 - (b) includes transferring dairy material or dairy product between vehicles or any other mode of transport used.

6 New clause 9A inserted

The following clause is inserted after clause 9:

9A Transporting of animal material or animal product for animal consumption

- (1) A risk management programme is not required for the transporting of animal material or animal product (other than dairy material or dairy product) for animal consumption for export without official assurances or for the domestic market.
- (2) In subclause (1), transporting—
 - (a) means transporting by vehicle or any other mode of transport; and
 - (b) includes transferring animal material or animal product between vehicles or any other mode of transport used.

7 Revocations

- (1) Clauses 8C and 8D are revoked.
- (2) The Animal Products (Exemptions and Inclusions) Amendment Order (No 2) 2008 (SR 2008/222) is consequently revoked.

Michael Webster,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order amends the Animal Products (Exemptions and Inclusions) Order 2000 and comes into force on 2 November 2009, except for the amendments in clauses 4 and 5, which come into force on 31 March 2010.

The amendments—

- provide that a risk management programme is not required for dairy processors in relation to the transporting of dairy material or dairy product for export without official assurances or for the domestic market. This amendment comes into force on 31 March 2010:

- provide that a risk management programme is not required for the transporting of dairy material or dairy product for animal consumption for export without official assurances or for the domestic market. This amendment comes into force on 31 March 2010:
- provide that a risk management programme is not required for the transporting of animal material or animal product (other than dairy material or dairy product) for animal consumption for export without official assurances or for the domestic market. This amendment comes into force on 2 November 2009:
- revoke clauses 8C and 8D, which contain exemptions from the requirement to have a risk management programme in relation to the transporting and storage of certain products for export. These clauses expire on the close of 1 November 2009.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2019.
Date of notification in Gazette: 1 October 2009.

Notes

1 General

This is a consolidation of the Animal Products (Exemptions and Inclusions) Amendment Order 2009 that incorporates the amendments made to the legislation so that it shows the law as at its stated date.

2 Legal status

A consolidation is taken to correctly state, as at its stated date, the law enacted or made by the legislation consolidated and by the amendments. This presumption applies unless the contrary is shown.

Section 78 of the Legislation Act 2019 provides that this consolidation, published as an electronic version, is an official version. A printed version of legislation that is produced directly from this official electronic version is also an official version.

3 Editorial and format changes

The Parliamentary Counsel Office makes editorial and format changes to consolidations using the powers under subpart 2 of Part 3 of the Legislation Act 2019. See also PCO editorial conventions for consolidations.
