Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on 30 June 2000, removes the Land and Building Systems group of companies from statutory receivership under the Companies Special Investigations Act 1958, from the close of that day. Those companies were placed in statutory receivership by the Companies Special Investigations Order 1979. The Companies Special Investigations Act 1958 has, despite its repeal by the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Act 1989, continued to apply to the companies by virtue of section 74 of the 1989 Act.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 1 June 2000.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Companies Special Investigations Order 2000 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
