1 Title

- (1) These regulations are the Health and Safety in Employment (Mining Administration) Amendment Regulations 2003
- (2) In these regulations, the Health and Safety in Employment (Mining Administration) Regulations 1996¹ are called “the principal regulations”.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

Note

Changes authorised by subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019 have been made in this consolidation. See the notes at the end of this consolidation for further details.

These regulations are administered by the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment.

3 Other employees required to hold certificates

Regulation 15 of the principal regulations is amended by omitting the words “a mine shot-firer, a mine surveyor, a quarry shot-firer, a tunnel shot-firer,”, and substituting the words “a mine surveyor,”.

4 Certificates of competence

Regulation 16 of the principal regulations is amended by revoking paragraphs (n), (p), and (q).

5 Schedule 1 amended

The Schedule 1 of the principal regulations is amended by omitting the item relating to Mine shot-firer, quarry shot-firer, tunnel shot-firer.

Diane Morcom,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette, amend the Health and Safety in Employment (Mining Administration) Regulations 1996 by revoking the provisions relating to shot-firers.

As a result of the coming into force of the Hazardous Substances (Fireworks, Safety Ammunition, and Other Explosives Transfer) Regulations 2003 (SR 2003/176), handlers of explosives must now comply with the requirements imposed by regulations made under the Hazardous Substances and New Organisms Act 1996. Consequently, any regulations made under the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992 that impose certification requirements on handlers of explosives are no longer necessary.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 18 September 2003.
