Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the Health and Safety in Employment (Adventure Activities) Amendment Regulations 2012.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 15 December 2012.

3 Principal regulations

These regulations amend the Health and Safety in Employment (Adventure Activities) Regulations 2011 (the principal regulations).

4 Regulation 20 amended (Publication of safety audit standards)

After regulation 20(3), insert:

- (3A) Safety audit standards must include standards or requirements to manage the risks of drug and alcohol use by operators, employees, or other persons through whom adventure activities are provided.

Michael Webster,
for Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 15 December 2012, amend the Health and Safety in Employment (Adventure Activities) Regulations 2011 (the principal regulations).

The principal regulations require that any safety audit standards published by the Secretary for the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment for adventure activity operators specify standards or requirements for reducing the risks of providing those adventure activities.

This amendment requires that any published safety audit standards include standards or requirements addressing the risks of drug or alcohol use by persons providing adventure activities.
