Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette, amend the Student Allowances Regulations 1998 (the principal regulations).

They provide that, as from the commencement of 1 January 2004, the students who are eligible to receive a basic grant under the principal regulations include a single tertiary student of or over 16 but younger than 18 who—

- has completed a course of secondary instruction to year 13 level; or
- has not completed a course of secondary instruction to year 13 level but—
 - has obtained, in the University Bursaries Examination, 3 “C” grade passes or better; or
 - has obtained, at level 3 of the National Qualifications Framework, 42 credits or more.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 18 September 2003.
