accordance with this Act (to change the procedures for resolving disputes referred to in section 26(1)(j)).
- (4) Section 40 does not limit this clause.

7 Reregistration

- (1) The Registrar must, as soon as practicable after receiving a properly completed application for reregistration of an existing society,—
 - (a) enter the society's name in the register (together with any other information relating to the society that the Registrar thinks appropriate); and
 - (b) issue a certificate of incorporation (which must specify the date of reregistration); and
 - (c) register the society's constitution.
- (2) However, the Registrar may refuse to reregister the society for any of the grounds referred to in sections 8 and 11 to 13.
- (3) If the Registrar considers that any of the grounds referred to in sections 8 and 11 to 13 apply but that it is nevertheless appropriate to reregister the society without further delay, the Registrar may reregister the society under subclause (1) subject to terms and conditions specified by the Registrar (instead of refusing reregistration under subclause (2)).
- (4) The Registrar must, if they act under subclause (3), be satisfied that the terms and conditions of reregistration are likely to ensure that the grounds referred to in sections 8 and 11 to 13 that apply are addressed (to the Registrar's satisfaction) within a reasonable period of time.

- (5) See also section 175(1)(g), which specifies the failure to comply with a term or condition of reregistration as a ground on which the Registrar may remove the society from the register.
- (6) Nothing in this clause prevents the Registrar or the court from performing or exercising any function, duty, or power in respect of any grounds referred to in subclause (2) if there has been any failure to comply with any term or condition of reregistration.
- (7) A certificate of incorporation of an existing society issued under this section is conclusive evidence that—
 - (a) all the requirements of this Part about applying for reregistration have been complied with (but see section 10(2), which confirms that the Registrar may consider or reconsider at any time whether requirements of this Act are complied with); and
 - (b) on and from the date of reregistration stated in the certificate, the society is reregistered and incorporated under this Act.
- (8) The 1908 Act or Part 2 of the 1957 Act, as the case may be, ceases to apply to an existing society on its reregistration under this Act.
- (9) For the purposes of this clause, sections 8 to 14 apply with all necessary modifications as if the application for reregistration were an application for incorporation.

8 Proposed constitution must be existing rules or new constitution

A proposed constitution that an existing society provides under clause 5(3)(d) must be—

- (a) the rules of the existing society (see clause 9, which allows the society to amend the rules to ensure that they will comply with the requirements of this Act); or
- (b) a new constitution that is approved in accordance with clause 10.

9 Existing society may amend its rules to facilitate reregistration

- (1) This clause applies—
 - (a) to the rules of an existing society; and
 - (b) despite anything to the contrary in the rules or in any legislation, rule of law, or agreement, including anything relating to the consent of any person to the making of amendments to the rules.
- (2) The existing society may, subject to subclauses (3) to (5), amend its rules in any manner that is necessary or desirable to ensure, or in connection with ensuring, that the rules will comply with the requirements of this Act relating to the constitution of a society.
- (3) Every amendment of an existing society's rules must be—
 - (a) in writing; and

- (b) either—
 - (i) approved at a general meeting of the existing society by a majority vote of those members entitled to vote and voting on the question; or
 - (ii) approved in the manner prescribed by the regulations; and
- (c) signed by at least 2 members of the society.
- (4) An approval under subclause (3)(b) may provide for either or both of the following:
 - (a) 1 or more particular amendments to take effect under the 1908 Act or the 1957 Act (before the existing society is reregistered):
 - (b) 1 or more particular amendments to take effect only on the existing society's reregistration under this Act.
- (5) If any particular amendments are intended to take effect under the 1908 Act or the 1957 Act, the existing society must ensure that the following are given to the Registrar within 25 working days after the amendments are approved:
 - (a) a copy of those amendments; and
 - (b) the information or documents prescribed by the regulations (if any).
- (6) Section 21(3) to (5) of the 1908 Act applies with all necessary modifications, in relation to an existing society that is incorporated under that Act, to an amendment made under this clause that is intended to take effect under that Act as if an amendment made under this clause were an alteration that has been duly made under that section.
- (7) In this clause, Registrar means the Registrar of Incorporated Societies under the 1908 Act.

10 Existing society may approve new constitution to take effect on reregistration

- (1) An existing society may approve a constitution to take effect on its reregistration under this Act.
- (2) The constitution must be—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) approved at a general meeting of the existing society by a majority vote of those members entitled to vote and voting on the question; or
 - (ii) approved in a manner prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) signed by at least 2 members of the society.

11 Consequences of reregistering existing society under this Act

- (1) An existing society that is reregistered as a society under this Act continues as the same legal entity.

- (2) In particular, the reregistration of the existing society does not—
 - (a) create a new legal entity; or
 - (b) prejudice or affect the identity of the body corporate constituted by the existing society or its continuity as a legal entity; or
 - (c) affect the property, rights, or obligations of the existing society; or
 - (d) affect proceedings by or against the existing society.
- (3) Subclause (2)(c) is subject to the rights or obligations conferred or imposed on the existing society by or under this Act or its constitution.
- (4) Proceedings that could have been commenced or continued by or against the existing society before it reregisters as a society under this Act may be commenced or continued by or against the existing society after it is reregistered.
- (5) Neither the reregistration of the existing society nor anything in or effected by, or done under, this Part—
 - (a) places any person in breach of, or otherwise in default under, any legislation, an instrument, a confidence, a trust, or any other rule of law or equity, or makes any person liable for a civil wrong; or
 - (b) entitles any person—
 - (i) to require the payment or performance of a liability or an obligation that does not otherwise arise for payment or performance; or
 - (ii) to exercise a right that does not otherwise become exercisable; or
 - (iii) to deny a liability or an obligation that the person is not otherwise entitled to deny; or
 - (c) invalidates or discharges an instrument or any provision of an instrument; or
 - (d) releases a surety from a liability or an obligation.
- (6) In this clause, instrument includes any contract, deed, or other document.

12 Consequences of not reregistering existing incorporated society under this Act

- (1) This clause applies to an existing society that is incorporated under the 1908 Act.
- (2) If the existing society has not reregistered under this Act before the transition date,—
 - (a) the existing society ceases to exist at the start of the transition date; and
 - (b) this Act applies, with all necessary modifications, as if the existing society had been removed from the register at the start of the transition date.
- (3) Despite subclause (2), if an application for the reregistration of the existing society is received by the Registrar before the transition date but that application has not been finally determined before that date, the following applies:

- (a) the Registrar must continue to deal with the application;
 - (b) the society continues to be incorporated under the 1908 Act until—
 - (i) the date of reregistration under this Act; or
 - (ii) the expiry of the 28-working-day period that starts immediately after the date on which the Registrar notifies the society that the Registrar has made a final decision to refuse to reregister the society (without giving any further opportunity to address the grounds for refusal); or
 - (iii) the expiry of any further time allowed by a court to allow an appeal against the Registrar’s decision (where the court gives an order allowing the further time before the expiry of the 28 working days referred to in paragraph (b)(ii) or before the expiry of any previous extension of the time allowed by a court):
 - (c) if the society is not reregistered, the society ceases to exist on the later of—
 - (i) the expiry of the 28-working-day period referred to in paragraph (b)(ii); and
 - (ii) the expiry of any further time allowed by a court under paragraph (b)(iii):
 - (d) if the society ceases to exist under paragraph (c), this Act applies, with all necessary modifications, as if the existing society had been removed from the register when it ceased to exist.
- (4) The consequences of subclauses (2)(b) and (3)(c) and (d) include the following:
- (a) the existing society may be restored to the register under sections 184 to 190:
 - (b) subpart 5 of Part 5 applies.
- (5) However, if an existing society to which subclause (2)(b) or subclause (3)(c) and (d) applies is a racing club within the meaning of section 5(1) of the Racing Industry Act 2020, section 24 of the Racing Industry Act 2020 applies instead of sections 215 to 224 of this Act.
- (6) In addition to the grounds for restoration under section 185, the Registrar may, on the application made in the manner prescribed by the regulations, also restore an existing society to the register under sections 184 to 190 if the Registrar is satisfied that there is a proper reason for the society to continue to exist.
- (7) If a society continues to be incorporated under the 1908 Act under subclause (3)(b), the 1908 Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of this clause, continues to apply to the society.
- (8) This clause is subject to clauses 13, 15, and 16.

13 Registrar may not restore existing society to register after 6 years

- (1) The Registrar may not restore an existing society to the register under sections 184 to 187 after the sixth anniversary of the date on which it ceases to exist under clause 12.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply if, at any time, the existing society was incorporated under this Act.

14 Registrar may give directions to facilitate transition

- (1) The Registrar may, at any time before an existing society reregisters under this Act, give a direction under this clause if it appears to the Registrar that—
 - (a) the proposed constitution of an existing society does not comply with the requirements of this Act; or
 - (b) 1 or more of the officers of an existing society are disqualified from being elected or appointed or holding office as an officer of the society under section 47; or
 - (c) it is otherwise necessary or desirable to give a direction in order to facilitate the transition of the society to being a society in respect of which the requirements of this Act are fully complied with.
- (2) The Registrar may give 1 or more of the following directions:
 - (a) a direction requiring or allowing the proposed constitution to be amended in order to ensure that it complies with the requirements of this Act;
 - (b) a direction that a person who is disqualified as referred to in subclause (1)(b)—
 - (i) ceases to be an officer of the society on a date specified in the direction; or
 - (ii) must be removed from being an officer of the society;
 - (c) a direction concerning the process for amending the proposed constitution or removing an officer (for example, the direction may provide for an amendment to be approved by the committee without seeking any further approval from the members, or may require an amendment to be approved by the members);
 - (d) any other direction that is necessary or desirable in order to facilitate the transition of the society to being a society in respect of which the requirements of this Act are fully complied with.
- (3) An amendment to a proposed constitution, the removal of an officer, or any other action taken in accordance with the direction must be treated as being effective and binding on the existing society, its members, and any other person.

- (4) Subclause (3) applies despite anything to the contrary in the society's rules or in any legislation, rule of law, or agreement, including anything relating to the consent of any person to the making of amendments to the rules or constitution or to the removal of an officer.

15 Former law continues to apply to existing dissolutions and liquidations

The 1908 Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of this clause, continues to apply in respect of every dissolution or liquidation of a society incorporated under that Act that occurred or commenced before the transition date.

16 Existing societies that have been dissolved or put into liquidation

- (1) This clause applies to an existing society if—
- (a) the existing society had previously been dissolved under the 1908 Act but, after the transition date, the dissolution is revoked under section 28 of the 1908 Act (as continued in effect by clause 15); or
 - (b) the existing society had been in liquidation under the 1908 Act but, after the transition date, the existing society ceases to be in liquidation under sections 24 to 27 of the 1908 Act (as continued in effect by clause 15).
- (2) The Registrar may give a notice to the society that extends the application of clause 5 (and, if applicable, modifies the application of clause 12) to give the society a reasonable opportunity to reregister as a society under this Act.
- (3) The Registrar may act under subclause (2) only if the Registrar is satisfied that there is a proper reason for the society to continue to exist.
- (4) The extension (and modification) are subject to any terms and conditions that the Registrar thinks fit (being terms and conditions specified in the notice).

Part 2

Other transitional provisions

17 Incorporated branches and groups of branches

- (1) This clause applies to a branch or group of branches of a society that, immediately before the commencement of this clause, was incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Amendment Act 1920.
- (2) Sections 6 and 7 of the Incorporated Societies Amendment Act 1920 continue to apply to the branch or group of branches and to the parent society with all necessary modifications for the purposes of this Act as if those provisions were still in force.
- (3) However, subclause (2) ceases to apply if the Registrar receives a notice, in the manner prescribed by the regulations, for the purposes of this subclause from both—
- (a) the parent society; and

- (b) the branch or group.
- (4) In this clause, parent society means the society in respect of which the branch or group of branches was incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Amendment Act 1920.

18 References to incorporated societies

Unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) a reference in a provision of any other legislation to a society registered or incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908 (or any similar reference) includes a reference to a society registered or incorporated under this Act; and
- (b) a reference in a provision of any other legislation to a society registered or incorporated under this Act (or any similar reference) includes a reference to a society registered or incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908.

19 References to Registrar of Incorporated Societies

Unless the context otherwise requires, a reference in a provision of any other legislation to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies under this Act includes the Registrar of Incorporated Societies under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908.

20 Existing law continues to apply to societies while they continue to be incorporated under Incorporated Societies Act 1908

- (1) This clause applies if—
 - (a) a provision of any other legislation (the provision) is amended or replaced under Schedule 4; and
 - (b) the provision applies in relation to a society incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908; and
 - (c) the society continues to be incorporated under that Act in accordance with this schedule.
- (2) Unless the context otherwise requires, the provision continues to apply to the society as if this Act had not been enacted (but only for as long as the society continues to be incorporated under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908).

Schedule 2

Optional dispute resolution procedures

s 40

1 Overview of this schedule

- (1) Section 39 requires the procedures in a society's constitution relating to disputes to be consistent with the rules of natural justice.
- (2) A society may choose (but is not required) to include the procedures in this schedule in its constitution.
- (3) The procedures in a society's constitution must be treated as being consistent with the rules of natural justice if those procedures consist of—
 - (a) all of the procedures in this schedule; and
 - (b) any additional procedures that are consistent with those procedures.

2 How complaint is made

- (1) A member or an officer may make a complaint by giving to the committee (or a complaints subcommittee) a notice in writing that—
 - (a) states that the member or officer is starting a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with the society's constitution; and
 - (b) sets out the allegation to which the dispute relates and whom the allegation is against; and
 - (c) sets out any other information reasonably required by the society.
- (2) The society may make a complaint involving an allegation against a member or an officer by giving to the member or officer a notice in writing that—
 - (a) states that the society is starting a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with the society's constitution; and
 - (b) sets out the allegation to which the dispute relates.
- (3) The information given under subclause (1)(b) or (2)(b) must be enough to ensure that a person against whom an allegation is made is fairly advised of the allegation concerning them, with sufficient details given to enable them to prepare a response.
- (4) A complaint may be made in any other reasonable manner permitted by the society's constitution.

3 Person who makes complaint has right to be heard

- (1) A member or an officer who makes a complaint has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined.
- (2) If the society makes a complaint,—
 - (a) the society has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined; and

- (b) an officer may exercise that right on behalf of the society.
- (3) Without limiting the manner in which the member, officer, or society may be given the right to be heard, they must be taken to have been given the right if—
 - (a) they have a reasonable opportunity to be heard in writing or at an oral hearing (if one is held); and
 - (b) an oral hearing is held if the decision maker considers that an oral hearing is needed to ensure an adequate hearing; and
 - (c) an oral hearing (if any) is held before the decision maker; and
 - (d) the member's, officer's, or society's written statement or submissions (if any) are considered by the decision maker.

4 Person who is subject of complaint has right to be heard

- (1) This clause applies if a complaint involves an allegation that a member, an officer, or the society (the respondent)—
 - (a) has engaged in misconduct; or
 - (b) has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under the society's constitution or bylaws or this Act; or
 - (c) has damaged the rights or interests of a member or the rights or interests of members generally.
- (2) The respondent has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined.
- (3) If the respondent is the society, an officer may exercise the right on behalf of the society.
- (4) Without limiting the manner in which a respondent may be given a right to be heard, a respondent must be taken to have been given the right if—
 - (a) the respondent is fairly advised of all allegations concerning the respondent, with sufficient details and time given to enable the respondent to prepare a response; and
 - (b) the respondent has a reasonable opportunity to be heard in writing or at an oral hearing (if one is held); and
 - (c) an oral hearing is held if the decision maker considers that an oral hearing is needed to ensure an adequate hearing; and
 - (d) an oral hearing (if any) is held before the decision maker; and
 - (e) the respondent's written statement or submissions (if any) are considered by the decision maker.

5 Investigating and determining dispute

- (1) A society must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after receiving or becoming aware of a complaint made in accordance with its constitution, ensure that the dispute is investigated and determined.

- (2) Disputes must be dealt with under the constitution in a fair, efficient, and effective manner.

6 Society may decide not to proceed further with complaint

Despite clause 5, a society may decide not to proceed further with a complaint if—

- (a) the complaint is trivial; or
- (b) the complaint does not appear to disclose or involve any allegation of the following kind:
 - (i) that a member or an officer has engaged in material misconduct;
 - (ii) that a member, an officer, or the society has materially breached, or is likely to materially breach, a duty under the society's constitution or bylaws or this Act;
 - (iii) that a member's rights or interests or members' rights or interests generally have been materially damaged;
- (c) the complaint appears to be without foundation or there is no apparent evidence to support it; or
- (d) the person who makes the complaint has an insignificant interest in the matter; or
- (e) the conduct, incident, event, or issue giving rise to the complaint has already been investigated and dealt with under the constitution; or
- (f) there has been an undue delay in making the complaint.

7 Society may refer complaint

- (1) A society may refer a complaint to—
- (a) a subcommittee or an external person to investigate and report; or
 - (b) a subcommittee, an arbitral tribunal, or an external person to investigate and make a decision.
- (2) A society may, with the consent of all parties to a complaint, refer the complaint to any type of consensual dispute resolution (for example, mediation, facilitation, or a tikanga-based practice).

8 Decision makers

A person may not act as a decision maker in relation to a complaint if 2 or more members of the committee or a complaints subcommittee consider that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person may not be—

- (a) impartial; or
- (b) able to consider the matter without a predetermined view.

1 When schedule applies

This schedule applies to a body corporate or other association (a specified entity) that is formed or incorporated by or under an Act that is specified by the regulations (the entity's Act).

2 Specified entity may decide to be reregistered as incorporated society

- (1) This clause sets out how a specified entity may decide to apply to be reregistered as an incorporated society under this Act.
- (2) If the rules of the entity specify a manner in which the entity may amend those rules, the decision to apply to be reregistered must be made—
 - (a) in the same manner (with the rules specifying the manner to apply with all necessary modifications); or
 - (b) in an alternative manner approved by the Registrar.
- (3) The Registrar may approve an alternative manner if the Registrar is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable for the decision to be made under subclause (2)(a).
- (4) If subclause (2) does not apply, the decision to apply to be reregistered must be made by a resolution approved by a majority of 75% or more of the votes of the members of the entity.

3 Application for reregistration

An application for reregistration under this schedule must—

- (a) contain evidence that the preconditions prescribed under section 254(1)(v) (if any) have been met; and
- (b) contain, or be accompanied by, the information prescribed by the regulations; and

- (c) include the proposed name of the society; and
- (d) contain the name and contact details of at least 1 contact person; and
- (e) be accompanied by a copy of the society's proposed constitution; and
- (f) be accompanied by the fee prescribed by the regulations; and
- (g) otherwise be made in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

4 Reregistration of specified entity as incorporated society

- (1) The Registrar must, as soon as practicable after receiving a properly completed application for reregistration of a specified entity as a society,—
 - (a) enter the society's name in the register (together with any other information relating to the society that the Registrar thinks appropriate); and
 - (b) issue a certificate of incorporation (which must specify the date of reregistration); and
 - (c) register the society's constitution.
- (2) However, the Registrar—
 - (a) must refuse to reregister the specified entity as a society if the Registrar—
 - (i) is satisfied that 1 or more of the preconditions specified under section 254(1)(v) have not been met; or
 - (ii) has reason to believe that the specified entity is likely to contravene any term or condition prescribed under section 254(1)(w); and
 - (b) may refuse to reregister the specified entity as a society on any of the grounds referred to in sections 8 and 11 to 13 (and, for that purpose, those sections and sections 10 and 14 apply with all necessary modifications as if the application for reregistration were an application for incorporation).
- (3) A certificate of incorporation of society issued under this clause is conclusive evidence that—
 - (a) all the requirements of this schedule about applying for reregistration have been complied with; and
 - (b) on and from the date of reregistration stated in the certificate, the specified entity is reregistered as a society and incorporated under this Act.

5 Entity's Act ceases to apply on reregistration

The entity's Act ceases to apply to the specified entity on its reregistration as a society under this Act.

6 Consequences of reregistering specified entity under this Act

- (1) A specified entity that is reregistered as a society under this Act continues as the same legal entity.
- (2) In particular, the reregistration of the specified entity does not—
 - (a) create a new legal entity; or
 - (b) prejudice or affect the identity of the body corporate or association constituted by the specified entity or its continuity as a legal entity; or
 - (c) affect the property, rights, or obligations of the specified entity; or
 - (d) affect proceedings by or against the specified entity.
- (3) Subclause (2)(c) is subject to the rights or obligations conferred or imposed on the society by or under this Act or its constitution.
- (4) Proceedings that could have been commenced or continued by or against the specified entity before it reregisters as a society under this Act may be commenced or continued by or against the society after it is reregistered.
- (5) Neither the reregistration of the specified entity nor anything in or effected by, or done under, this schedule—
 - (a) places any person in breach of, or otherwise in default under, any legislation, an instrument, a confidence, a trust, or any other rule of law or equity, or makes any person liable for a civil wrong; or
 - (b) entitles any person—
 - (i) to require the payment or performance of a liability or an obligation that does not otherwise arise for payment or performance; or
 - (ii) to exercise a right that does not otherwise become exercisable; or
 - (iii) to deny a liability or an obligation that the person is not otherwise entitled to deny; or
 - (c) invalidates or discharges an instrument or any provision of an instrument; or
 - (d) releases a surety from a liability or an obligation.
- (6) In this clause, instrument includes any contract, deed, or other document.
